Teaching Poetry in High School Albert B. Somers, 1999 Describes the different resources that can be used to teach high school students about poetry

Literature for Today's Young Adults Kenneth L. Donelson, Alleen Pace Nilsen, 1997 With 140 fewer pages than the fourth edition the fifth obviously has been tightened it's partly in the format with narrower margins and less white space Otherwise some text has been rephrased or rearranged and topics for example adolescent psychology given shorter shrift Coverage of Holocaust literature has been expanded and discussion of problem novels improved Sports books have been dumped in with humor movies and other stuff including humorous poetry which it seems the authors feel is the only kind teens read for pleasure other types of poetry as well as short stories and drama are relegated to the English classroom coverage of which has been enlarged The chapter on sf and fantasy is good on historical aspects but weak on today's writers A short list of Internet listserves and Web sites has been incorporated as part of using YA literature in the library Once again updating of appendixes seems spotty Nevertheless this is useful as a resource for youth librarians and a tool for teaching YA literature Sally Estes Young Adult Literature Katherine Toth Bucher, M. Lee Manning, 2006 Young Adult Literature Exploration Evaluation and Appreciation is an exciting new book developed to identify for teachers how to better connect adolescents with good literature Comprehensive enough to ensure that teachers understand today's adolescents and the literature that will engage them yet slim enough to ensure readers have the opportunity to read the books themselves this book will help teachers provide a rich educational experience for adolescents throughout the middle and secondary curriculum while nourishing their love of reading This book addresses adolescent culture and the types of literature that engage adolescents including horror graphic novels comic books and many forms of media more thoroughly and insightfully than any other on the market Middle and Secondary Inservice Teachers and Reading Specialists Adult Learners Welcome Here Marguerite Crowley Weibel, 2007 Designed to help librarians connect new adult readers with books and to acquaint literacy teachers with materials generally available in their public library This book outlines the library's role in fostering adult literacy and shows how popular library materials can be used by librarians and teachers in new and innovative ways Index to Poetry for Children and Young People, 1993-1997 G. Meredith Blackburn, 1999 A title subject author and first line index to poetry in collections for children and young people with a list of books and a directory of publishers Literature and the Child Bernice E. Cullinan, Lee Galda, 1998 With a slender design and appealing art Cullinan and Galda present a thought provoking discussion on how children can read to respond read to learn and read to enjoy This text provides evaluation criteria for selecting superior children's books rather than listing thousands of titles and synopses Booklists direct readers to quality literature and extended discussions of selected titles demonstrate the selection criteria Multicultural literature is discussed throughout the text with a separate chapter on more specific multicultural issues Numerous teaching ideas many of which are contributed by classroom teachers provide practical applications This is a book for teachers stressing the use of good books in a literature based curriculum Booktalking the Award Winners H W Wilson, 1995 Literature for Children David L. Russell, 1997 This succinct yet comprehensive introduction to children's literature focuses on genres and concepts rather than on particular authors This completely updated edition provides a clear literary perspective for understanding the foundations and contexts of literature including the various genres of children's literature from picture to informational books
