Practical Sacramental Theology Bruce T. Morrill, 2021-09-09 What motivates practice of the liturgy and sacramental rites of the church Does the worship of God begin and end within each ritual enactment or does the truth and value of sacramental celebration reside in the broader context of Christian life in church and society For more than two decades prominent Jesuit sacramental liturgical theologian Bruce Morrill has explored the promise and problems inherent in the Second Vatican Council's call to renew liturgy's basic purpose namely the glorification of God and the sanctification of people Morrill's fundamental argument is that this ancient Christian principle is of a piece that divine glory and human holiness are so to speak two sides of a single coin The value of liturgy and sacraments is depleted if not lost unless they function within a holistic practice of faith that seeks the upbuilding of ethical lives personal and social With numerous real life examples plus references to current sociological studies the chapters address both modern challenges to and biblical and traditional resources for the celebration of sacramental rites today      Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology

Corneliu C. Simut, 2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today's world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today's world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx's thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man's terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today's people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way

T&T Clark Handbook of Theological Anthropology Mary Ann Hinsdale, Stephen Okey, 2021-01-28 Including classical modern and postmodern approaches to theological anthropology this volume covers the entire spectrum of thought on the doctrines of creation the human person as imago Dei sin and grace The editors have gathered an exceptionally diverse range of voices ensuring ecumenical balance Protestant Roman Catholic and Orthodox and the inclusion of previously neglected perspectives women African American Asian Latinx and LGBTQ The contributors revisit authors from the Great Tradition early church medieval and modern and discuss them alongside critical and liberationist approaches ranging from feminist decolonial and intersectional theory to critical race theory and queer performance theory This is a much needed overview of a rapidly evolving field

The Ontology of the Church in Hans Küng Corneliu C. Simuț, 2007 This book investigates the signs of the church in the theology of Hans Küng as described in his The Church 1967 As Küng does not go beyond the traditional signs of the church the author makes a thorough analysis of the unity catholicity holiness and apostolicity of the church with plentiful references to other contemporary theologians such as Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Edward Schillebeeckx Henri de Lubac Yves Congar and even Joseph Ratzinger The relevance of the book consists in its approach to classical theological issues which lay the foundation for a contemporary reassessment of the church The author is concerned not to defend particular doctrines but to see how Küng's theology of the signs of the church fits within the context of his time

World Cinema, Theology, and the Human Antonio D. Sison, 2012 Forging an open minded but reasoned dialogue between nine acclaimed titles of world cinema and a range of theological perspectives that touch on the theme of human experience World Cinema Theology and the Human offers fresh portals of insight for the interdisciplinary area of Theology and Film In Sison's approach it is the cinematic representation of vivid humanity not necessarily propositional statements about God and religion that lays down a bridge to a conversation with theology Thus the book's project is to look for the divine presence written not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts depicted on screen by way of audiovisual language Seeking to redress the interdisciplinary's narrow predilection for Hollywood blockbusters the book casts its net wider to include a culturally diverse selection of case studies from festival gems such as Singapore's Be With Me and South Africa's Yesterday to widely acclaimed sleeper hits such as Britain's Slumdog Millionaire and New Zealand's Whale Rider The book will appeal to scholars of theology and religious cultural studies interested in the Theology Religion Film interface and because of its commitment to an examination of film qua film a crossover readership from film studies

A Philosopher Looks at Jesus Edward J. Machle, 2008-03-01 This book is the response to a lifetime of questions raised by fellow philosophers by students and by the author's own wrestlings Since the author claims that Jesus's importance goes beyond his being just a moral teacher Edward Machle discusses the difference between the foundations of philosophy and of theology and how the disciplines of philosophy and theology use language differently Then Machle goes on to present his somewhat unorthodox evaluations of the four gospels and their relevance rejecting for instance claims of a Q document and dating Matthew later than Luke Since any account of Jesus must assume that before Jesus appears in the records he had a distinctive development two admittedly fictional narratives follow preparing for distinctive emphases in the author's later discussions of frequently met problems about Jesus's birth miracles aims and death Machle lays unusual emphasis on the centrality of the title Son of Man for Jesus Extensive discussions of the resurrection narratives and questions about them follow leading to a unique treatment of John's Prologue The last three chapters deal with Jesus's relation to modern belief and life

Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology

Neo-Calvinism and Roman Catholicism, 2023-06-05 In their theological and historical interactions neo Calvinism and Roman Catholicism have often met in moments of conflict and co operation The neo Calvinist statesman Abraham Kuyper polemicized against the Roman Catholic Church and its theology whilst building bridges between those traditions by forging novel political coalitions across ecclesiastical boundaries In theology Gerrit C Berkouwer a neo Calvinist critic of Roman Catholicism in the 1930s later attended the Second Vatican Council as an appreciative Protestant observer Telling their stories and others including new research on lesser known figures and neglected topics this book presents the first scholarly volume on those dynamics of polemics and partnership

Simut, 2008-07-07 The book presents the transition from traditionalism to modernism in connection to two of Küng's most important books on ecclesiology Structures of the Church 1962 as representing Küng's traditional theology and On Being a Christian 1974 as a reflection of his modern approach to Christianity

was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton's flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth

Jesus, Symbol of God Roger Haight,1999 Already hailed as a landmark in contemporary Catholic theology Jesus Symbol of God surveys scriptural data the key moments in the development of doctrine and the distinctive horizons of our contemporary world to develop a comprehensive and systematic christology for our time The task of christology is to explain what it means to say that Jesus is the bearer and revealer of God in the Christian community the decisive mediation of God's salvation or in other words the symbol of God

Grace, Governance and Globalization Martin G. Poulson,Stephan van Erp,Lieven Boeve,2017-04-06 What role does could or should theology play in current discussions about our political realities Is there a place for theological worldviews in the public conversation about policy making Should theology critically unmask the underlying theological and metaphysical sources of contemporary politics The contributors to this volume reflect on new questions in public and political theology inspired by the theology of Edward Schillebeeckx They discuss a variety of theological traditions and theories that could offer substantial contributions to current political challenges and debate
