legal thinking and practice Manifestations of Mana Paul van der Grijp, 2014 This book explores the role of mana in past and present configurations of chiefly power in the Pacific Chiefs are often seen as transitional figures between traditional tribal or feudal and modern forms of leadership the latter characterized by rationality and the nation state with its accompanying bureaucracy Today the political arena in the Pacific although occupied by presidents members of parliament and court justices is still ruled by chiefs supporting their authority by tradition including the notion of mana Mana may be defined as divine inspiration or energy that manifests itself in persons objects places and natural phenomena Polynesian chiefs have mana because of their descent from ancient gods Other key concepts such as asymmetrical ideology mythical constructions of social reality and social drama are elaborated and applied to a wide specter of ethnographic examples The configuration and reconfiguration of Tongan chieftaincy and kingship in this book are analyzed as an extended case study of the gradual and sometimes shock like integration of a Polynesian culture into a global structure a nation state partly imposed from the outside missionarization colonization but also generated from within including state formation and the recent quest for democracy Together with other Polynesian examples this forms a relevant illustration of both continuity and change in the configuration of mana and chieftaincy in processes of globalization in the Pacific The First Migration Atholl Anderson, 2016-05-12 Thousands of years ago migrants from South China began the journey that took their descendants through the Pacific to the southernmost islands of Polynesia Atholl Anderson's ground breaking synthesis of research and tradition charts this epic journey of New Zealand's first human inhabitants Taken from the multi award winning Tangata Whenua An Illustrated History this Text weaves together evidence from numerous sources oral traditions archaeology genetics linguistics ethnography historical observations palaeoecology climate change and more The result is to people the ancient past to offer readers a sense of the lives of Māori ancestors as they voyaged through centuries toward the South Pacific Whatiwhatihoe David McCan, 2001 Whatiwhatihoe investigates a complex bundle of issues often referred to simply as a tribal resource claim but that really concern factors spanning the total social political and economic spectrum Whatiwhatihoe tracks the origins and history of the Waikato raupatu claim focusing particularly on the ways the claim has been handled Navigating the Stars Witi Ihimaera, 2020-10-20 From master storyteller Witi Ihimaera a spellbinding and provocative retelling of traditional Maori myths for the twenty first century In this milestone volume Ihimaera traces the history of the Maori people through their creation myths He follows Tawhaki up the vines into the firmament Hine titama down into the land of the dead Maui to the ends of the earth and the giants and turehu who sailed across the ocean to our shores From Hawaiki to Aotearoa the ancient navigators brought their myths while looking to the stars bright with gods ancestors and stories to guide the way Step through the gateway now to stories that are as relevant today as they ever were Instituting Worlds Catharina Gabrielsson, Marko Jobst, 2024-12-30 Islands have a long history of appealing to the architectural imagination and have served as sites for architectural expressions of cultural specificity cultural conquest and cultural hybridisation over millennia From offshore financial centres to immigrant detention camps tourist havens to military bases the architectures of islands concretise the forces at play in our contemporary crisis ridden societies Collecting writings by a wide range of established scholars together with exciting new voices in architecture and affiliated disciplines this book shows the pertinence islands hold for critical spatial thinking and practice today Covering war and colonialism detention and tourism the topics raised in this book range from issues of urban development to close readings of buildings whether ruined designed projected preserved or absent Combing case studies critical historiography and pieces of experimental writing the chapters disclose the variety of ways in which architecture can be used as a lens for analysing disclosing and untangling island specificity This volume offers a very timely vibrant and methodologically varied approach to the subject of architecture and islands Its global reach innovative outlook and rich material will be of interest to scholars and students in architecture landscape architecture geography and urban design and planning alongside arts and literary studies

Global Indigenous Horror Naomi Simone Borwein, 2025-04-15 Contributions by Katrin Althans Jayson Althofer Naomi Simone Borwein Persephone Braham Krista Collier Jarvis Shane Hawk Jade Jenkinson June Scudeler and Sabrina Zacharias Global Indigenous Horror is a collection of essays that positions Indigenous Horror as more than just a genre but as a narrative space where the spectral and social converge where the uncanny becomes a critique and the monstrous mirrors the human While contentions swirl around the genre category this exploratory anthology is the first critical edited collection dedicated solely to ways of theorizing and analyzing Indigenous Horror literature The essays curated by scholar Naomi Simone Borwein ask readers to consider what Global Indigenous Horror is and to whom The volume opens with a preface by international bestselling horror writer Shane Hawk enrolled Cheyenne Arapaho Hidatsa and Potawatomi descent followed by an overview of Global Indigenous Horror trends aesthetics and approaches The carefully selected contributions explore Indigenous Horror literature and mixed media narratives worldwide unraveling the intricate dynamics between the local and global traditional and contemporary and human and monstrous Contributor chapters are grouped not by geographical or cultural variation but along a spectrum from a strong emphasis on ways of knowing to a critical inspection of Horror through Indigenous Gothic aesthetics across cultural boundaries and against and beyond nation states
