to believe in certain principles of our faith in Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord Constant practice of those principles is imperative for the Christian s growth There are five major Christian principles that have been identified prayer Bible study church support giving and tithing and witnessing about Jesus Christ All five of these principles are biblically based with references included in this composite book The first Christian principle Bible study must be an integral part of your daily life Whether you read the Bible orally or silently each day Bible study equips the Christian with the necessary tools to deal with the problems and challenges that you face daily The second Christian principle prayer is equally as important as the first Communication is necessary for any person to be successful in the world Well communication with God is mandatory if one wants direction and help with the numerous challenges that we all must face daily The third Christian principle giving is part of the command of Jesus Giving of our self to the God and to the world at large is a component that has to be adhered to if one professes to be a Christian The fourth Christian principle church is necessary for stability in our life as a Christian It s important for any Christian to have a place where they can get Christian fellowship after all fellowship is one of the key truths found in the New Testament The fifth Christian principle witnessing is a command of Jesus The Great Commission found in the Gospel of Matthew and Acts orders us as Christians to go out into the world and tell others about the saving grace in Jesus Christ The Old Testament and New Testament have been used to prove the legitimacy of the five Christian principles Throughout my ministry I ve personally seen these principles practiced by my parents family local church members and of course myself These principles work and if practiced a change can occur in the life of the Christian who consistently makes them a part of their life The LEGO Principle Joey Bonifacio,2012-09-04 Love God Love Your Neighbor Jesus called these the two most important commandments of all time When He said this He was making something clear to His listeners then as He does now in life it all boils down to our relationships Using the example of LEGO a company that has been transforming the way people play for more than fifty years Joey Bonifacio shows you how to make a difference one connection at a time
