Hugh of Amiens and the Twelfth-Century Renaissance Ryan P.

Freeburn, 2016-05-13 Hugh of Amiens c 1085 1164 was an important intellectual figure in the twelfth century During a long life he served as a cleric Cluniac monk abbot and archbishop of Rouen He wrote a number of works including poems biblical exegesis anti heretical polemics and most importantly one of the earliest collections of systematic theology his Dialogues This book examines all of Hugh s writings to uncover a better understanding not only of this individual but also of the twelfth century as a whole especially the theological preoccupations of the period including the development of systematic theology and views on the differences of the monastic and clerical ways of life Rethinking Abelard Babette S.

Hellemans,2014-04-03 Peter Abelard 1079 1142 is one of the most diversely gifted people of the Middle Ages His letter writing poetry theology logic and ethics deal with almost every aspect of the trivium This volume surveys his career to show how his extraordinary versatility enchanted and distressed his public A selection of international specialists addresses the various aspects of Abelard s literary persona The topics range from Abelard s personal history to his monastic thinking There are essays on the letter collection his views on love ethical problems such as intention and suicide his poetry and treatises written for Heloise and her nuns of the Paraclete With its strong emphasis on interdisciplinary research Rethinking Abelard opens up new avenues for future scholarship Contributors are Michael T Clanchy Peter Cramer Lesley Anne Dyer Juanita Feros Ruys William Flynn Babette Hellemans Taina M Holopainen Eileen F Kearney Constant J Mews Eileen C Sweeney Ineke Van t Spijker Wim Verbaal and Julian Yolles The Unity of the Proslogion John Bayer,2021-09-20 Interpretations of Anselm s Proslogion range between the extremes of rationalism and fideism because of the challenge of unifying its philosophical and devotional aspects In this book Bayer argues that a monastic interpretation or an interpretation that takes seriously the intellectual significance of our existential commitments offers a powerful compromise Through an extensive study of Anselm s spirituality especially as it is manifested in his letters and homiletic works coupled with a profound study of Anselm s philosophy of language in the De grammatico and Monologion Bayer aims to reveal the Anselmian unity of life and thought and thereby also the harmony between faith and reason In this way he defends the Proslogion as a unified and probative argument Natural and Divine Law Jean Porter,1999 Though the concept of natural law took center stage during the Middle Ages the theological aspects of this august intellectual tradition have been largely forgotten by the modern church In this book ethicist Jean Porter shows the continuing significance of the natural law tradition for Christian ethics Based on a careful analysis of natural law as it emerged in the medieval period Porter s work explores several important scholastic theologians and canonists whose writings are not only worthy of study in their own right but also make important contributions to moral reflection today How the Light Gets In Graham Ward,2016-02-25 How the Light Gets In Ethical

Life I presents a systematic account of the teachings of the Christian faith to offer a vision from a human created and limited perspective of the ways all things might be understood from the divine perspective It explores how Christian doctrine is lived and the way in which beliefs are not simply cognitive sets of ideas but embodied cultural practices Christians learn how to understand the contents of their faith learn the language of the faith through engagements that are simultaneously somatic affective imaginative and intellectual In the first of four volumes Graham Ward examines the complex levels of these engagements through three historical developments in the systematic organization of doctrine the Creeds the Summa and Protestant dogmatics He outlines a methodology for exploring and practicing systematic theology that captures how the faith is lived in cultural social and embodied engagements Ward then unpicks several fundamental theological concepts and how they are to be understood from the point of view of an engaged systematics truth revelation judgement discernment proclamation faith seeking understanding and believing as it relates to and grounds the possibilities for faith This groundbreaking work offers an interdisciplinary investigation through poetry art film the Bible and theological discourse analysing the human condition and theology as the deep dream for salvation The final part relates theology as a lived and ongoing pedagogy concerned with individual and corporate formation to biological life social life and life in Christ Here an approach to living theologically is sketched that is the primary focus for all four volumes ethical life
