Foltz, Frederick A. Foltz, 2018-07-31 Franz and Frederick Foltz examine how modern technology creates an environment that significantly affects Christianity by reducing the mysteries of faith to manageable techniques The body of their work analyzes the effects of technology on the theological virtues of faith hope and love the triad that believers have used for a common narrative to understand and express their thoughts and experiences They begin by looking at how recent developments have brought us into a post truth era by removing words from their context in nature time place and community Popular theologies such as the power of positive thinking the laws of creation the plan for salvation and the prosperity gospel reflect this change by gearing all for efficiently getting what we want and ignoring tradition The authors then examine each of the virtues separately finding that faith has become a risk management tool that depends on confidence in systems rather than personal relationships hope is defined as the expectation that our present desires shall be granted rather than a vision of the future and love has become an intimacy that provides escape from the real world and community rather than a self denying care for them Finally the authors take a look at some appropriate responses

Parkin,2011-06-03

Modern advertising has changed dramatically since the early twentieth century but when it comes to food Katherine Parkin writes the message has remained consistent Advertisers have historically promoted food in distinctly gendered terms returning repeatedly to themes that associated shopping and cooking with women Foremost among them was that regardless of the actual work involved women should serve food to demonstrate love for their families In identifying shopping and cooking as an expression of love ads helped to both establish and reinforce the belief that kitchen work was women s work even as women s participation in the labor force dramatically increased Alternately flattering her skills as a homemaker and preying on her insecurities advertisers suggested that using their products would give a woman irresistible sexual allure a happy marriage and healthy children Ads also promised that by buying and making the right foods a woman could help her family achieve social status maintain its racial or ethnic identity and assimilate into the American mainstream Advertisers clung tenaciously to this paradigm throughout great upheavals in the patterns of American work diet and gender roles To discover why Food Is Love draws on thousands of ads that appeared in the most popular magazines of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries including the Ladies Home Journal Good Housekeeping Ebony and the Saturday Evening Post The book also cites the records of one of the nation s preeminent advertising firms as well as the motivational research advertisers utilized to reach their customers Socrates in Love Christopher Phillips,2011-01-17 Phillips takes philosophy out of the ivory tower and into the street Los Angeles Times Christopher Phillips goes to the heart of philosophy and Socratic discourse to discover what we re all looking for the kind of love that makes life worthwhile That is love not defined only as eros or erotic love but in all its classical varieties Love of neighbor love of country love of God love of life and love of wisdom each is clarified and invigorated in Phillips s Socratic dialogues with people from all walks of life and from all over the world

Eros and Thanatos. Love across Civilizations Alberto Castelli,2024-02-06 Eros and Thanatos is about the deadly nature of love It is remarkable that literary critics have paid so little attention to the combination between love and death in literature This book seeks to address this significant scholarly lacuna by exploring key literary texts of the last two hundred years as exemplary of a consistent tendency toward love and death Its emphasis on singular characters and close readings suggests the spectrum of an arbitrary dichotomy never fully resolved The existential discussion triggered by each plot is so intense that the erotic and the merely sexual seem inappropriate Indeed each writer chose to reduce it to the setting and background of a story that takes place elsewhere With this in mind the author intends to reflect love s paradoxical nature If love is triggered by beauty beauty can be immoral and love must die to preserve the illusion of beauty making and based on extensive research That research distilled down to its essence demonstrates that stress is not as is often portrayed in popular culture the enemy Data from two separate fields academia and industry while having opposing views on who is responsible for reducing felt stress both agree that the primary mitigator of harmful distress is locus of control LOC Internal LOC locates the control within the individual whereas external LOC locates the control from outside forces The consensus by academia and industry is the more LOC is internal the less distress is felt Chosen versus imposed stressors yield less harmful impacts from the distress This research becomes a powerful tool to help reduce distress by restoring control to the individual Life can be so overwhelming that automatic knee jerk reactions are used to fend off a constant barrage of stressors The CHOICES Model provides a way to be proactive The more this is done consciously the greater the sense of wellbeing The book presents seven life areas which give purpose and meaning The areas include Community Health Occupation Investment Creativity Education and Spirituality Each is essential to a quality life The premise of this book is that an individual's perception of their own personal power increases with every small success and one area of success gives the individual confidence to believe in themselves enough to attempt challenges in the other domains There's a chapter for each of these seven equally important domains Each area is defined along with the rationale and tools necessary for personal development Community is important because we are social beings with needs for belonging Letting someone know you care allows joy to spring through both your hearts No matter our physical or mental condition health matters to all of us Our personal level of wellbeing sets the limits for what can be our personal best Build strength and immunity when feeling well and be gentle with yourself when you're not Occupation is important because we all have a need to be part of something bigger than ourselves a calling to make a difference and a desire to leave a meaningful legacy This needn't be one's vocation It is literally what occupies our time and energy It may be an avocation or volunteer service work However we spend our time let our life's work lift our hearts and move us all into better days Investment is not limited to finances This area is all about how we spend our resources Besides money it includes our time energy and level of commitment Let's be generous and give of ourselves without expecting anything in return In this way we all have the power to be superheroes Creativity is important because it defines who we are We build a life We express who we are We make something that only we can imagine Expressions from our hearts are never wasted When we bring something new into this world we give birth to something that will survive us Education is something we do naturally and have done since we took our first breath Lifelong learning helps us make our way in the world We know that reading to a child instills curiosity and ignites intelligence Let's read to a child tonight and if that's not possible let's all continue reading to our inner child Finally spirituality provides transcendence to see and feel beyond our limitations and provides love when facing the void Namaste The light within me bows to the light within you Let's spread this message and celebrate the sacred in each other
