The Films of Jesus Franco, 1953-1966 Francesco Cesari, Roberto Curti, 2024-06-06 With more than 180 films during a career spanning several decades Jesus Franco 1930 2013 was an extraordinarily prolific and chameleon like Spanish director covering virtually every genre from horror to film noir adventure and erotic and adapting to all kinds of productions A one of a kind filmmaker he was boldly original in the themes style and in his idea of cinema This book examines his life and career between his first short film to the moment he cut his ties with his home country and became an international director with a detailed production history and critical analysis of his films placing his work within the social and political context of Spanish culture politics and cinema Franco's most critically praised works are covered namely such cult horror classics as The Awful Dr. Orlof and The Diabolical Dr. Z as well as his working relationship with Orson Welles whom he was to direct in a 1964 unfinished adaptation of Treasure Island Detailed production history and critical analysis of his films are provided placing his work within the context of Spanish culture politics and film industry The book also includes plenty of never before seen bits of information and in depth discussion of Franco's previously uncovered scripts, essays and short films as well as his unmade projects of the period

Psychocinematics Arthur P. Shimamura, 2014-02-15
Largely through trial and error filmmakers have developed engaging techniques that capture our sensations, thoughts and feelings. Philosophers and film theorists have thought deeply about the nature and impact of these techniques, yet few scientists have delved into empirical analyses of our movie experience or what Arthur P. Shimamura has coined psychocinematics. This edited volume introduces this exciting field by bringing together film theorists, philosophers, psychologists and neuroscientists to consider the viability of a scientific approach to our movie experience

The Critical Practice of Film Elspeth Kydd, 2017-09-16
The Critical Practice of Film introduces film studies and production through the integration of criticism theory and practice. Its approach is that of critical practice, a process that explores the integration and intersection between the critical analysis of films and the practical aspects of filmmaking. In other words, this book is both an introduction to the ways in which we watch films as well as an introduction to how films are created. The more you know about how films are made, the more you can appreciate the artistry involved in a film. Author Elspeth Kydd combines explorations of basic technical and aesthetic principles with extended analyses drawn from both classic and contemporary Hollywood and other world cinemas, including Battleship Potemkin (1927), Un Chien Andalou (1929), Stagecoach (1939), Mildred Pierce (1945), Notorious (1946), Letter from an Unknown Woman (1948), Gentlemen Prefer Blondes (1953), Breathless (1959), Memories of Underdevelopment (1968), Star Wars (1977), Raiders of the Lost Ark (1981), Distant Voices, Still Lives (1988), The Matrix (1999), Amores Perros (2000), Gosford Park (2001), and The Lord of the Rings trilogy (2001-3). Also included is a range of exercises designed to stimulate critical and analytical thought and help to demystify the process of creative media-making. Assignments range in scale from simple storyboarding and narrative development exercises that may be explored with minimal technology to more complex video projects that can be adapted to suit varying levels of technical skill. The Critical Practice of Film provides an accessible introduction to the theory and practice of film studies, integrating creative practice with critical and theoretical engagement to guide students towards an engaged form of creative expression and an active role as reviewer and critic. Beautifully presented, this ground-breaking text offers all students an integrated understanding of film criticism and production. Elspeth Kydd is a Senior Lecturer in Film Studies and Video Production at the University of the West of England. She has taught, researched and published in film and television studies for nearly twenty years, as well as being an active documentary videomaker. This book developed from teaching integrated theory/practice film courses at universities in the US and UK.
