Love In A Time Of Hate Liberation Psychology In Latin America:

Love in a Time of Hate Nancy Caro Hollander, 1997 Nancy Caro Hollander profiles ten Argentine Chilean and Uruguayan psychologists and psychoanalysts who experienced firsthand and later strove to comprehend the political and social oppression that occurred under the military dictatorships in their countries during the 1970s and 1980s She recounts how psychoanalysts employed what she calls liberation psychology to understand the brutal trauma suffered by the populace under fiercely repressive regimes and then to help themselves and others to confront and overcome a culture of intimidation coercion torture and frequently murder

Love in a Time of Hate Nancy Caro Hollander, 1997-01 First we are going to kill all of the subversives then their collaborators then their sympathizers then the indifferent and finally the timid General Iberico Manuel Saint Jean governor of Buenos Aires province 1977

Psychology of Liberation Maritza Montero, Christopher C. Sonn, 2009-04-28 Since the mid 1980s the psychology of liberation movement has been a catalyst for collective and individual change in communities throughout Latin America and beyond and recent political developments are making its powerful transformative ideas more relevant than ever before Psychology of Liberation Theory and Applications updates the activist frameworks developed by Ignacio Martin Baro and Paulo Freire with compelling stories from the frontlines of conflict in the developing and developed worlds as social science and psychological practice are allied with struggles for peace justice and equality In these chapters liberation is presented as both an ongoing process and a core dimension of wellbeing entailing the reconstruction of social identity and the transformation of all parties involved both oppressed and oppressors It also expands the social consciousness of professionals bringing more profound meaning to practice and enhancing related areas such as peace psychology as shown in articles such as these Philippines the role of liberation movements in the transition to democracy Venezuela liberation psychology as a therapeutic intervention with street youth South Africa the movement for representational knowledge Muslim world religion the state and the gendering of human rights Ireland linking personal and political development Australia addressing issues of racism identity and immigration Colombia building cultures of peace from the devastation of war Psychology of Liberation demonstrates the commitment to overcome social injustices and oppression The book is a critical resource for social and community psychologists as well as policy analysts It can also be used as a text for graduate courses in psychology sociology social work and community studies

For an Anti-capitalist Psychology of Community Nick Malherbe, 2022-04-22 Anti capitalist political struggle is a site of struggling psychologies Conscious political action is never far from unconscious desire and the fight for material justice is always also the fight for dignity and psychological well being Yet how might community psychologists conceive of their discipline in a way that opposes the very capitalist political economy that historically most of the psy disciplines have bolstered in return for disciplinary legitimacy In its consideration of an anti capitalist psychology of community this book does not ignore or try to resolve the contradictory position of such a psychology Instead it draws on these contradictions to enliven psychology to the shifting demands both creative and destructive of a community centred anti capitalism Using practical examples the book deals with the psychological components of building community centred social movements that challenge neoliberal capitalism as a political system an ideology and a mode of governing rationality The book also offers several theoretical contributions that grapple with how an anti capitalist psychology of community can remain attentive to the psychological elements of anti capitalist struggle what the psychological can tell us about anti capitalist politics and how these politics can shape the psychological

Toward Psychologies of Liberation M. Watkins,H. Shulman,2008-07-15 Psychologies of liberation are emerging on every continent in response to the collective traumas inflicted by colonialism and globalization The authors present the theoretical foundation and participatory methodologies that unite these radical interdisciplinary approaches to creating individual and community well being They move from a description of the psychological and community wounds that are common to unjust and violent contexts to engaging examples of innovative community projects from around the world that seek to heal these wounds The creation of public homeplaces and the work of liberation arts critical participatory action research public dialogue and reconciliation are highlighted as embodying the values and hopes of liberation psychology Drawing on psychoanalysis trauma studies liberation arts participatory research and contemporary cultural work this book nourishes our understanding of and imagination about the kinds of healing that are necessary to the creation of more just and peaceful communities In dialogue with cultural workers writers and visionaries from Latin America Africa Asia Europe the United States and the Pacific Islands Toward Psychologies of Liberation quickens a dialogical convergence of liberatory psychological theories and practices that will seed individual and community transformation

The Psychopolitics of Liberation L. Alschuler,2016-01-19 Explaining changes in the political consciousness of the oppressed using the ideas of Paulo Freire Albert Memmi and Jungian psychology this original book explores how psychological bonds of oppression are broken and offers a psychopolitical theory for the analysis of the autobiographies of four Native people in Guatemala and Canada

Enemies on the Couch Vamik D. Volkan,2014-07-01 For more than 30 years renowned psychoanalyst Vamik D Volkan has applied the theories of his profession to societies in conflict venturing into cauldrons of unrest as observer mediator and practitioner In this volume he shares his experiences facilitating dialogue between opposing enemy groups in numerous contexts and conflict zones and presents the pioneering theoretical and practical frameworks he developed In the process he provides a unique window onto watershed moments of the recent past from major historical events such as the collapse of the Soviet Union and the fall of the Berlin Wall to the tragedy of September 11 2001 and continued violence in the Middle East The findings and observations presented in this volume provide not only a new way of looking at recent historical events but also offer a novel set of tools for understanding and shaping the present and future

Dictatorships in the Hispanic World Patricia Swier,Julia Riordan-Goncalves,2013-07-18 This book broaches a comparative and interdisciplinary approach in its exploration of the phenomenon of the dictatorship in the Hispanic World in the twentieth century Some of the themes explored through a transatlantic perspective include testimonial accounts of violence and resistance in prisons hunger and repression exile silence and intertextuality bildungsroman and the modification of gender roles and the role of trauma and memory within the genres of the novel autobiography testimonial literature the essay documentaries puppet theater poetry and visual art By looking at the similarities and differences of dictatorships represented in the diverse landscapes of Latin America and Spain the authors hope to provide a more panoramic view of the dictatorship that moves beyond historiographical accounts of oppression and engages actively in a more broad dialectics of resistance and a politics of memory In from the Cold

A Nazi Legacy Vamik D. Volkan, 2018-05-08 This book relates the psychoanalytic journey of a man in his thirties a grandson of a high level SS officer whose case illustrates how individuals can sometimes suffer greatly or cause the suffering of other innocent persons simply because they are descendants of perpetrators In it technical considerations in treating such an individual including countertransference issues and concepts related to transgenerational transmissions for example identification depositing dissociation encapsulation and remembering through actions are explored The man had a repeating daydream of carrying a big egg

under his arm The imagined egg representing his encapsulated dissociated state contained the mental representation of his Nazi grandfather and his grandfather s victims along with images of most tragic historical events He attempted to turn his grandfather s image from a life taker to a life giver and wished to own the older man s grandiose specialness while fearing the loss of his own life These opposite aims created unnamed catastrophes
