Inventing the Dream Kevin Starr, 1986-12-04 This second volume of Starr s cultural history of the Golden State focuses on the turn of the century years and the emergence of Southern California as a regional culture in its own right

The Birth of a Nation Robert Lang, 1994 The birth of a nation follows the lives of two white families divided by and enduring the American Civil War and includes elaborate cameos of historical events such as the assassination of Abraham Lincoln

George Kleine and American Cinema Joel Frykholm, 2015-10-29 George Kleine was a New York City optician who moved to Chicago in 1893 to set up an optical store In 1896 he branched out and began selling motion picture equipment and films Within a few years he became America s largest film distributor and a pivotal figure in the movie business In chronicling the career of this motion picture pioneer including his rapid rise to fame and fortune but also his gradual downfall after 1915 as the era of Hollywood began Joel Frykholm provides an in depth account of the emergence of the motion picture business in the United States and its development throughout the silent era Through the lens of Kleine s fascinating career this book explores how motion pictures gradually transformed from a novelty into an economic and cultural institution central to both American life and an increasingly globalised culture of mass entertainment

At the Edges of Sleep Jean Ma, 2022-10-04 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org Many recent works of contemporary art performance and film turn a spotlight on sleep wresting it from the hidden private spaces to which it is commonly relegated At the Edges of Sleep considers sleep in film and moving image art as both a subject matter to explore onscreen and a state to induce in the audience Far from negating action or meaning sleep extends into new territories as it designates ways of existing in the world in relation to people places and the past Defined positively sleep also expands our understanding of reception beyond the binary of concentration and distraction These possibilities converge in the work of Thai filmmaker and artist Apichatpong Weerasethakul who has explored the subject of sleep systematically throughout his career In examining Apichatpong's work Jean Ma brings together an array of interlocutors from Freud to Proust George Melies to Tsai Ming-liang Weegee to Warhol to rethink moving images through the lens of sleep Ma exposes an affinity between cinema spectatorship and sleep that dates to the earliest years of filmmaking and sheds light upon the shifting cultural valences of sleep in the present moment A Hidden History of Film Style

Christopher Beach, 2015-04-30 The image that appears on the movie screen is the direct and tangible result of the joint efforts of the director and the cinematographer A Hidden History of Film Style is the first study to focus on the collaborations between directors and cinematographers a partnership that has played a crucial role in American cinema since the early years of the silent era Christopher Beach argues that an understanding of the complex director cinematographer collaboration offers an important model that challenges the pervasive conventional concept of director as auteur Drawing upon oral histories early industry trade journals and other primary materials Beach examines key innovations like deep focus color and digital cinematography and in doing so produces an exceptionally clear history of the craft Through analysis of several key collaborations in American cinema from the silent era to the late twentieth century such as those of D W Griffith and Billy Bitzer William Wyler and Gregg Toland and Alfred Hitchcock and Robert Burks this pivotal book underlines the importance of cinematographers to both the development of cinematic technique and the expression of visual style in film
