Rising Suns Rising Daughters Gender Clab And Power In Japan:

Rising Suns, Rising Daughters Joanna Liddle, Sachiko Nakajima, 2000-12 Surprisingly little is known in the West about Japanese women Exploring themes of gender and class this book traces the changing position of women through history and into the present Repudiating the cliché of the submissive Japanese woman the authors show women as active agents in both family and public life The women's liberation movement of recent years resonates with echoes of struggle and resistance from earlier times The broader movements of history and culture are brought into focus within the experiences of individual women

Japanese Women, Class and the Tea Ceremony Kaeko Chiba, 2010-09-13 This book examines the complex relationship between class and gender dynamics among tea ceremony chad practitioners in Japan Focusing on practitioners in a provincial city Akita the book surveys the rigid hierarchical chad system at grass roots level Making critical use of Bourdieu's idea of cultural capital it explores the various meanings of chad for Akita women and argues that chad has a cultural economic social and symbolic value and is used as a tool to improve gender and class equality Chad practitioners focus on tea procedure and related aspects of chad such as architecture flower arranging gardening and pottery Initially only men were admitted to chad women were admitted in the Meiji period 1868 1912 and now represent the majority of practitioners The author a chad practitioner and descendant of chad teachers provides a thorough honest account of Akita women based on extensive participant observation and interviews Where most literature on Japan focuses on metropolitan centres such as Kitakyushu and Tokyo this book is original in both its subject and scope Also as economic differences between metropolitan and non metropolitan areas have become more pronounced it is timely to explore the specific class and gender issues affecting non metropolitan women This book contributes not only to the ethnographic literature on chad and non metropolitan women in Japan but also to the debates on research methodology and the theoretical discussion of class

Japanese community and their lives in Australia Accordingly the book provides a fresh perspective on interdisciplinary issues of gender and migration in a globalized world and engages with a wide range of academic disciplines including sociology of migration sociology of culture cultural anthropology cultural studies Japanese studies Asian studies gender studies family studies migration studies and qualitative methodologies Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001 Index de Périodiques Canadiens ,2002 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1994 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals
