Love Letters In New England:

Love Letters of the Great War Mandy Kirkby, 2014-01-16 From the private papers of a young Winston Churchill to the tender notes of an unknown Tommy in the trenches Love Letters of the Great War is a collection of profound intimate and heartfelt letters written during World War One Many of the letters collected here are eloquent declarations of love and longing others contain wrenching accounts of fear jealousy and betrayal and a number share sweet dreams of home But in all the correspondence whether from British American French German Russian Australian and Canadian troops in the height of battle or from the heartbroken wives and sweethearts left behind there lies a truly human portrait of love and war A century on from the First World War these letters offer an intimate glimpse into the hearts of men and women separated by conflict and show how love can transcend even the bleakest and most devastating of realities Edited and introduced by Mandy Kirkby with a foreword from Women's Prize winner Helen Dunmore Love Letters and the Romantic Novel during the Napoleonic Wars

Sharon Worley, 2017-01-06 Love letters during the Napoleonic wars were largely framed by concepts of love which were promoted through novels and philosophy The standard texts so to speak which were written by major authors who inherited this Enlightenment bearing responded to the emerging concepts of love found in novels and philosophical essays Love among this Napoleonic coterie is unique because it demonstrates the reciprocal relationship between the love letter and the romantic novel Germaine de Staël Juliette de La Fayette Chateaubriand Benjamin Constant Lady Emma Hamilton Napoleon Bonaparte and his brother Lucien Bonaparte were the authors and recipients of some of the most passionate love letters of this period They were also avid readers of the newly emerging genre of the romantic novel and many of them were also authors of such works where they projected their personal romances onto the characterization of their fictional heroes and heroines In addition these authors had lived through the recent French Revolution and the Terror Imprisoned during the Revolution or branded as emigrants upon their return to Paris their mature adult lives were spent in the shadows of the Napoleonic wars in which they shifted political loyalties as the specter of Napoleon's powers grew from First Consul to Emperor of Europe The looming threat of war ignited the depths of their passions and inspired their intellectual analysis of love happiness and suicide Their evolving concept of love was a romantic all consuming passion which gripped the lovers in fatal embraces This book's analysis of their love letters and romantic novels reveals the emerging political landscape of the period through extended metaphors of love and patriotism The Love Letter
