The Mourner's Song James Tatum, 2018-10-30 No matter when or where they are fought all wars have one thing in common a relentless progression to monuments and memorials for the dead Likewise all art made from war begins and ends in mourning and remembrance In The Mourner's Song James Tatum offers incisive discussions of physical and literary memorials constructed in the wake of war from the Vietnam Veterans Memorial to the writings of Stephen Crane Edmund Wilson Tim O'Brien and Robert Lowell Tatum's touchstone throughout is the Iliad not just one of the earliest war poems but also one of the most powerful examples of the way poetry can be a tribute to and consolation for what is lost in war Reading the Iliad alongside later works inspired by war Tatum reveals how the forms and processes of art convert mourning to memorial He examines the role of remembrance and the distance from war it requires the significance of landscape in memorialization the artifacts of war that fire the imagination the intimate relationship between war and love and its effects on the ferocity with which soldiers wage battle and finally the idea of memorialization itself Because all survivors suffer the losses of war Tatum's is a story of both victims and victors commanders and soldiers women and men Photographs of war memorials in Vietnam France and the United States beautifully augment his testimonials Eloquent and deeply moving The Mourner's Song will speak to anyone interested in the literature of war and the relevance of the classics to our most pressing contemporary needs Apennine Crossings Nick Havely, 2024 This innovative exploration of the literature history and culture of the Apennines links a twenty first century journey along the walking trail of the Great Apennine Excursion to accounts and discussions of past travellers including pilgrims merchants tourists soldiers partisans and poets from the Medieval period up to World War Two Enser's Filmed Books and Plays Ellen Baskin, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2003 The sixth edition of this compendium of film and television adaptations of books and plays includes several thousand new listings that cover the period from 1992 to December 2001 There are 8000 main entries covering 70 years of film history including some foreign language material
