Zabludovsky, 2023-12-09 This open access book presents a condensed history of Sociology in Mexico from its origins through to the middle of the 19th century and up to the present day The book analyses the interaction between sociology and the main economic political and social change in the country including the 1910 Mexican Revolution the main social movements the role of the intellectual exiles from Spain and Latin America and the participation of women who have often remained invisible in the history of sociology The book explores how sociological discourse played a fundamental role in the separation of secular and public education and the search for a national project from 1868 onwards despite the lack of an institute of social research until 1930 how sociology became an autonomous social science led by a few intellectuals and public figures as it became institutionalized in universities and the effect this had on the development of the discipline the influence of Marxism during the 1970s and the progression from a process of specialization after the fall of the Berlin Wall to a new trend of working in collective projects with an increasing interdisciplinary perspective in the first decades of the 21st century

Biennial Boom Paloma Checa-Gismero, 2024-07-05 In Biennial Boom Paloma Checa Gismero traces an archeology of contemporary art biennials to uncover the processes that prompted these exhibitions to become the global art world s defining events at the end of the twentieth century Returning to the early post Cold War years Checa Gismero examines the early iterations of three well known biennials at the borders of North Atlantic liberalism the Bienal de La Habana inSITE and Manifesta She draws on archival and oral history fieldwork in Cuba Mexico the US Mexico borderlands and the Netherlands showing how these biennials reflected a post Cold War optimism for a pacified world by which artistic and knowledge production would help mend social political and cultural divisions Checa Gismero argues that in reflecting this optimism biennials facilitated the conversion of subaltern aesthetic genealogies into forms that were legible to a nascent cosmopolitan global elite all under the pretense of cultural exchange By outlining how early biennials set the basis for what is now recognized as global contemporary art Checa Gismero intervenes in previous accounts of the contemporary art world in order to better understand how it became the exclusionary rarified institution of today Mexico Carl Christian wilhelm Sartorius,1859 Archaic Culture Horizons in the Valley of Mexico Alfred Louis Kroeber,Claude Russell Moss,Pliny Earle Goddard,1920 Mornings in Mexico D.H.
