and world culture Includes pictures of artists art works and authors African American Women Writers' Historical Fiction

A. Nunes,2011-05-09 This volume explores African American historical fiction written by women in the last four decades of the twentieth century Nunes approach to the texts aims at emphasizing the narrative and thematic achievements of individual novels set in the context of the main trends and developments of the contemporary African American historical novel Collected Black Women's Poetry ,1988 Remapping Citizenship and the Nation in African-American Literature , Making the World a Better Place Jacqueline Jones Royster,2023-06-27 In Making the World a Better Place Royster argues that African American women must be taken seriously as historical actors who were more consistently and more variously engaged in community and nation building than they have been given credit for Their considerable rhetorical expertise becomes evident when looking carefully at their work in terms of identity agency authority and expressiveness Their writings constitute a substantial artifactual record of their levels of engagement their excellence in sociopolitical work and the legacies of leadership and action The writing of African American women during the nineteenth century reflects their own perceptions of the ways and means of their lives They deserve to be recognized as consequential contributors to the narratives of the nation rather than marginalized as a group To that end Jacqueline Jones Royster offers a deeper understanding often through their own words of these women their practices and their achievements Mothering the Race Allison Berg,2002 Maternal metaphors articulating gender race and nation at the turn of the century Reconstructing motherhood Pauline Hopkins s Contending forces and the rhetoric of racial uplift The romance plot reproducing silence reinscribing race in The awakening and Summer Hard labor Edith Summers Kelley s Weeds and the language of eugenics Fatal contractions Nella Larsen s Quicksand and the new Negro mother Epilogue representing motherhood at century s end In Search of a Beautiful Freedom: New and Selected Essays Farah Jasmine Griffin,2023-03-28 Named a Most Anticipated Book of 2023 by The Millions Lively insightful writings on Black music feminism literature and events from a masterful critic and master teacher Walton Muyumba Boston Globe In Search of a Beautiful Freedom brings together the best work from Farah Jasmine Griffin s rich forays on music Black feminism literature the crises of Hurricane Katrina and COVID 19 and the Black artists she esteems She moves from evoking the haunting strength of Odetta and the rise of soprano popular singers in the 1970s to the forging of a Black women s literary renaissance and the politics of Malcolm X through the lens of Black feminism She reflects on pivotal moments in recent American history including the banning of Toni Morrison s Beloved and celebrates the intellectuals artists and personal relationships that have shaped her identity and her work Featuring new and unpublished essays along with ones first appearing in outlets such as the New York Times and NPR In Search of a Beautiful Freedom is a captivating collection that celebrates the work of one of the few great intellectuals in our time Cornel West The Sleeper Wakes Marcy Jane Knopf-Newman,1993 Twenty eight stories with themes of black and white racial tension and misunderstanding economic deprivation passing love across and within racial lines and the attempt to maintain community and uplift the race The Cambridge Companion to Nineteenth-Century American Women's Writing Dale M. Bauer, Philip Gould, 2001-11-15 Providing an overview of the history of writing by women in the period this 2001 Companion establishes the context in which this writing emerged and traces the origin of the terms which have traditionally defined the debate It includes essays on topics of recent concern such as women and war erotic violence the liberating and disciplinary effects of religion and examines the work of a variety of women writers including Harriet Beecher Stowe Rebecca Harding Davis and Louisa May Alcott The volume plots new directions for the study of American literary history and provides several valuable tools for students including a chronology of works and suggestions for further reading Contending Forces Pauline Elizabeth Hopkins, 1900 her best known novel and her only work of fiction published in book form during her lifetime Pauline Hopkins uses the conventions of the sentimental romance as she seeks to encourage social change In its pages we encounter noble heroes and virtuous heroines exotic settings unsavory villains melodramatic scenes and a star crossed love affair Both an extraordinarily detailed examination of black life in nineteenth century America and a richly textured and engrossing piece of fiction Contending Forces remains one of the most important works produced by an African American before World War I A Companion to the Harlem Renaissance Cherene Sherrard-Johnson, 2015-05-26 A Companion to the Harlem Renaissance presents a comprehensive collection of original essays that address the literature and culture of the Harlem Renaissance from the end of World War I to the middle of the 1930s Represents the most comprehensive coverage of themes and unique new perspectives on the Harlem Renaissance available Features original contributions from both emerging scholars of the Harlem Renaissance and established academic stars in the field Offers a variety of interdisciplinary features such as the section on visual and expressive arts that emphasize the collaborative nature of the era Includes Spotlight Readings featuring lesser known figures of the Harlem Renaissance and newly discovered or undervalued writings by canonical figures Hope in the Holler Anna Elaine Brown Crawford, 2002-01-01 For more than three hundred years black women have embodied a theology of hope which has enabled them to overcome a history of abuse and violence While a theology of hope has been widely discussed in twentieth century theology it was born in slavery long before Jurgen Moltmann introduced it to America in 1967 Even womanist notions of hope have not explored the theological character of hope in abused black women's narratives A Elaine Brown Crawford argues that hope is the theological construct that moves black women beyond endurance and survival to transformation of their personal and communal realities This book identifies and analyzes the theological vision of hope voiced within the narratives of enslaved emancipated and contemporary black women and brings that vision into discussion with contemporary womanist theologies African American Authors, 1745-1945 Emmanuel S. Nelson, 2000-01-30 There has been a dramatic resurgence of interest in early African American writing Since the accidental rediscovery and republication of Harriet Wilson's Our Nig in 1983 the works of dozens of 19th and early 20th century black writers have been recovered and reprinted There is now a significant revival of interest in the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s and in the last decade alone several major assessments of 18th and 19th century African American literature have been published Early African American literature builds on a strong oral tradition of songs folktales and sermons Slave narratives began to appear during the late 18th and early 19th century and later writers began to engage a variety of themes in diverse genres A central objective of this reference book is to provide a wide ranging introduction to the first 200 years of African American literature Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 78 black writers active between 1745 and 1945 Among these writers are essayists novelists short story writers poets playwrights and autobiographers Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a biography a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography
