Accelerating the Literacy Performance of Bilingual Students , HSPA Success in Language Arts Literacy Rigby Education, Steck-Vaughn Company, 1999-11 SV BERRENT HSPA SUCCESS IN LA LITERACY K Rbtp Keys to Comprehension Various, 2004 Stars in the Schoolhouse: Teaching Practices and Approaches that Make a Difference Nicholas D. Young, Elizabeth Jean, Teresa Allissa Citro, 2019-02-19 It is acknowledged that today's teachers are tasked with educating increasingly diverse students as well as with addressing their academic and social emotional needs The Stars in the Schoolhouse Teaching Practices and Approaches that Make a Difference offers a visionary look at teaching skills and practices that focus on the classroom technology and specific content areas that are often ignored in educational conversations Emphasis is placed on research based strategies practices and theories that can be readily translated into classroom practice whilst examining cutting edge teaching practices that make a difference in improving general educator and or student performance across the grade spans This high quality teaching resource will be of interest to regular and special educators school administrators guidance counselors graduate education professors and university students

Word Nerds Brenda L. Overturf, Leslie Montgomery, Margot Holmes Smith, 2023-10-10 Word mastery comes from intimate knowledge of language In Word Nerds Teaching All Students to Learn and Love Vocabulary authors Leslie Montgomery and Margot Holmes Smith take you inside classrooms where they implement creative flexible vocabulary instruction that improves their students word knowledge and confidence With support from literacy specialist Brenda Overturf the authors developed a five part plan to teach all students to learn vocabulary Introducing new words in context Adding related synonyms and antonyms Engaging in several days of active learning Celebrating new words Assessing vocabulary development This easy to read reference explains how to plan teach and assess based on the latest research in vocabulary instruction and learning After incorporating the authors plan you can be a Word Nerd too The Education of d/Deaf and Hard of Hearing Children Peter V. Paul, 2020-02-12 A significant number of d Deaf and hard of hearing d Dhh children and adolescents experience challenges in acquiring a functional level of English language and literacy skills in the United States and elsewhere To provide an understanding of this issue this book explores the theoretical underpinnings and synthesizes major research findings It also covers critical controversial areas such as the use of assistive hearing devices language and literacy assessments and inclusion Although the targeted population is children and adolescents who are d Dhh contributors found it necessary to apply our understanding of the development of English in other populations of struggling readers and writers such as children with language or literacy disabilities and those for whom English is not the home language Collectively this information should assist scholars in conducting further research and enable educators to develop general instructional guidelines and strategies to improve the language and literacy levels of d Dhh students It is clear that there is not a one size fits all concept but rather research and instruction should be differentiated to meet the needs of d Dhh students It is our hope that this book stimulates further theorizing and research and most importantly offers evidence and reason based practices for improving language and literacy abilities of d Dhh students Assessing Disciplinary Writing in Both Research and Practice Wright, Katherine Landau,Hodges, Tracey S.,2023-08-01 Assessing Disciplinary Writing in Both Research and Practice tackles the challenge of measuring writing skills in specific content areas which is crucial for preparing students to communicate as field experts and for their future careers Edited by Katherine Wright Associate Professor of Literacy and Language at Boise State University and Tracey Hodges Founder and Lead Consultant of The Empowering Advocate this book provides solutions by bringing together validated measures and practical assessment strategies that can be used in both research and instruction The book s theoretical foundations cover multimodal disciplinary writing assessing disciplinary writing versus content area writing and using assessment as a tool for disciplinary writing instruction Practical methods for assessing writing in social studies science mathematics English and language arts and other genres at the elementary middle and high school levels are included as well as assessment strategies for specific populations of students such as undergraduate students English learners gifted and talented students special needs students and incarcerated students This highly valued reference is essential for academic scholars K12 teachers and educational researchers who want to improve writing instruction and research in content and discipline specific areas By providing validated measures and methods for assessing disciplinary writing this edited book helps bridge the gap between research and practice and enables practitioners to better measure student growth and improve writing instruction This publication is the first step towards advancing research and improving writing instruction in content and discipline specific areas
