Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children's literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land The Long March Marie-Louise Fitzpatrick, 1998 In 1847 an impoverished group of Choctaw Indians donated 170 for famine relief in Ireland This book draws together the story of the Choctaw Indians and their Long March and the lives of Irish people suffering in the Great Hunger The story is told through the eyes of 14 year old Choona Contemporary Irish Culture and Politics Seamus Deane, Kevin Whelan, 2004 This book is a special issue of Modern Language Quarterly Encountering Children's Literature Jane M. Gangi, 2004 In this text Jane M Gangi gives us a new perspective on how integrating the fine arts and literature fosters the active participation and in depth understanding that is as important for children as it is for teachers The heart of the book is a comprehensive treatment of children's literature with a strong emphasis on multicultural and international literature Jaquette The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 1999 Famine Pots LeAnne Howe, Pdraig Kirwan, 2020-10-01 The remarkable story of the money sent by the Choctaw to the Irish in 1847 is one that is often told and remembered by people in both nations This gift was sent to the Irish from the Choctaw at the height of the potato famine in Ireland just sixteen years after the Choctaw began their march on the Trail of Tears toward the areas west of the Mississippi River Famine Pots honors that extraordinary gift and provides further context about and consideration of this powerful symbol of cross cultural synergy through a collection of essays and poems that speak volumes of the empathy and connectivity between the two communities As well as signaling patterns of movement and exchange this study of the gift exchange invites reflection on processes of cultural formation within Choctaw and Irish society alike and sheds light on longtime concerns surrounding spiritual and social identities This volume aims to facilitate a fuller understanding of the historical complexities that surrounded migration and movement in the colonial world which in turn will help lead to a more constructive consideration of the ways in which Irish and Native American Studies might be drawn together today

Using Children's Literature Across the Curriculum Catherine M. O'Callaghan,2011 This resource uniquely offers preservice and inservice teachers templates for using quality children s literature to implement six themes across grades K 8 The themes are based on national curriculum standards and text sets are carefully selected to facilitate discussion analysis and problem solving across the grades Using Children s Literature Across the Curriculum provides teachers with a guide to using multilayered texts to facilitate students attainment of critical literacy It is designed to be a supplemental text to guide teachers in designing literacy instruction The instructional sequence includes collaborative inquiry activities across the curriculum to extend each theme to math science technology and social studies Teachers are shown how to incorporate family literacy with a component entitled Home School Connections and to differentiate instruction for individual learners with a section entitled On Your Own Activities The theme concludes with a critical literacy activity that applies the content knowledge of the theme with collaborative inquiry A unique feature of the handbook is the emphasis on performance based assessment with each instructional sequence containing two rubrics for the teacher to implement The instructional sequences are meant as models for teachers to use in developing their own themes in order to facilitate critical literacy These models can be adjusted to fit the reading level of the students as teachers become more familiar with the text s structure and their students needs
