

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Hymn to Perpetual Light Don Beach, 2006-03 Hymn to Perpetual Light A Transcendental Comedy in Six Cantos makes use of Spenserian Stanzas and free verse to describe God's salvation of a world gone astray through Primal Sin. Beginning with theological and philosophical observations about God's relationship to his creation, poet Don Beach compares enlightenment to a spiritual journey. This would be from the darkness of a cave-like existence, ignorance and unawareness similar to Plato's Allegory of the Cave to the bright light of reality and redemption through God's divine love and compassion. Fortunately, some cave dwellers aren't incorrigible or sinful beyond redemption; they are more likely to be confused and misguided. This in turn causes them to be detached from truth, beauty, and God's redeeming love. But the poet shows us that every person can be saved by traveling the challenging road to enlightenment and salvation that he describes in Hymn to Perpetual Light.

Eternal light and earthly concerns Paul Fouracre, 2021-04-27 In early Christianity, it was established that every church should have a light burning on the altar at all times. In this unique study, Eternal light and earthly concerns looks at the material and social consequences of maintaining these eternal lights. It investigates how the cost of lighting was met across western Europe throughout the whole of the Middle Ages, revealing the social organisation that was built up around maintaining the lights in the belief that burning them reduced the time spent in Purgatory. When that belief collapsed in the Reformation, the eternal lights were summarily extinguished. The history of the lights thus offers not only a new account of change in medieval Europe but also a sustained examination of the relationship between materiality and belief.

Bulletin, 1926 Light, 1925 The Ocean on Fire Anaïs Maurer, 2024-03-01 Anaïs Maurer foregrounds Pacific literature as a key archive for surviving and thriving in an environment in which Indigenous inhabitants have been bombarded with the equivalent of one Hiroshima bomb a day for half a century.

Perpetual Light William Rose Benét, 1919 Bulletin United States National Museum, 1926 The Collection of Primitive Weapons and Armor of the Philippine Islands in the United States National Museum Herbert William Krieger, 1926 Fire as an Agent in Human Culture Walter Hough, 1926 This work undertakes the presentation of salient features of an encyclopedic subject in a more or less condensed fashion. The importance of the study of heating and illumination is thought to be its contribution to the history of culture as connected with the inventiveness displayed by man in the adaptation of the primary natural key force nearest to his needs in all the earlier stages of progress. The history also suggests the intellectual, esthetic, and religious reactions marking the several stages of culture gradually attained by man.
