The Impact of Art on French Literature Helen Osterman Borowitz, 1985 This book traces a direct line of tradition that unites the French précieux novel Romantic and Symbolist literature and Proust's novel cycle Proust on Art and Literature Marcel Proust, 1997-08-26 Beginning with the remarkable essay Contre Saint Beuve this surprising and stimulating critical collection presents Proust's views on the contemporary writing of his era on painting and painters and on such literary masters of the nineteenth century as Tolstoy Goethe and Stendhal Proust and the Arts Christie McDonald, François Proulx, 2015-11-05 Offers new perspectives on Proust's complex and creative relation to a variety of art forms from different eras Marcel Proust, 1964 Tolstoy's Art and Thought, 1847-1880 Donna Tussing Orwin, 2013-05-16 My aim is to present Tolstoy's work as he may have understood it himself writes Donna Orwin Reconstructing the intellectual and psychic struggles behind the masterpieces of his early and middle age this major study covers the period during which he wrote The Cossacks War and Peace and Anna Karenina Orwin uses the tools of biography intellectual and literary history and textual analysis to explain how Tolstoy's tormented search for moral certainty unfolded creating fundamental differences among the great novels of the pre crisis period Distinguished by its historical emphasis this book demonstrates that the great novelist who had once seen a fundamental harmony between human conscience and nature's vitality began eventually to believe in a dangerous rift between the two during the years discussed here Tolstoy moved gradually from a celebration of life to instruction about its moral dimensions Paying special attention to Tolstoy's reading of Rousseau Goethe Schopenhauer and the Russian thinker N N Strakhov Orwin also explores numerous other influences on his thought In so doing she shows how his philosophical and emotional conflicts changed form but continued unabated until with his religious conversion of 1880 he surrendered his long attempt to make sense of life through art alone Ekphrasis, Memory and Narrative after Proust Leonid Bilmes, 2022-12-15 This book explores the relationship between ekphrasis and memory in the novel Drawing on la recherche du temps perdu Leonid Bilmes considers how Vladimir Nabokov W G Sebald Ben Lerner Ali Smith and Lydia Davis have employed and reshaped Proust's way of depicting the recollected past In Ada Austerlitz 10 04 How to Be Both and The End of the Story memory images are variously transposed into intermedial descriptions that inform the narrator's story just as they serve to shape the reader's own remembrance of each of these narratives Ekphrasis in the novel after Proust Bilmes argues acts as a distinct site within the text where past and present self and other image and text seeing and hearing are ever on the brink of reconciliation The book surveys a wide field of critical inquiry encompassing classical theorizations of ekphrasis philosophical explorations of memory and visibility as well as seminal studies of image text relations by among others W J T Mitchell Jean Luc Nancy and Liliane Louvel Bilmes's compelling dialogue with theory and literature evinces the underexplored bond between ekphrasis and memory in the contemporary novel Proust for Beginners Steve Bachmann, 2016-05-01 Proust For Beginners is a compelling biography of

A History of European Literature Walter Cohen, 2017 Walter Cohen argues that the history of European literature and each of its standard periods can be illuminated by comparative consideration of the different literary languages within Europe and by the ties of European literature to world literature World literature is marked by recurrent systematic features outcomes of the way that language and literature are at once the products of major change and its agents Cohen tracks these features from ancient times to the present distinguishing five main overlapping stages Within that framework he shows that European literature's ongoing internal and external relationships are most visible at the level of form rather than of thematic statement or mimetic representation European literature emerges from world literature before the birth of Europe during antiquity whose Classical languages are the heirs to the complex heritage of Afro Eurasia This legacy is later transmitted by Latin to the various vernaculars The uniqueness of the process lies in the gradual displacement of the learned language by the vernacular long dominated by Romance literatures That development subsequently informs the second crucial differentiating dimension of European literature the multicontinental expansion of its languages and characteristic genres especially the novel beginning in the Renaissance This expansion ultimately results in the reintegration of European literature into world literature and thus in the creation of today's global literary system The distinctiveness of European literature is to be found in these interrelated trajectories
