Right To Challenge People Power In The:

The Right to be Heard Framework Adrienne Hopkins, 2012 People Power United States. Social and Rehabilitation Service, 1970 The East Asian Challenge for Human Rights Joanne R. Bauer, Daniel A. Bell, 1999-02-13 The East Asian Challenge for Human Rights shows that critical intellectuals in East Asia have begun to chart a middle ground between the extremes of the international debate on human rights making particular headway in the areas of group rights and economic social and cultural ethnic minority rights The chapters form a collective intellectual inquiry into the following areas critical perspectives on the Asian values debate theoretical proposals for an improved international human rights regime with greater input from East Asians the resources within East Asian cultural traditions that can help promote human rights and key human rights issues facing East Asia as a result of rapid economic growth in the region Chinese Rules and Procedures for Addressing Mass Actions Cong-rui Qiao, 2024-08-10 This book unravels the intricate tapestry of Chinese state society and government citizen interactions in both legal historical and contemporary contexts Set against the backdrop of China's meteoric rise as a global economic and political powerhouse it presents a comprehensive and nuanced exploration of China's governance norms and their transformative evolution in the modern and contemporary eras The book analyses China's multifaceted governance landscape including its profound influence on the dynamics of government citizen interactions in contemporary China By introducing the concept of juridification it demystifies the complexities of Chinese governance traditions and transitions At its core the book reveals how legislative administrative and judicial authorities address the collective grievances of Chinese citizens Through a combination of historical legal and sociological analyses it equips readers with an understanding of the formal and practical mechanisms used by Chinese authorities spanning from the 1980s to the present to address mass actions In addition the book assesses an underexplored aspect the changing narratives and diverse perspectives found in news coverage of government responses to mass actions shedding light on the socialisation of principles of public accountability and the safeguarding of civil rights in China The book is intended to make the topic accessible to both scholars and an interested global audience helping them understand the Chinese legal governance model its underlying rationale recent developments and social implications Hannah Arendt and the Challenge of Modernity Serena Parekh, 2008-03-06 This volume examines contemporary debates on the foundations of human rights through the lens of Arendt's writings showing how Arendt's phenomenological standpoint unique within these debates is able to shed new light a number of problems within human rights theory The Penal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of New York New York (State), William Henry Silvernail, 1901 Emerging Adulthood in Hong Kong Chau-kiu Cheung, 2017-09-22 How emerging adults broadly referring to those aged from 18 to 29 years old fare in civic engagement as compared with other adults is the focus of the present work The work takes civic engagement to comprise prosociality in civil society sustaining social institutions and challenging institutions Delineating a theoretical framework based on voluntaristic theory the work expects to find differences in civic engagement due to the voluntaristic mechanisms of power realization utilitarian optimization normative conformity and idealistic consistency maintenance in the emerging adult as compared with the other Using survey data from 25 878 Chinese adults in Hong Kong the work illustrates that the emerging adult is higher than is the other in challenging social institutions notably in terms radicalism and occupying protest Moreover the emerging adult is less prosocial in terms in community participation Meanwhile the emerging adult is not consistently different from the other in sustaining social institutions The findings are crucial given the control various background characteristics including age education marriage and employment These findings are therefore useful for illustrating social forces postulated in voluntaristic theory for explaining civic engagement

The Human Animal Earthling Identity Carrie P. Freeman, 2020-12

With The Human Animal Earthling Identity Carrie P Freeman asks us to reconsider the devastating division we have created between the human and animal conditions leading to mass exploitation injustice and extinction As a remedy Freeman believes social movements should collectively foster a cultural shift in human identity away from an egoistic anthropocentrism human centered outlook and toward a universal altruism species centered ethic so people may begin to see themselves more broadly as human animal earthlings To formulate the basis for this identity shift Freeman examines overlapping values supporting life fairness responsibility and unity that are common in global rights declarations and in the current campaign messages of sixteen global social movement organizations that work on human civil rights nonhuman animal protection and or environmental issues such as Amnesty International Human Rights Watch CARE People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals the World Wildlife Fund the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society the Nature Conservancy the Rainforest Action Network and Greenpeace She also interviews the leaders of these advocacy groups to gain their insights on how human and nonhuman protection causes can become allies by engaging common opponents and activating shared values and goals on issues such as the climate crisis enslavement extinction pollution inequality destructive farming and fishing and threats to democracy Freeman s analysis of activist discourse considers ethical ideologies on behalf of social justice animal rights and environmentalism using animal rights respect for sentient individuals as a bridge connecting human rights to a more holistic valuing of species and ecological systems Ultimately Freeman uses her findings to recommend a set of universal values around which all social movements campaign messages can collectively cultivate respectful relations between human animal earthlings fellow sentient beings and the natural world we share
