British Naval Weapons of World War Two Norman Friedman, 2020-07-30 John Lambert was a renowned naval draughtsman whose plans were highly valued for their accuracy and detail by modelmakers and enthusiasts By the time of his death in 2016 he had produced over 850 sheets of drawings many of which have never been published These have now been acquired by Seaforth and this is the third of a planned series of albums on selected themes reproducing complete sheets at a large page size with an expert commentary and captioning The initial volumes concentrate on British naval weaponry used in the Second World War thus completing the project John Lambert was working on when he died His interest was always focused on smaller warships and his weapons drawings tend to be of open mountings the kind that present a real challenge to modelmakers rather than enclosed turret guns but he also produced drawings of torpedo tubes underwater weapons fire control directors and even some specific armament related deck fittings Following the earlier volumes on destroyer and escort armament this one covers the multitude of weapons carried by Coastal Forces many of which were improvised ad hoc or obsolescent but eventually leading to powerful purpose designed weaponry An appendix covers the main deck guns carried by British submarines of this era The drawings are backed by introductory essays by Norman Friedman an acknowledged authority on naval ordnance while a selection of photographs adds to the value of the book as visual reference Over time the series will be expanded to make this unique technical archive available in published form a move certain to be welcomed by warship modellers enthusiasts and the many fans of John Lambert s work

Sixty Years of Airfix Models Jeremy Brook, 2015-06-30 The best known and most important manufacturer of plastic model kits in the UK Airfix has been at the forefront of the industry since 1955 when the first Airfix aircraft kit appeared in UK branches of Woolworth s The kits were made to a constant scale and covered a wide variety of subjects from aircraft to birds and from tanks to dinosaurs In 1981 the famous London based company closed down and only the kits survived intact For the next twenty five years Airfix was run by Palitoy and later Humbrol but suffered from a lack of investment In 2006 Hornby Hobbies Ltd the train and Scalextric manufacturer bought the ailing company and transformed it Money and resources were ploughed into the range and today Airfix releases around twenty new kits per year designed to an incredibly high standard The old kits of the 1950s and 1960s are gradually being replaced by new state of the art tooling all bearing that most prestigious name Airfix Published to coincide with the sixtieth anniversary of the first Airfix aircraft kit Sixty Years of Airfix Models tells the full story year by year of the company and its products Illustrated throughout with colour photographs of kits box art and completed models The Seaforth

Bibliography Eugene Rasor,2009-04-17 This remarkable work is a comprehensive historiographical and bibliographical survey of the most important scholarly and printed materials about the naval and maritime history of England and Great Britain from the earliest times to 1815 More than 4 000 popular standard and official histories important articles in journals and periodicals anthologies conference symposium and seminar papers guides documents and doctoral theses are covered so that the emphasis is the broadest possible But the work is far far more than a listing The works are all evaluated assessed and analysed and then integrated into an historical narrative that makes the book a hugely useful reference work for student scholar and enthusiast alike It is divided into twenty one chapters which cover resource centres significant naval writers pre eminent and general histories the chronological periods from Julius Caesar through the Vikings Tudors and Stuarts to Nelson and Bligh major naval personalities warships piracy strategy and tactics exploration discovery and navigation archaeology and even naval fiction Quite simply no one with an interest and enthusiasm for naval history can afford to be without this book at their side Ship Models from Kits David Griffith,2011-02-28 In the past thirty years the world of model kits has undergone a veritable revolution New techniques in injection moulding have improved the scale accuracy and surface detail of the humble plastic kit while many specialist companies now produce top quality resin models vastly broadening the range of subjects on the market However the really radical change has been the advent of photo etched brass fret which allows the finest detail to be reproduced to scale In ship modelling this has resulted in a new form of the hobby mid way between traditional build from the box simplicity and the time consuming demands of fabricating everything from scratch These new materials have prompted innovative techniques which are comprehensively demonstrated in this new manual Designed for those wishing to achieve the best results from their ship kits in the 1 700 to 1 350 range of scales it uses step by step photographs to take the reader through the building of two models one in plastic and one in resin from basic construction fittings and detailing to painting finishing and display Written by a highly experienced award winning ship modeller the book is a showcase for the contemporary approach to the hobby British Naval Weapons of World War Two, Volume I

Norman Friedman,2019-01-30 For anyone wishing to super detail any British destroyer of this era this book looks to be a real must have Nautical Research Guild s Model Ship World John Lambert was a renowned naval draftsman whose plans were highly valued for their accuracy and detail by modelmakers and enthusiasts By the time of his death in 2016 he d produced over 850 sheets of drawings many of which have never been published until now Lambert's interest was always focused on smaller warships and his weapons drawings tend to be of open mountings the kind that present a real challenge to modelmakers rather than enclosed turret guns but he also produced drawings of torpedo tubes underwater weapons fire control directors and even some specific armament related deck fittings This first volume in a series covers all such weapons carried by British destroyers of this era with additional appendices devoted to earlier guns still in service and destroyer caliber weapons only mounted in larger ships The drawings are backed by introductory essays by Norman Friedman an acknowledged authority on naval ordnance while a selection of photographs add to the value of the book as visual reference
