Marcel Duchamp Portable Museum:

Marcel Duchamp Marcel Duchamp, Ecke Bonk, 1989 Marcel Duchamp Ecke Bonk, 1989 This book documents the history of Duchamp's boxes: miniature museum, doll's house, stormy weather pack, catalogue of works and first aid kit, all rolled into one. With over 500 illustrations, each item is examined in detail, revealing the ingenious techniques and artistic strategies Duchamp brought to the making of the boxes and their individual components Marcel Duchamp - Museum in a Box Mathieu Mercier, 2015 Marcel Duchamp Rudolf E. Kuenzli, Francis M. Naumann, 1991 Artist of the Century These eleven illustrated essays explore the structure and meaning of Duchamp's work as part of an ongoing critical enterprise that has just begun The Portable Museums of Marcel Duchamp Marcel Duchamp, R. van de Velde, J. van de Velde, 1996 The Delirious Museum Calum Storrie, 2007-10-24 The Delirious Museum is a remarkable illuminating work which presents an original view of the idea of the museum in the twenty-first century, reimagining the possibilities for museums and their displays and re-examining the blurred boundaries between museums and the cities around them. On his quest for the Delirious Museum, Storrie takes a journey that begins in the Louvre and continues through Paris, London, Los Angeles, and Las Vegas. He encounters on his way the museum architecture of John Soane, Carlo Scarpa, and Daniel Libeskind; the exhibitions of El Lissitzky and of Frederick Kiesler; and the work of artists as varied as Marcel Duchamp, Andy Warhol, Marcel Broodthaers, Sophie Calle, and Mark Dion Unpacking Duchamp Dalia Judovitz, 1998-04-28 Transit: transitional transition Dalia Judovitz catches Marcel Duchamp on the run with his art in a suitcase and his thought all boxed and ready to go. She demonstrates how the theme of transition, reappearing from work to work, makes each piece reproduce some other piece while all continue to exemplify an original which can no longer be found and which has no creator. Jean-François Lyotard Marcel Duchamp (Second) (World of Art) Dawn Ades, Neil Cox, David Hopkins, 2021-04-13 A revised and expanded edition of one of the most original books ever written on the enigmatic artist Marcel Duchamp: Genius, anti-artist, charlatan, guru, impostor. Since he arrived on the scene in 1914, Marcel Duchamp has been called all of these. Almost no other artist of the twentieth century has inspired more passion and controversy nor exerted a greater influence on art. At the same time, Duchamp continually challenged the very nature of art and strove to redefine it as conceptual rather than as product by questioning why the medium was mostly a retinal experience. Always the provocateur, Duchamp never ceased to be engaged, openly or secretly, in activities and works that transformed traditional artmaking. Through his works like Fountain, Bicycle Wheel, L.H.O.O.Q., and Nude Descending a Staircase No. 2, Duchamp played with the idea of what art can be, opening new possibilities for future generations. This revised entry in the World of Art series, written by three leading experts on twentieth-century art and published with support of Duchamp's widow, is one of the most original books written on this enigmatic artist. Featuring a new chapter and preface as well as updates throughout from specialist scholars who are active in their fields, this is the definitive introduction to Duchamp. Thoroughly illustrated, this volume combines thirty years of research by the authors and challenges history's presumptions, misunderstandings and pieces of misinformation about Marcel Duchamp and his legacy

Reinventing the Museum Gail Anderson, 2004-03-09 This reader brings together 35 seminal articles that reflect the museum world's ongoing conversation with itself and the public about what it means to be a museum one that is relevant and responsive to its constituents and always examining and reexamining its operations, policies, collections and programs. In conjunction with the editor's introductory material and recommended additional readings, these articles will help students grasp the essentials of the dialogue and guide them on where to turn for further details and developments. Tous Les Étages Marcel Duchamp, 2015 aka Marcel Duchamp Anne Collins Goodyear, James W. McManus, 2014-12-30 aka Marcel Duchamp is an anthology of recent essays by leading scholars on Marcel Duchamp, arguably the most influential artist of the twentieth century. With scholarship addressing the full range of Duchamp's career, these papers examine how Duchamp's influence grew and impressed itself upon his contemporaries and subsequent generations of artists. Duchamp provides an illuminating model of the dynamics of play in construction of artistic identity and legacy, which includes both personal volition and contributions made by fellow artists, critics and historians. This volume is not only important for its contributions to Duchamp studies and the light it sheds on the larger impact of Duchamp's art and career on modern and contemporary art, but also for what it reveals about how the history of art itself is shaped over time by shifting agendas, evolving methodologies and new discoveries.

The Art of Mechanical Reproduction Tamara Trodd, 2015-09-25 The Art of Mechanical Reproduction presents a striking new approach to how traditional art mediums, painting, sculpture and drawing, changed in the twentieth century in response to photography, film and other technologies. Countering the modernist view that the medium provides advanced art with resistance against technological pressures, Tamara Trodd argues that we should view art and its practices as imaginatively responding to the potential that artists glimpsed in mechanical reproduction, putting art into dialogue with the commercial cultures of its time. The Art of Mechanical Reproduction weaves a rich history of the experimental networks in which artists as diverse as Paul Klee, Hans Bellmer, Ellsworth Kelly, Robert Rauschenberg, Gerhard Richter, Chris Marker and Tacita Dean have worked, and it shows for the first time how extensively technological innovations of the moment have affected their work. Original and broad-ranging, The Art of Mechanical Reproduction challenges some of the most respected and entrenched criticism of the past several decades and allows us to think about these artists anew.

Marcel Broodthaers Deborah Schultz, 2007 The poet and artist Marcel Broodthaers, 1924-76, is widely recognized as a key figure in 20th century art who questioned the nature of art, the role of the artist, the functioning of the museum and of the art market. This book sets out Broodthaers's strategy for artistic success and examines the dialogue into which he entered with his contemporaries and predecessors in 19th century French poetry, Pop and Conceptual Art, including Stéphane Mallarmé, Charles Baudelaire, Marcel Duchamp and René Magritte. It provides a broad overview of his objects, paintings, films, slides, books and installations, and his focus upon relationships, also central to Post-Structuralist and postmodern theories. The visual qualities of his works combining the material with the poetic his wit and irony are examined in relation to his subtle method of questioning and contradicting defying conventional systems and definitions The author explores the wider framing contexts in which things are presented and the geographical context via maps notions of the voyage and a sense of place Institutional critique the artist s political position and moral responsibilities in society are discussed by analyzing the responses of Broodthaers Daniel Buren Joseph Beuys and Hans Haacke to a series of museum events in the early 1970s
