The Marble Faun Or The Romance of Monte Beni also known by the British title Transformation was the last of the four major romances by Nathaniel Hawthorne and was published in 1860 The Marble Faun written on the eve of the American Civil War is set in a fantastical Italy The romance mixes elements of a fable pastoral gothic novel and travel guide After writing The Blithedale Romance in 1852 Hawthorne who was then approaching fifty was granted a political appointment as American Consul in Liverpool England which he held from 1853 to 1857 In 1858 Hawthorne and his wife Sophia Peabody moved the family to Italy and became tourists for a year and a half In early 1858 Hawthorne was inspired to write his romance when he saw the Faun of Praxiteles in the Palazzo Nuovo of the Capitoline Museum in Rome Hawthorne began the manuscript and intended to complete it at home The Wayside in Concord Massachusetts Instead he returned to England where he would remain until July 1860 and entirely rewrote the book On October 10 1859 he wrote to his American publisher James Thomas Fields that his wife enjoyed what she had read thus far and speaks of it very rapturously If she liked the author less I should feel much encouraged by her liking the Romance so much I likewise to confess the truth admire it exceedingly at intervals but am liable to cold fits during which I think it the most infernal nonsense 2 Sophia wrote to her sister Elizabeth Peabody that her husband s reaction was typical As usual he thinks the book good for nothing He has regularly despised each one of his books immediately upon finishing it Hawthorne struggled with a title for his new book He considered several including Monte Beni or The Faun A Romance The Romance of a Faun Marble and Life a Romance Marble and Man a Romance and St Hilda s Shrine The book was published simultaneously in America and England in late 1860 the title for the British edition was Transformation Or the Romance of Monte Beni The alternate title was chosen by the publishers and was used against Hawthorne s wishes Both titles continue to be used today in the U K Encouraged to write a book long enough to fill three volumes Hawthorne included extended descriptions that critics found distracting or boring 6 Complaints about the ambiguous ending led Hawthorne to add a postscript to the second edition This romance focuses on four main characters Miriam Hilda Kenyon and Donatello Miriam is a beautiful painter with an unknown past Throughout the novel she is compared to many other women including Eve Beatrice Cenci Judith and Cleopatra Miriam is pursued by a mysterious threatening man who is her evil genius through life Hilda is an innocent copyist She is compared to the Virgin Mary and the white dove Her simple unbendable moral principles can make her severe in spite of her tender heart Miriam and Hilda are often contrasted Kenyon is a sculptor who represents rationalist humanism He cherishes a romantic affection towards Hilda Donatello the Count of Monte Beni is often compared to Adam and is in love with Miriam Donatello amazingly resembles the marble Faun of Praxiteles and the novel plays with the characters belief that the Count may be a descendant of the antique Faun Hawthorne however withholds a definite statement even in the novel s concluding chapters and postscript The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,2016-05-19 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,2019-06-09 This collection of literature attempts to compile many of the classic works that have stood the test of time and offer them at a reduced affordable price in an attractive volume so that everyone can enjoy them Marble Faun the Romance of Monte Beni Vo Nathaniel Hawthorne,2006-11 The Marble Faun states the story of three young American artists Miriam Hilda and Kenyon and their Italian friend Donatello The author narrates the influences of Roman culture on the youth during their stay in Rome Hawthorne has given detailed description of Rome s architecture its art galleries churches and its many other landmarks and shrines makes the novel enchanting Captivating The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,2015-02-18 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Marble Faun Nathaniel Hawthorne,1987 The Marble Faun Nathaniel

Hawthorne,1926 The Marble Faun was sketched in Italy and prepared for publication mainly in Redcar England in 1859 60 The Castle of Monte Beni the ancestral home of Donatello the human faun stands for Villa Montanto where the author made his home for a time in the summer of 1858 and the original of Hilda s tower is described in the French and Italian Note Books May 15 1858 This romance which is generally held to be somewhat inferior to the novels of American life though in an entirely different setting does not differ greatly from them or from some of the best short stories in the nature of its topic and the handling of its characters Like them it has for its theme a subject of conscience the influence of the consciousness of sin and its penalty in elevating the life of a soul Donatello s resemblance to the sculptured faun is typical of his spirit unawakened and looking neither before nor after until his crime puts an end forever to his joyous holiday existence and remorse for it develops his intellect and his soul Kenyon is a good type of a cultivated American quietly enthusiastic tolerant and not cynical loving art and not despising America Hilda is remarkable for the great moral strength united with her delicacy and sensibility Her suffering on account of the crime of which she has been merely a witness is strongly contrasted with the attitude of Miriam whose conscience needs to be brought to a full awakening even after participation in it her free and strong nature having been bewildered in a maze of wrong the one escape from which has offered itself in sudden temptation
