Many Sisters Women In Cross Cultural Perspective:

Many Sisters Carolyn J. Matthiasson, 1974 Women of Power Torild Skard, 2015-03-09 At a time when a woman Angela Merkel is arguably the most powerful leader in Europe and another Hilary Clinton continues to be at the center of the US political stage it seems that women have broken through the glass ceiling and begun to populate the highest offices of the political world Women of Power is a testament to that accomplishment offering the most comprehensive overview of female presidents and prime ministers to date Looking at over fifty countries and over seventy women leaders since 1960 Torild Skard herself an experienced politician examines how and why these women rose to the top and what their leadership has meant for women's empowerment throughout the latter half of the twentieth century Skard examines the achievements and life stories of the world's female leaders up to the current era She offers nuanced portraits that draw on a number of materials including many interviews that she conducted herself All of the women discussed are organized by both chronology and geography and Skard includes a number of helpful chapters that provide an overview and assessment of how different women leaders have come to power in different regions Overall the book provides a fascinating account of women's empowerment as it has manifested itself at the very top of the political hierarchy To Have and to Hit Dorothy Ayers Counts, Judith K. Brown, Jacquelyn Campbell, 1999 This vitally important volume places the problem of wife beating in a broad cultural context in a search for strategies to reform societies including our own that are prone to this pernicious form of violence Based on first hand ethnographic data on more than a dozen societies including a number in Oceania this collection explores the social and cultural factors that work either to inhibit or to promote domestic violence against women The volume also includes a study of abuse among nonhuman primates and a cross cultural analysis of the legal aspects of wife beating By presenting counterexamples from other cultures contributors challenge Western assumptions about the factors leading to wife beating Through a close examination of societies where wife beating is infrequent or absent To Have and To Hit identifies the factors economic social political and cultural that must be explored and transformed in order to combat this violence and eventually eliminate it Asia: Case Studies in the Social Sciences - A Guide for Teaching Myron L. Cohen, 2016-09-16 The material in this study is covered by Myron L Cohen on religion and family organization in China John R Bowen on family kinship and Islam in Indonesia Robert W Hefner on hierarchy and stratification in Java and Nancy Rosenberger on gender roles in Japan Further material is provided by William W Kelly on rural society in Japan Theodore C Bestor on urban life in Japan Stephen R Smith on the family in Japan Doranne Jacobson on gender relations in India Lawrence A Babb on religion in India Owen M Lynch on stratification inequality and the caste system in India Laurell Kendall on changing gender relations in Korea Andrew G Walder on comparative revolution in China and Vietnam Maoism and the sociology of work in China and Japan Moni Nag on the comparative demography of China Japan and India and Helen Hardacre on the new religions of Japan Other contributors offering information through case studies are Hiroshi Ishida on

Bibliography on East Asian Religion and Philosophy, 2001 This comprehensive research bibliography compiles annotates indexes and cross references resources in the principal Western languages which focus on China Japan and Korea in the areas of philosophy and religious studies supporting resources in theology history culture and related social sciences A notable additional feature is the inclusion of extensive Internet based resources such as a wide variety of web sites discussion lists electronic texts virtual libraries online journals and related material Trials of Labour Brian E. Burtch, 1994 Brian Burtch looks at contemporary midwifery practice in Canada and the role of the state in shaping and defining that practice He examines the qualifications of midwives and discusses their legal status the legacy of competition between nurses and midwives and the impact of legal actions concerning midwifery practice He emphasizes the pivotal role of the state in supporting midwifery and discusses the difficulties created by increasing interest in midwifery among expectant women and the social forces that inhibit the establishment of a self governing midwifery profession Family Beyond Family James P Ito-Adler, Parker Shipton, 2024-12 Arguably all humans invent or accept forms of family beyond those that are close biological kin These fictive forms of kinship may vary across diverse cultures and serve different purposes This book explores a wide variety of such kinship forming from expedient daylong pseudo marriages to notions of deities as everlasting parents for humankind and life on earth These range from the purely abstract to the bricks and mortar of college fraternities and sororities Family Beyond Family observes and examines the principles and purposes of such fabricated connections

Unrelated Kin Gwendolyn Etter-Lewis, Michele Foster, 2021-12-16 This groundbreaking book presents conceptual theoretical and applied research on women s life histories The authors fulfill two needs they provide a collection of essays that grapple with controversial issues in the study of life history and they present many narratives from women of color the majority collected and interpreted by women of color The individual chapters offer a variety of voices linked by a philosophical and political orientation that places women of color at the center of scholarly inquiry rather than at the periphery Ultimately readers find in this text innovative ways of reconceptualizing the complexities of women s lives

Nuvisavik Maria Von Finkenstein, 2002-02-07 In 1970 a small group of young Inuit women in Pangnirtung on Baffin Island began to tell a story a story about their past their culture their lives a story told through woven pictures The first book dedicated to the art form of tapestry weaving Nuvisavik shows how weaving became a bridge between nomadic camp life and life in a permanent settlement The tapestries meticulously woven by women trained by their mothers as seamstresses portray images wistfully remembered by elders in the community and captured by local artists Both the drawings and the tapestries convey the pride of the Inuit in their culture The tapestries are presented against a rich cultural and historical context Two of the essays in the book are based on interviews with elders and reflect the colourful history of the Cumberland Sound where sustained contact between Inuit and Americans and Scots began as early as the mid nineteenth century The cultural content of the tapestries is discussed by members of the Inuit community decoding otherwise enigmatic and puzzling images A wonderful blend of art history and cultural history Nuvisavik will entertain the scholar and art collector as well as readers with a special interest in the history of the Canadian North Contributors include July Papatsie a well established artist from Pangnirtung who brings his personal background and knowledge of his culture to his writing Deborah Hickman a tapestry weaver herself who was general manager and artistic advisor to the Pangnirtung Tapestry Studio from 1980 to 1983 Cathleen Knotsch a researcher who specializes in issues pertaining to the Canadian Eastern Arctic and Maria von Finckenstein

The Allegany Senecas and Kinzua Dam Joy A. Bilharz, 2002-01-01 In the late 1950s the U S Army Corps of Engineers announced its intention to construct a dam along the Allegheny River in Warren Pennsylvania The building of the Kinzua Dam was highly controversial because it flooded one third of the Allegany Reservation of the Seneca Nation of Indians Nearly six hundred Senecas were forced to abandon their homes and relocate despite a 1794 treaty that had guaranteed them those lands in perpetuity In this revealing study Joy A Bilharz examines the short and long term consequences of the relocation of the Senecas Granted unparalleled access to members of the Seneca Nation and reservation records Bilharz traces the psychological economic cultural and social effects over two generations The loss of homes and tribal lands was heart wrenching and initially threatened to undermine the foundations of social life and subsistence economy for the Senecas Over time however many Senecas have managed to adapt successfully to relocation creating new social networks invigorating their educational system and becoming more politically involved on local tribal and national levels

Womens' Roles and Population Trends in the Third World Richard Anker, Marya Buvinic, Nadia H. Youssef, 2012-07-26 First published in 1982 this collection was the result of an ambitious and wide ranging inter disciplinary research programme conducted by the International Labour Office ILO on the relationship between women s roles and demographic change with a view to influencing contemporary government and non government policy and future research in the field The ILO held an informal gathering of leading researchers in the fields of economics anthropology sociology and demography and this volume represents a unique and practically orientated collection offering valuable insights into contemporary perspectives on women s studies and population dynamics

Equal Circles Peggy Caton, 1987

Gender, Class and Education (Routledge Revivals) Stephen Walker, Len Barton, 2013-11-05 First published in 1983 Gender Class and Education is a collection of papers that formed presentations at the Westhill Sociology of Education Conference in January 1982 and is the fifth such collection to emerge from the annual conference. The conference theme Race Class and Gender was not only chosen because of its topicality but also to provide a framework for debate between educational researchers and teachers. The papers focus on the reproduction of gender relations through education and provide important insights into how this process works, how it is resisted in schools and colleges, and the possibilities for radical intervention. This volume includes three teaching bibliographies on gender and education which were not presented at the conference but were compiled specially for the book.

The Digitizing Family Geoffrey Hobbis, 2020-02-07. At once a digital ethnography of smartphones and a classically conceived village based ethnography, this book relocates the study of digital technologies to rural Melanesia with a focus on the Lau of Malaita, Solomon Islands. In this technography, Geoffrey Hobbis studies the materiality and functional attributes of smartphones and their object biographies, modes of acquisition, maintenance, uses, limitations, and the problems specific to this region in adopting and adapting smartphones in everyday life. As he examines the various uses of smartphones as both telephone and multimedia device, Hobbis also explores the social and cultural transformations, the hopes and uncertainties with which they are associated. Ultimately, in bringing together a study of digital technologies with classical anthropological theory, The Digitizing Family develops a theory of smartphones as kinship technologies and supercompositional objects.
