Mapping Lives Peter France, William St. Clair, 2002 These essays on the problems and functions of biography particularly those of writers thinkers and artists investigate a subject of enduring importance for those interested in culture Mapping Lives Peter France, William St Clair, 2004-09-23 These essays on the problems and functions of biography particularly those of writers thinkers and artists investigate a subject of enduring importance for those interested in culture Livingstone's 'lives' Justin Livingstone, 2014-11-01 David Livingstone the missionary explorer has attracted more commentary than nearly any other Victorian hero Beginning in the years following his death he soon became the subject of a major biographical tradition Yet out of this extensive discourse no unified image of Livingstone emerges Rather he has been represented in diverse ways and in a variety of socio political contexts Until now no one has explored Livingstone s posthumous reputation in full This book meets the challenge In approaching Livingstone s complex legacy it adopts a metabiographical perspective in other words this book is a biography of biographies Rather than trying to uncover the true nature of the subject metabiography is concerned with the malleability of biographical representation It does not aim to uncover Livingstone s real identity but instead asks what has he been made to mean Crossing disciplinary boundaries Livingstone s lives will interest scholars of imperial history postcolonialism life writing travel writing and Victorian studies Fifty Key British Films

Sarah Barrow, John White, 2012-08-06 In Fifty Key British Films Britain s best known films such as Clockwork Orange The Full Monty and Goldfinger are scrutinised for their outstanding ability to articulate the issues of the time This is essential reading for anyone interested in quality cult film Too Far for Comfort Rana Tekcan, 2014-08-01

The dynamic between the biographer and the subject is perhaps one of the most fascinating aspects of biography as a genre How does the biographer stage the illusion that is the narrative life the illusion that the subject assumes a living form through words In contrast to purely fictional forms biography writing does not allow total freedom to the biographer in this creative act Ideally a biography s backbone is structured by accurate historical facts But its spirit lies elsewhere The way a biographer captures the spirit of a subject is intriguingly shaped by the historical distance between the two We find three types of distance in biographical narrative First where the biographer and the subject personally know one another second where the biographer is a near contemporary of the subject and third where biographer and subject are distinctly separated in some cases by hundreds of years In this revised and expanded edition Rana Tekcan explores how some of the most accomplished biographers manage to recreate life across time and space She looks at their illusionary art through the narrative strategies in Samuel Johnson s Life of Savage James Boswell s Life of Johnson Lytton Strachey s Eminent Victorians Michael Holroyd s

Lytton Strachey Park Honan s Jane Austen and Andrew Motion s Keats Writing Lives in China, 1600-2010 Marjorie Dryburgh, Sarah Dauncey, 2013-10-31 This innovative collection explores the life stories of Chinese women and men between the seventeenth and twenty first centuries It draws on both biographical and autobiographical narratives and on perspectives taken from life writing theory to ask how lives were lived and written within and against the rules of the auto biographical game Biography and History in Film Thomas S. Freeman, David L. Smith, 2019-10-14 The essays in this volume seek to analyze biographical films as representations of historical individuals and the times in which they lived To do this contributors examine the context in which certain biographical films were made including the state of knowledge about their subjects at that moment and what these films reveal about the values and purposes of those who created them This is an original approach to biographical as opposed to historical films and one that has so far played little part in the growing literature on historical films The films discussed here date from the 1920s to the 2010s and deal with males and females in periods ranging from the Middle Ages to the end of the twentieth century In the process the book discusses how biographical films reflect changing attitudes towards issues such as race gender and sexuality and examines the influence of these films on popular perceptions of the past The introduction analyses the nature of biographical films as a genre it compares and contrasts the nature of biography on film with written biographies and considers their relationship with the discipline of history As the first collection of essays on this popular but understudied genre this book will be of interest to historians as well as those in film and cultural studies The Interpretation of Samuel Johnson J. Clark, H. Erskine-Hill, 2012-06-12 A major academic controversy has raged in recent years over the analysis of the political and religious commitments of Samuel Johnson the most commanding of the commanding heights of eighteenth century English letters This book one of a trilogy from Palgrave brings that debate to a decisive conclusion retrieving the historic Johnson L'épuisement du biographique? Vincent Broqua, Guillaume Marche, 2010-10-12 Pourquoi penser le biographique N est il pas puis Le si cle pass semble l avoir vid de son contenu et de sa substance et l a r duit un tat d affaiblissement presque complet dans le domaine des sciences sociales comme dans celui de la critique litt raire L enjeu de cet ouvrage est d affirmer que le biographique d borde la biographie et de consid rer le biographique comme une condition du retour de la biographie au moyen de son d passément Cet ouvrage rassemble des travaux abondant The Oxford History of Life Writing: Volume 2. Early Modern Alan Stewart, 2018-05-10 The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 2 Early Modern explores life writing in England between 1500 and 1700 and argues that this was a period which saw remarkable innovations in biography autobiography and diary keeping that laid the foundations for our modern life writing The challenges wrought by the upheavals and the sixteenth century English Reformation and seventeenth century Civil Wars moulded British and early American life writing in unique and lasting ways While classical and medieval models continued to exercise considerable influence new forms began to challenge them The English Reformation banished the saints lives that dominated the writings of medieval Catholicism only to replace them with new lives of Protestant martyrs Novel forms of self accounting came into existence from the daily moral self accounting dictated by strands of Calvinism to the daily financial self accounting modelled on the new double entry book keeping This volume shows how the most ostensibly private journals were circulated to build godly communities how women found new modes of recording and understanding their disrupted lives how men started to compartmentalize their lives for public and private consumption The volume doesn't intend to present a strict chronological progression from the medieval to the modern nor to suggest the triumphant rise of the fact based historical biography Instead it portrays early modern England as a site of multiple sometimes conflicting possibilities for life writing all of which have something to teach us about how the period understood both the concept of a life and what it mean to write a life Writing an Icon Anita

Jarczok,2017-02-15 Ana's Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin's guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin's celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin's celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin's writing identity public image and consumer culture Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Helena Feder,2016-04-29

Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Biology and the Bildungsroman draws on work by Kinji Imanishi Frans de Waal and other biologists to create an interdisciplinary materialist notion of culture for ecocritical analysis In this timely intervention Feder examines the humanist idea of culture by taking a fresh look at the stories it explicitly tells about itself These stories fall into the genre of the Bildungsroman the tale of individual acculturation that participates in the myth of its complete separation from and opposition to nature which Feder argues is culture's own origin story Moving from Voltaire's Candide to Mary Shelley's Frankenstein and from Virginia Woolf's Orlando to Jamaica Kincaid's Lucy the book dramatizes humanism's own awareness of the fallacy of this foundational binary In the final chapters Feder examines the discourse of animality at work in this narrative as a humanist fantasy about empathy one that paradoxically excludes other animals from the ethical community to justify the continued domination of both human and nonhuman others

Posthumous Lives Bette London,2022-04-15 Posthumous Lives explores the shifting significance of public and private efforts to commemorate British soldiers killed in World War I as well as the less well remembered casualties of the war including Voluntary Aid Detachments nurses conscientious objectors civilians and soldiers executed for desertion or cowardice and the compelling hold the First World War has had on the British imagination for more than a century By using the concept of the posthumous life the attempt to extend the presence of the dead into the lives of the living Bette London demonstrates how this idea came to shape Britain's First World War memory practices and rituals London draws on a diverse range of source materials from sentimental memorabilia books commissioned by bereaved families and canonical works of literature and art by Virginia Woolf Wilfred Owen and Sir Edwin Lutyens to centenary memorials and commemorative art installations to uncover the surprising connections between memorialization practices war writing and modernism Spanning the century from the middle of World War I to its centenary celebrations Posthumous Lives illuminates in a deeply moving narrative how the dead are remembered to meet the shifting needs of the living The Oxford Handbook of Political Leadership R. A. W. Rhodes, Paul 't Hart, 2014 Political leadership has returned to the forefront of research in political science in recent years after several years of neglect This Handbook provides a broad ranging and cohesive examination of the study of political leadership Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen, Timothy Mathews, Dragana Obradovic, 2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person's identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another Biographical Television Drama Hannah Andrews, 2021-04-13 Biographical Television Drama breaks new ground as to my knowledge the first book length exploration of the terms in which television engages in biographical storytelling Backed by robust research in biography studies and British television history Hannah Andrews deftly unravels the complexities behind the accessibility of biographical television drama Her book tackles key questions head on notably rhetorics and style narrative and performance and innovatively ethics while also shedding light on the interconnections with other biographical screen forms through a rich corpus This is an essential critical study that vindicates television drama's unique place in the histories and practices of screen biography Bel'n Vidal Senior Lecturer in Film Studies at King's College London and co editor of The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture This book explores what happens when biography and television meet in a novel fusion of the two fields of study Andrews compares core concepts in biography and television studies such as intimacy the presentation of the self and the uneasy relationship between fact and fiction The book examines biographical drama's generic hybridity accounting for the influence of the film biopic docudrama melodrama and period drama It discusses biographical television drama s representation of real lives in terms of visual style performance and self reflexivity Andrews also assesses how life stories are shaped for televisual narrative formats and analyses the adaptation process for the biographical drama Finally the book considers various kinds of reputation of the broadcast institution author biographical subject in relation to the ethics of televisual biography Jesus Research James H. Charlesworth, Brian Rhea, Petr Pokorny, 2014-01-23 This volume explores nearly every facet of Jesus research from eyewitness criteria to the reliability of memory from archaeology to psychobiography from oral traditions to literary sources and from narrative criticism to Gospel criticism Bringing together a wide variety of topics and perspectives in one volume this ambitious collaborative enterprise casts light on important debates and encourages creative links between ideas new and old This distinguished collection of articles by internationally renowned Jewish and Christian scholars originates with the Princeton Prague Symposium on Jesus Research It summarizes the significant advances in understanding Jesus that scholars have made in recent years chiefly through the development of diverse methodologies Even readers who are already knowledgeable in the field will discover unique angles from well known New Testament scholars and all will be brought up to speed on the current state of play within Jesus studies Women's Writing, 1660-1830 Jennie Batchelor, Gillian Dow, 2016-12-19 This book is about mapping the future of eighteenth century women s writing and feminist literary history in an academic culture that is not shy of declaring their obsolescence It asks what can or should unite us as scholars devoted to the recovery and study of women s literary history in an era of big data on the one hand and ever more narrowly defined specialization on the other Leading scholars from the UK and US answer this question in thought provoking cross disciplinary and often polemical essays Contributors attend to the achievements of eighteenth century women writers and the scholars who have devoted their lives to them and map new directions for the advancement of research in the area They collectively argue that eighteenth century women s literary history has a future and that feminism was and always should be at its heart Featuring a Preface by Isobel Grundy and a Postscript by Cora Kaplan Aproximació a l'altre / An approach to the other Enric Balaguer, Maria Jesús Francés, Vicent Vidal, 2015-12-15 The different contributions included in this volume deal with aspects of biographical writing and other similar genres semblances portraits etc These articles analyze theoretical and generic questions as well as some of the most relevant examples of the genre with a focus on those written in Catalan In addition some of the articles focus on the relationship between biography and national images nation building from a sociocultural standpoint The Research Group on Contemporary Literature from the Universitat d Alacant has gathered contributions from several specialists in numerous fields and has selected a group of relevant works for analysis In addition to studies on authors such as Andr Maurois and Lytton Strachey contributions deal with figures such as Josep Pla Dom nec Guans Josep Maria Espin s and Agust Pons Finally some contributions pay attention to the biographical genre in the audiovisual arts The volume contains contributions in Spanish English and Catalan
