Crawford, 1993 Teaching Culture H. Ned Seelye, 1993 Teaching Culture provides practical strategies for integrating language and culture study and outlines six goals for cultural instruction. Sample learning units, abundant activities, cultural mini dramas, and student performance objectives help teachers illustrate how the cultural context of communication is vital to understanding the message. Looking at American signs Jann Huizenga, Kim Wm Crowley, 1983 Reader Development Bibliography Vickie L. Collins, 1990 This edition is an annotated list of 390 literacy materials for adult new readers. All the materials are written on an eighth grade level or below. These paperback instructional titles, many in workbook format, are for use with adult basic education (ABE) and English as a Second Language (ESL) students. The introduction includes guidelines for identifying and evaluating ABE and ESL books. Titles listed in the bibliography are divided into the following categories: leisure reading, biography, community and family life, jobs, reading and writing, arithmetic, science, religion, the world and its people, ESL and materials for tutors and teachers. Within each of these categories, the book titles are listed alphabetically. Each entry provides author, publisher, publication date, Gunning Fog readability level, annotation, ESL level, when appropriate, components, pages, International Standard Book Number, price, and series title. The bibliography also contains charts that identify the ABE and ESL skill levels of the books. The document includes nine appendices: 1. the Reader Development Program (RDP); 2. the Gunning Fog Index; 3. materials for deaf adults; 4. a 30-item literacy resource directory; 5. ordering procedures for RDP materials; 6. a list of branches of the Free Library of Philadelphia; 7. addresses of publishers and distributors; 8. an RDP publication order form; and 9. a materials recommendation form. The textbook includes a focus on linguistic anthropology, unpacking the main contributions of linguistics to the study of human communication and culture. Aimed at the general education student, the textbook also provides anthropology, linguistics, and English majors with the resources needed to pursue advanced courses in this area. Written in an accessible manner that does not assume previous knowledge of linguistics, this new edition contains expanded discussions on linguistic anthropology, sociolinguistics, including an expanded section on trans and nonbinary language and pragmatics. The textbook incorporates a robust set of pedagogical features, including marginal definitions, a substantial glossary, chapter summaries, and learning exercises. Brand new to this edition are a full International Phonetic Alphabet chart, new exercises with languages other than English, and new illustrations.
