Rights In The Home What Do We Mean By Human Rights:

Human Rights and the Body Annabelle Mooney, 2016-05-13 Human Rights and the Body is a response to the crisis in human rights to the very real concern that without a secure foundation for the concept of human rights their very existence is threatened. While there has been consideration of the discourses of human rights and the way in which the body is written upon, research in linguistics has not yet been fully brought to bear on either human rights or the body. Drawing on legal concepts and aspects of the law of human rights, Mooney aims to provide a universally defensible set of human rights and a foundation or rather a frame for them. She argues that the proper frames for human rights are firstly the human body seen as an index reliant on the natural world, secondly the globe and finally language. These three frames generate rights to food, water, sleep and shelter, environmental protection and a right against dehumanization. This book is essential reading for researchers and graduate students in the fields of human rights and semiotics of law.

Human Rights in Teaching Practices Zankar, 2016-03-10 Human Rights are the basic rights which one gets being human. These are inherent rights which are received since inception. Knowing and valuing the Human Rights is the best practice to prevent the violation in any form. When an individual learns about one's rights, it builds respect for the right of others, which helps in constructing more tolerant and peaceful citizens, ultimately leading to peaceful civil societies. All Human Rights for All ascertains the universality, indivisibility and interrelationship of all human rights. The fact of unchangeable nature of Human Rights is essential for human existence. Human Rights in Teaching Practices is a book for students, teacher educators, teachers as well as researchers in the field of Education and Human Rights Education who intend to know about Human Rights and how to impart them to their students. The main objective of this book is to share knowledge and skills to generate awareness and develop attitude towards Human Rights Education amongst student teachers. It provides an in-depth description of concepts of Human Rights, Human Rights Education and strategies for teaching Human Rights in B Ed course. The book is divided mainly in three parts: first part deals with concept of human rights, Human Rights Education, the policy perspective of Human Rights, the concept of human rights awareness and attitude towards human rights.
