The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2020-09-29 The Marble Faun Or The Romance of Monte Beni also known by the British title Transformation was the last of the four major romances by Nathaniel Hawthorne and was published in 1860 The Marble Faun written on the eve of the American Civil War is set in a fantastical Italy The romance mixes elements of a fable pastoral gothic novel and travel guide This romance focuses on four main characters Miriam Hilda Kenyon and Donatello Miriam is a beautiful painter with an unknown past Throughout the novel she is compared to many other women including Eve Beatrice Cenci Judith and Cleopatra Miriam is pursued by a mysterious threatening man who is her evil genius through life Hilda is an innocent copyist She is compared to the Virgin Mary and the white dove Her simple unbendable moral principles can make her severe in spite of her tender heart Miriam and Hilda are often contrasted Kenyon is a sculptor who represents rationalist humanism He cherishes a romantic affection towards Hilda Donatello the Count of Monte Beni is often compared to Adam and is in love with Miriam Donatello amazingly resembles the marble Faun of Praxiteles and the novel plays with the characters belief that the Count may be a descendant of the antique Faun Hawthorne however withholds a definite statement even in the novel s concluding chapters and postscript      The Marble Faun, Or, the Romance of Monte Beni Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1888 edition Excerpt CHAPTER XXV SUNSHINE JOME said the Count I see you already find the old house dismal So do I indeed And yet it was a cheerful place in my boyhood But you see in my father s days and the same was true of all my endless line of grandfathers as I have heard there used to be uncles aunts and all manner of kindred dwelling together as one family They were a merry and kindly race of people for the most part and kept one another s hearts warm Two hearts might be enough for warmth observed the sculptor even in so large a house as this One solitary heart it is true may be apt to shiver a little But

I trust my friend that the genial blood of your race still flows in many veins besides your own I am the last said Donatello gloomily They have all vanished from me since my childhood Old Tomaso will tell you that the air of Monte Beni is not so favorable to length of days as it used to be But that is not the secret of the quick extinction of my kindred Then you are aware of a more satisfactory reason suggested Kenyon I thought of one the other night while I was gazing at the stars answered Donatello but pardon me I do not mean to tell it One cause however of the longer and healthier life of my forefathers was that they had many pleasant customs and means of making themselves glad and their guests and friends along with them Nowadays we have but one And what is that asked the sculptor You shall see said his young host By this time he had ushered the sculptor into one of the numberless saloons and calling for refreshment old Stella placed a cold fowl upon the table and quickly followed it with a savory omelet which Girolamo had lost no time in preparing She also     The Marble Faun

Nathaniel Hawthorne,1900     The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,1926 The Marble Faun was sketched in Italy and prepared for publication mainly in Redcar England in 1859 60 The Castle of Monte Beni the ancestral home of Donatello the human faun stands for Villa Montanto where the author made his home for a time in the summer of 1858 and the original of Hilda s tower is described in the French and Italian Note Books May 15 1858 This romance which is generally held to be somewhat inferior to the novels of American life though in an entirely different setting does not differ greatly from them or from some of the best short stories in the nature of its topic and the handling of its characters Like them it has for its theme a subject of conscience the influence of the consciousness of sin and its penalty in elevating the life of a soul Donatello s resemblance to the sculptured faun is typical of his spirit unawakened and looking neither before nor after until his crime puts an end forever to his joyous holiday existence and remorse for it develops his intellect and his soul Kenyon is a good type of a cultivated American quietly enthusiastic tolerant and not cynical loving art and not despising America Hilda is remarkable for the great moral strength united with her delicacy and sensibility Her suffering on account of the crime of which she has been merely a witness is strongly contrasted with the attitude of Miriam whose conscience needs to be brought to a full awakening even after participation in it her free and strong nature having been bewildered in a maze of wrong the one escape from which has offered itself in sudden temptation     The Marble Faun; Or, The Romance of Monte Beni Part 3 Nathaniel Hawthorne,2025-02-07 Donatello retreats to a secluded tower in the Apennine Mountains grappling with his fate and the legends of his noble lineage As he explores the ancestry of Monte Beni he realizes that his bloodline carries something beyond mere humanity Seeking answers in myths and superstition he becomes increasingly consumed by his internal conflict Meanwhile Miriam and Kenyon attempt to understand him in their own ways but Donatello s transformation is too drastic to bridge the gap In his isolation he comes to terms with the irreversible consequences of his past choices The eerie atmosphere of the tower mirrors his psychological turmoil heightening the tension of the narrative The surrounding nature and ancient ruins reflect his inner struggles adding layers of depth to his journey Ultimately

Donatello must face the moment when he can no longer remain in hiding and must return to the world      The Marble Faun; Or, the Romance of Monte Beni Nathaniel NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE,2020-04-26 THE MARBLE FAUN OR THE ROMANCE OF MONTE BENI COMPLETE      The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,2023-12-04 The Marble Faun or The romance of Monte Beni Volume II is an unchanged high quality reprint of the original edition of 1860 Hansebooks is editor of the literature on different topic areas such as research and science travel and expeditions cooking and nutrition medicine and other genres As a publisher we focus on the preservation of historical literature Many works of historical writers and scientists are available today as antiques only Hansebooks newly publishes these books and contributes to the preservation of literature which has become rare and historical knowledge for the future      The marble faun; or, The romance of Monte Beni ,1900      The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,1874      The Marble Faun; Or, The Romance of Monte Beni Nathaniel Hawthorne,2022-11-23 Reproduction of the original      The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,1980 Murder and romance innocence and experience dominate this sinister novel set in mid 19th century Rome Three young American artists and their friend an Italian count find their lives irrevocably linked when one of them commits a violent crime of passion Hawthorne s final novel is must reading for its symbolic narrative of the Fall of Man
