Persian Paintings in the John Rylands Library John Rylands University Library of Manchester, John Rylands Library, Basil William Robinson, 1980      Fifteenth-Century Persian Painting B. W. Robinson, 1993-03 In this book B W Robinson traces the development of the different styles of Persian painting during the fifteenth century and considers a number of the problems and issues involved in establishing a methodology and system of classification for Persian painting of that period Robinson begins by way of background with a review of the schools of Herat and Shiraz up to the middle of the century and then proceeds to tackle in order the three main fields of controversy painting under the Turkmans Timurid paintings in Transoxiana and Timurid painting in India The uneasy fusion of contrasting characteristics of Herat and Shiraz that resulted in the emergence of Turkman court painting is traced through the origins development and branching of the Turkman style into a definitive form Then the author reviews a branch of the art almost entirely neglected up to now which he identifies as originating in Transoxiana Finally he provides a new approach to the study of pre Mughal Indian painting in Persian style by dividing the material into five stylistic groups      Perspectives on Persian Painting Dr Barbara Brend, 2013-11-05 This is a detailed study of the illustrations to Amir Khusrau's Khamsah in which twenty discourses are followed by a brief parable and four romances Amir Khusrau 1253-1325 lived the greater part of adventurous life in Delhi he composed in Persian and also in Hindi From the point of view of manuscript illustration his most important work is his Khamsah Quintet Khusrau's position as a link between cultures of Persia and India means that the early illustrated copies of the Khamsah have a particular interest The first extant exemplar is from the Persian area in the late 14th century but a case can be made that work was probably illustrated earlier in India      Persian Art Vladimir Lukonin, Anatoly Ivanov, 2012-06-30 Housed in the Hermitage Museum along with other institutes libraries and museums in Russia and the republics of the former Soviet Union are some of the most magnificent treasures of Persian Art For the most part many of these works have been lost but have been catalogued and published here for the first time with an unsurpassed selection of colour plates In a comprehensive introduction Vladimir Lukonin Director of the Oriental Art section of the Hermitage Museum and his colleague Anatoli Ivanov have broadly documented the major developments of Persian Art from the first signs of civilisation on the plains of Iran around the 10th century BCE through the early 20th century In the second part of the book they have catalogued Persian Art giving locations origins descriptions and artist biographies where available Persian Art demonstrates a common theme which runs through the art of the region over the past three millennia Despite many religious and political upheavals Persian Art whether in its architecture sculpture frescoes miniatures porcelain fabrics or rugs whether in the work of the humble craftsmen or the high art of court painters displays the delicate touch and subtle refinement which has had a profound influence on art throughout the world      Art, Allegory and the Rise of Shi'ism in Iran, 1487-1565 Kia Chad Kia, 2019-06-03 Transforming our understanding of Persian art this impressive interdisciplinary book decodes some of the world's most exquisite medieval paintings. It reveals the hidden meaning behind enigmatic figures and scenes that have puzzled modern scholars focusing on five miniature paintings. Chad Kia shows how the cryptic elements in these works of art from Timurid Persia conveyed the mystical teachings of Sufi poets like Rumi Attar and Jami and heralded one of the most significant events in the history of Islam: the takeover by the Safavids in 1501 and the conversion of Iran to Shiism.
