Ruprecht Fadem, 2019-12-03 Silence and Articulation in the Poetry of Medbh McGuckian is an innovative contribution to the scholarship on Belfast poet Medbh McGuckian This book considers the entire oeuvre of this globally respected Irish woman writer a member of the contemporary avant garde with now fifteen U S published volumes and numerous individual publications The author positions McGuckian's oeuvre as political and historical poetry and offers a provocative new assessment of its crafted silences This work argues that it is the muted character of McGuckian's poems a consequence of a defamiliarized language the overwhelming sway of the image and a profusion of intertextual quoting that constitutes their agency and force The silences are read as a response to the precarious positionality of poet and speaker at the site of disaster and the limits of articulation In line with Rukeyser's notion of the life of poetry the life of McGuckian's silences is located Fadem argues in the poems production as revealed self reflexively and in their prolonged consumption This oeuvre operates as a formidable counter discourse by converting poetry's reception into a much protracted task that redistributes the temporal economy of poem and reader and disrupts the given structures of time place and the order of things The poets and the poetry of the century, ed. by A.H. Miles. [2 other copies of vol.8]. Alfred Henry Miles, 1898 Look Round for Poetry Brian McGrath, 2022-05-17 Poetry is dead Poetry is all around us Both are trite truisms that this book exploits and challenges In his 1798 Advertisement to Lyrical Ballads William Wordsworth anticipates that readers accustomed to the poetic norms of the day might not recognize his experiments as poems and might signal their awkward confusion upon opening the book by looking round for poetry as if seeking it elsewhere Look Round for Poetry transforms Wordsworth's idiomatic expression into a methodological charge By placing tropes and figures common to Romantic and Post Romantic poems in conjunction with contemporary economic technological and political discourse Look Round for Poetry identifies poetry's untimely echoes in discourses not always read as poetry or not always read poetically Once one begins looking round for poetry McGrath insists one might discover it in some surprising contexts In chapters that spring from poems by Wordsworth Lucille Clifton John Keats and Percy Bysshe Shelley McGrath reads poetic examples of understatement alongside market demands for more the downturned brow as a figure for economic catastrophe Romantic cloud metaphors alongside the rhetoric of cloud computing the election of the dead as a poetical and not just a political act and poetic investigations into the power of prepositions as theories of political assembly For poetry to retain a vital power McGrath argues we need to become ignorant of what we think we mean by it In the process we may discover critical vocabularies that engage the complexity of social life all around us Petrarch's Humanism and the Care of the Self Gur Zak,2010-05-17 In this book Gur Zak examines two central issues in Petrarch's works his humanist philosophy and his concept of the self

Love's Remedies Patricia Berrahou Phillippy,1995 Bakhtin are suitable tools for an examination of the Petrarchan lyric and its recantation while at the same time the nature and value of these critical concepts are interrogated
