The Dream of a Democratic Culture T. Lacy, 2013-11-26 This book presents a moderately revisionist history of the great books idea anchored in the following movements and struggles fighting anti intellectualism advocating for the liberal arts distributing cultural capital and promoting a public philosophy anchored in mid century liberalism that fostered a shared civic culture

Conflict and Insurgency in the Contemporary Middle East Barry Rubin, 2009-01-30 This book surveys the main conflicts and insurgencies in recent Middle East history focusing mainly on the period since the 1980s and taking a historical analytical approach

Companion to Women's Historical Writing M. Spongberg, A. Curthoys, B. Caine, 2016-04-30 This A Z reference work provides the first comprehensive reference guide to the wide range of historical writing with which women have been involved particularly since the Renaissance The Companion covers biographical writing travelogue and historical fictions broadening the concept of history to include the forms of writing with which women have historically engaged The focus is on women writing in English internationally but historical and historiographical traditions from beyond the English speaking world are also examined Brief biographies of individual writers are included

The Oxford Handbook of Human Development and Culture Lene Arnett Jensen, 2015-03-13 The Oxford Handbook of Human Development and Culture provides a comprehensive synopsis of theory and research on human development with every chapter drawing together findings from cultures around the world This includes a focus on cultural diversity within nations cultural change and globalization Expertly edited by Lene Arnett Jensen the Handbook covers the entire lifespan from the prenatal period to old age It delves deeply into topics such as the development of emotion language cognition morality creativity and religion as well as developmental contexts such as family friends civic institutions school media and work Written by an international group of eminent and cutting edge experts chapters showcase the burgeoning interdisciplinary approach to scholarship that bridges universal and cultural perspectives on human development This cultural developmental approach is a multifaceted flexible and dynamic way to conceptualize theory and research that is in step with the cultural and global realities of human development in the 21st century

Exile and Otherness Alexander Stephan, 2005 In recent years Culture Studies Anthropology German Studies History Political Psychology and other fields have used the concept of exile in close connection with terms like migration border crossing identity and transnationality Views of a homogeneous culture and of centrality collide with ideas like multiculturalism pluralism creolization and the globalization of differences A transit culture inhabited by the flaneur and the nomad is supposed to have replaced citizenship in a nation At the same time there can be no doubt that the experience of those writers artists and intellectuals who were driven out of Germany and Europe by the Nazis was in many ways unique This book investigates the exile experience in a theoretical and comparative way by exploring the possibilities and limitations of concepts like diaspora de localization and transit culture for understanding the lives and works of German and Austrian refugees from Nazi persecution It revisits the interaction of the exiles with the culture of their host countries in light of recent debates about migration and identity studies and it analyzes texts paintings and other methods of artistic expression which connect the experience of the refugees of 1933 with postmodern notions of de localization hybridity and marginalization

Between Light and Shadow Mac Darrow,2003-03-20 Much has been written on the human rights relevance and impacts of the policies and activities of the World Bank and IMF or International Financial Institutions IFIs However while many of the human rights based critiques of the Bank and Fund purport to link broadly defined reforms with obligations under international human rights law rarely has this been carried out through a rigorous and in depth application of international legal rules governing the proper interpretation of the institutions mandates and rarely have the policy consequences and practical possibilities for human rights integration been explored in any detail These are the principal gaps that the present book aims to fill by reference to a sample of the IFIs most important and controversial contemporary activities

Theoretical Perspectives on Historians' Autobiographies Jaume Aurell,2015-07-24 E H Carr wrote study the historian before you begin to study the facts This book approaches the life work ideas debates and the context of key 20th and 21st century historians through an analysis of their life writing projects viewed as historiographical sources Merging literary studies on autobiography with theories of history it provides a systematic and detailed analysis of the autobiographies of the most outstanding historians from the classic texts by Giambattista Vico Edward Gibbon and Henry Adams to the Annales historians such as Fernand Braudel Philippe Ari s and Georges Duby to Marxist historians such as Eric Hobsbawm and Annie Kriegel to postmodern historians such as Carolyn Steedman Robert A Rosenstone Carlos Eire Luisa Passerini Elisabeth Roudinesco Gerda Lerner and Sheila Fitzpatrick and to interventionist historians such as Geoff Eley Jill Ker Conway Natalie Davis and Gabrielle Spiegel Using a comparative approach to these texts this book identifies six historical autobiographical styles humanistic biographic ego historical monographic postmodern and interventionist By privileging historians autobiographies this book proposes a renewed history of historiography one that engages the theoretical evolution of the discipline the way history has been interpreted by historians and the currents of thought and ideologies that have dominated and influenced its writing in the 20th and 21st centuries
