Longest Day 1961:

Guts and Glory Lawrence H. Suid, 2015-01-13 Guts and Glory The Making of the American Military Image in Film is the definitive study of the symbiotic relationship between the film industry and the United States armed services. Since the first edition was published nearly two decades ago, the nation has experienced several wars both on the battlefield and in movie theatres and living rooms at home. Now author Lawrence Suid has extensively revised and expanded his classic history of the mutual exploitation of the film industry and the military, exploring how Hollywood has reflected and effected changes in America's image of its armed services. He offers in-depth looks at such classic films as Wings, Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo, The Longest Day, Patton, Top Gun, An Officer and a Gentleman, and Saving Private Ryan, as well as the controversial war movies The Green Berets, M A S H, The Deer Hunter, Apocalypse Now, Platoon, Full Metal Jacket, and Born on the Fourth of July.

Twentieth Century-Fox Peter Lev, 2013-03-15 When the Fox Film Corporation merged with Twentieth Century Pictures in 1935, the company posed little threat to industry juggernauts such as Paramount and MGM. In the years that followed, however, guided by executives Darryl F. Zanuck and Spyros Skouras, it soon emerged as one of the most important studios. Though working from separate offices in New York and Los Angeles and often of two different minds, the two men navigated Twentieth Century Fox through the trials of the World War II boom, the birth of television, the Hollywood Blacklist, and more to an era of exceptional success which included what was then the highest grossing movie of all time, The Sound of Music. Twentieth Century Fox is a comprehensive examination of the studio's transformation during the Zanuck-Skouras era. Instead of limiting his scope to the Hollywood production studio, Lev also delves into the corporate strategies, distribution models, government relations, and technological innovations that were the responsibilities of the New York headquarters. Moving chronologically, he examines the corporate history before analyzing individual films produced by Twentieth Century Fox during that period. Drawn largely from original archival research, Twentieth Century Fox offers not only enlightening analyses and new insights into the films and the history of the company but also affords the reader a unique perspective from which to view the evolution of the entire film industry.

Jeffrey Hunter Paul Green, 2014-05-12 Jeffrey Hunter is best remembered today for his roles as half-breed Martin Pawley in John Ford's classic western The Searchers (1956), as Jesus Christ in Nicholas Ray's King of Kings (1961), and as Christopher Pike, the first captain of the U.S.S. Enterprise in the original Star Trek pilot. This work chronicles Hunter's entire film and television career from his beginnings as a 20th Century Fox contract player to his untimely death in 1969 at the age of 42. Fellow 20th Century Fox contract player Robert Wagner provides the Foreword and contributes his memories of working with Hunter. Former vice president and head of Desilu Studios, Herbert F. Solow, discusses Hunter's role in the original Star Trek pilot, and Lloyd J. Schwartz shares his memories of being present at Hunter's audition for the role of Mike Brady in The Brady Bunch (1969). Hunter's lost film Strange Portrait (1966) is also discussed in detail, and his radio and theatre career highlighted.

The A to Z of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J.

Reimer,2010-04-01 German film is diverse and multi faceted its history includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for the construction of a narrative of German film While the disjuncture generates distinct points of separation it also highlights continuities between the ruptures Outlining the richness of German film The A to Z of German Cinema covers mainstream alternative and experimental film from 1895 to the present through a chronology introductory essay appendix of the 100 most significant German films a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema The book s broad canvas will lead students and scholars of cinema to appreciate the complex nature of German film Historical Dictionary of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer,Carol J. Reimer,2019-07-15 The History of German film is diverse and multi faceted This volume can only suggest the richness of a film tradition that includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany and the German Democratic Republic East Germany s well as a reunited Germany two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as and the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for construction of a narrative of German film Disjuncture generates distinct points of separation and yet also highlights continuities between the ruptures This second edition of Historical Dictionary of German Cinema contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about German cinema The Longest Night ,2024-11-04 With an introduction by Gregor Benton The Longest Night tells the story of Chinese Trotskyism in its later years including after Mao Zedong s capture of Beijing in 1949 It treats the three ages of Chinese Trotskyism the founding generation around Chen Duxiu Zheng Chaolin Wang Fanxi and Peng Shuzhi who joined the Opposition after their expulsion from the Chinese Communist Party CCP the first generation of those who after 1931 did not first pass through the ranks of the CCP before becoming Trotskyists and those who became Trotskyists after 1949 mainly in Hong Kong and the diaspora Histories on Screen Sam Edwards,Faye Sayer,Michael Dolski,2018-02-08 How as historians should we read a film Histories on Screen answers this and other questions in a crucial volume for any history student keen to master source use The book begins with a theoretical Thinking about Film section that explores the ways in which films can be analyzed and interrogated as either primary sources secondary sources or indeed as both The much larger Using Film segment of the book then offers engaging case studies which put this theory into practice Topics including gender class race war propaganda national identity and memory all receive good coverage in what is an eclectic multi contributor volume Documentaries films and television from Britain and the United States are examined and there is a jargon free emphasis on the skills and methods needed to analyze films in historical study featuring prominently throughout the text Histories on Screen is a vital resource for all history students as it enables them to understand film as a source and empowers them with the analytical tools needed to use that knowledge in their own work

Guts & Glory

Lawrence H. Suid, 1978 An excellent contribution to the growing studies on American films and to the war film genre in particular The author defines war movies as those in which combat or its influence are central although military movies in which military men are portrayed in training or preserving peace are also considered Within these definitions Suid selects several dozen films from The Big Parade 1925 to Apocalypse Now and uses them to develop his main themes the image of the military presented to mass audiences and the related question of the military's assistance to film makers The relationship between Washington and Hollywood that emerges will be a disappointment for anyone seeking confirmation of conspiracy The Pentagon is always looking for positive portrayals of the services and the military's chief concern has been for accuracy in detail and procedure with increasing sensitivity to any costs to taxpayers The author concludes that as long as movies can portray individual bravery perseverance or the excitement of challenging death in personal combat they will maintain their special place in American homes and theaters

Combat Films

Steven Jay Rubin, 2011-06-28 This critical text offers a behind the scenes look at fifteen of the most important American war films of the last 60 years Based on original interviews and archival research and featuring rare photographs this book covers films considered unusually realistic for the genre The original edition 1981 covered war films through World War II while the present expanded edition includes seven new chapters covering the Civil War the American gunboat presence in China in the 1920s the Korean War the Vietnam War the fighting in Mogadishu in 1993 and the war in Iraq

A Long Day's Journey Into Light United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1976

Movie Roadshows Kim R. Holston, 2012-12-13 This work examines a film distribution system paralleling the rise of early features and persisting until 1972 when Man of La Mancha was the final roadshow to require reserved seating Synonymous with Hollywood's star studded premieres roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater

Roadshows often epic in subject matter played selected usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased De rigueur by the 1960s were musical overtures intermissions entre acte and exit music and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt The focus is on roadshows released in the United States but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows Included are plots contemporary critical reaction premiere dates production background and methods of promotion i e the ballyhoo The Zanucks of Hollywood Marlys J. Harris,1989 Traces the lives of Darryl Zanuck the influential Hollywood producer and his family and describes how Zanuck s will divided them Global Geopolitics Klaus J. Dodds,2014-05-22 Employing thematic investigation and illustrated through case studies Dodds explores how global politics is imagined and practised by countries such as the US and other organisations including Greenpeace the IMF and CNN International In addition the author discusses how issues such as environmental degradation terror networks anti globalisation protests and North South relations challenge consolidate and subvert the existing international political system Generic Histories of German Cinema Jaimey Fisher,2013 Offers a fresh approach to German film studies by tracing key genres including horror the thriller Heimat films and war films over the course of German cinema history D-Day in History and Memory Michael Dolski,Sam Edwards,John Buckley,2014-03-15 Over the past sixty five years the Allied invasion of Northwestern France in June 1944 known as D Day has come to stand as something more than a major battle The assault itself formed a vital component of Allied victory in the Second World War D Day developed into a sign and symbol as a word it carries with it a series of ideas and associations that have come to symbolize different things to different people and nations As such the commemorative activities linked to the battle offer a window for viewing the various belligerents in their postwar years This book examines the commonalities and differences in national collective memories of D Day Chapters cover the main forces on the day of battle including the United States Great Britain Canada France and Germany In addition a chapter on Russian memory of the invasion explores other views of the battle The overall thrust of the book shows that memories of the past vary over time link to present day needs and also still have a clear national and cultural specificity These memories arise in a multitude of locations such as film books monuments anniversary celebrations and news media representations
