Jackson, 1999-11-25 Few concepts are more central to ethics than love but none is more subject to false consolation This 1999 book explores several theological philosophical and literary accounts of love focusing on how it relates to matters such as self interest and self sacrifice and invulnerability and immortality Timothy Jackson first considers key aspects of what the Bible says about love then he further examines the meaning of love and sacrifice through a close reading of novels by Fitzgerald and Hemingway Lastly he evaluates how love constrains and is constrained by other traditional moral concepts Throughout Jackson defends the moral priority of what the Christian tradition calls agape He argues that a proper understanding of agapic love rejects both moral relativism and the comfort of believing that good people cannot be harmed or that God causally necessitates every historical action and event When love is thus disconsoled it neither fears death nor despises life Qabalistic Doctrines On Sexual Polarity Ann Davies, 2021-02-19 There is a fundamental impulse within you to seek understanding wisdom true knowledge of yourself nature and the universe The Mystery Schools are and always have been the repositories of special knowledge that is the key to the realization of all that you seek It is our objective to place this key in the hands of those who are ready to receive and act upon it This special knowledge enables you to know yourself and your creative powers and to make for yourself the kind of world you want to live in The problems that you face in life are not really obstacles but like a closed door to a room that holds special knowledge B O T A gives you the key that will unlock the problem doors of your life and in their opening your health prosperity and the mastery of your life and environment will increase Divine Impassibility Robert J.
