Love From Linda:

The Road to Love Linda Ford, 2008-05-01 The road that led to Kate Bradshaw's door sometimes seemed the loneliest in the world. In the depths of the Depression the young widow was struggling to hold on to the family farm and raise two small children. And she had only her faith to sustain her until the day Hatcher Jones came walking up that long lonely road. The handsome mysterious drifter was clearly haunted by some terrible secret from his past. But the simple acts of kindness he showed Kate and her children spoke of a good heart and strong values. And she longed to make him see that there could be redemption for anyone even him and that all his wandering had brought him home at last. This Can't Be Love! 2 Patricia Goins, 2007-05 It's been seventeen years since Karen Smith escaped her abusive marriage to Clyde King. Determined to help other victims of domestic violence, Karen is now the mother and manager of The Love House, a transitional shelter for battered women. Melissa, Katrina, Barbra, and Tabitha all have one thing in common: they are all running away from abusive men and are residing in The Love House. Melissa is a heroin addict and prostitute from Los Angeles, California; Katrina is a nurse and entrepreneur from Chicago, Illinois; Tabitha is a nineteen-year-old high school drop-out from Atlanta, Georgia; and Barbra is a pregnant telephone operator from Cleveland, Ohio. Life in The Love House is not always easy for these four ladies from different walks of life as they try to learn to live together under the same roof. Karen strives to help these four women transform their lives from victims to survivors while at the same time trying to maintain her own home and keep her wild and rebellious sixteen-year-old daughter from following in her dead cousin's footsteps. Unfortunately, Karen soon learns that no matter how hard she tries, it's impossible to save everyone. The CTR Anthology Alan Filewod, 1991-12-15 Since its inception in 1974, Canadian Theatre Review has been one of the most important publishers of new Canadian plays. With a script in each issue, CTR has introduced new writers and advocated new approaches to Canadian drama. This volume brings together fifteen of the most significant plays published in CTR between 1974 and 1991. Most have been out of print since their appearance in the journal. They include recognized classics that have transformed Canadian theatre, such as Ten Lost Years and This is for You, Anna and lesser-known plays by such major writers as Robert Lepage and George F. Walker. Taken together, these plays not only expand the boundaries of Canadian drama; they also document an important and exciting period in Canadian theatre. They are vivid testaments to the diversity of contemporary theatrical practice in Canada.
