Persian Miniatures H. G. Dwight,2015-06-26 Excerpt from Persian Miniatures Illustrated With Drawings In good sooth my masters this is no door But it is a little window which looketh into a great world No dubious reader Your book is no treatise on those little pictures sometimes gaily coloured sometimes faintly sketched of turbaned princes and flowering trees and dancing gazelles which it has become so much the fashion to collect and to forge It contains not even one photograph of a true Persian miniature though if the war had not made it impossible for me to get hold of a certain portrait by the great Behzad I would have borrowed it to reflect distinction on my pages And having learned by pungent experience that ye reviewer is somewhat given to jumping from a title to a conclusion and then visiting his disappointment upon ye scribbler's head I make it my duty to give warning as loudly as I may that no Orientalist need waste time in turning over these pages About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Persian Miniature Painting Laurence Binyon,James Vere Stewart Wilkinson,Basil Gray,1971 No section of Persian art was so brilliantly and completely represented at Burlington House in 1931 as the section of Miniatures It was the largest and finest collection ever displayed in Europe and could claim to be fully representative The Bodleian Library the Libraries of Edinburgh University the Royal Asiatic Society and the India Office lent precious manuscripts and single drawings but the richest contribution came from that of a private owner Mr Chester Beatty This material was largely new and unpublished and its juxtaposition with the splendid loans from private collections in Europe and America especially famous Paris collections like those of M Vever the late M Claude Anet and M Cartier afforded an unparalleled opportunity for comparative study such as was greatly needed Introduction Bulletin Rhode Island School of Design,1916 Muqarnas Gülru Necipoğlu,2002-01-01 Eva Baer The Illustrations for an Early Manuscript of Ibn Butlan's
