herself at the most broken place she could have ever imagined Shortly after her husband left her and their four young adult children she was in her kitchen calling out to God desperate for an answer and someplace to put the fractured pieces of her life so that she could begin healing It was there that she felt God impress upon her Write your healing is there For the next eighteen months Mary wrote what you will find here a most personal and inspirational message of what she believes is God's message for anyone who finds their life in the pit of despair With God's guidance she learned to put one foot in front of the other and began to live again It's a transformation from brokenness to one of hope and certainty that all things work together for our good when we trust God to lead us Whether your prayer is for your husband to be reconciled in relationship with you or it is simply your desire to learn to trust God for your new season ahead When He Walks Away is a must read It is balm for your wounded spirit and it will encourage you greatly on your journey back to wholeness
