How do children conceptualize and lay claim to their own spaces? The book features essays on popular and lesser known children's fiction from North America and Great Britain including works like The Hate U Give, His Dark Materials, The Giver quartet and Shadowshaper. Adopting a multidisciplinary approach in their analysis, contributors draw upon varied scholarly areas such as philosophy, race, class, and gender studies among others. Without reducing the issues to any singular theory or perspective, each piece provides insight into specific treatments of space in specific periods of time, thereby affording scholars a greater appreciation of the diverse spatial patterns in children's literature.
