Reconciliation James W. Dees,2008-07-01 Appreciating the magnificence of Jesus gift is difficult How can you appreciate the magnificence of something that you cannot understand Logic a few recent scientific discoveries and two faith choices tell us the purpose of our mortal bodies provide evidence for the existence of our souls and define the nature of our souls Our mortal bodies provide a critical experience that our souls cannot obtain in any other way The nature of the world in which our souls exist as well as the nature of time is then described as well as why mortals and souls experience time differently The two faith choices used in conjunction with these scientific discoveries are that God is love and that we are being created in the image of God When all these things are considered it then becomes possible to understand the necessity and magnificence of Jesus sacrifice Interpreting the Bible and the Qur'an through Love Tareq Hesham Moqbel,2025-10-16 This book investigates the role of love as an exegetical resource for interpreting the Bible and the Qur an Through surveying the ways in which love was used to make sense of the Jewish Christian and Muslim Scriptures this book advocates and argues for a hermeneutical approach that reads the Bible and the Qur an through the lens of love Engaging various exegetical authorities from the Jewish Christian and Muslim traditions Tareq Hesham Moqbel identifies numerous cases of love informed exegesis covering diverse themes and exegetical techniques The exegetical dialogue presented in this book shows that the idea of love takes on greater meaning when studied from the standpoint of comparative exegesis Moreover by analysing this topic through a comparative lens the book argues for a novel conceptualisation of love as an exegetical tool and a reading ethic that connects the Abrahamic scriptural traditions and can be applied beyond them

Fiddes,2021-09-23 This book explores the way in which the study and practice of love creates a common ground for different faiths and different traditions within the same faith For the contributors common ground in this context is not a minimal core of belief or a lowest common denominator of faith but a space or area in which to live together consider together the meaning of the love to which various faiths witness and work together to enable human flourishing Such a space the contributors believe is possible because it is the place of encounter with the divine This book is the fruit of a Project for the Study of Love in Religion which aims to create this space in which different traditions of love converge from Islam Judaism and the Christianity of both East and West Tools employed by the contributors in exploring this space of love include exegesis of ancient texts theology accounts of mystical experience philosophy and evolutionary science of the human Insights about human and divine love that emerge include its nature as a form of knowing its sacrificial and erotic dimensions its inclination towards beauty its making of community and its importance for a just political and economic life Hawaiian Idylls of Love and Death Herbert Henry Gowen,1908

Courtliness and the History of Sexuality James Schultz corrects this oversight with careful analysis of key courtly texts of the medieval German literary tradition Courtly love Schultz finds was provoked not by the biological and intrinsic factors that play such a large role in our contemporary thinking about sexuality sex difference or desire but by extrinsic signs of class bodies that were visibly noble and behaviors that represented exemplary courtliness Individuals became subjects of courtly love only to the extent that their love took the shape of certain courtly roles such as singer lady or knight They hoped not only for physical union but also for the social distinction that comes from realizing these roles to perfection To an extraordinary extent courtly love represented the love of courtliness the eroticization of noble status and the courtly culture that celebrated noble power and refinement
