Gáldy,2019-01-22 Cabinets of prints and drawings are found in the earliest art collections of Early Modern Europe From the sixteenth century onwards some of them acquired such fame that the necessity for an ordered and scientific display meant that a dedicated keeper was occasionally employed to ensure that fellow enthusiasts as well as visiting diplomats courtiers and artists might have access to the print room Often collected and displayed together with drawings the prints formed a substantial part of princely collections which sometimes achieved astounding longevity as a specialised group of collectibles such as the Florentine Gabinetto Disegni e Stampe at the Uffizi GDSU Prints and drawings both bought and commissioned were collected by princes and by private amateurs Like the rest of their collections the prints and drawings were usually preserved and displayed as part of or near the owner s library in close proximity to scientific instruments cut gems or small sculptural works of art Both prints and drawings not only documented an encyclopaedic approach to the knowledge available at the time but also depicted parts of the collections in the form of a paper museum Prints and drawings also served as a guide to the collections They spread their fame and the renown of their owners across Europe and into new worlds of collecting both East and West This volume explores issues such as when how and why did cabinets of prints and drawings become a specialised part of princely and private collections How important were collections of prints and drawings for the self representation of a prince or connoisseur among specialists and social peers Is the presentation of a picture hanging in a gallery for example by Charles Eisen for the Royal Galleries at Dresden to be treated as documentary evidence Are there notable differences in the approach to collecting presentation and preservation of prints and drawings in diverse parts of the world What was the afterlife of such collections up to the present day      Art Class Simon Jennings,1999-10 Presents instructions on working in a variety of media including watercolors acrylic and oils and includes demonstrations on painting portraits landscapes and still lifes      Official Illustrated Catalogue of the English Water Colors and Works in Black and White ... Museum of Fine Arts, Boston,1885      The Victorian Watercolours and Drawings in the Collection of Her Majesty the Queen Delia Millar,1995      Apollo ,1929 Includes section Book reviews      Who's who Henry Robert Addison,Charles Henry Oakes,William John Lawson,Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen,1905 An annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated Men and women of the time      American Paintings Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1965      Canadian Reference Sources Mary E.
