Marcel Duchamp A Life In Pictures:

Marcel Duchamp Jennifer Gough-Cooper, 1999      The Literary Life of Pictures Michele Cometa, 2024-07-15 This book offers a theory of ekphrasis the literary description of an artwork from the perspective of Visual Culture studies A theory of ekphrasis must take into account not only the rhetorical strategies articulated in the description of artworks but also the complex interplay that holds together the pictures that are described the gazes that rest on them and the dispositives that mediate them It is therefore a matter of linking the study of the verbal rhetoric with the dynamics that are established between the author the reader and the visual artworks real or fictive as well as the performative aspects of description and the mediascapes that from time to time condition the gaze and the visual experience of the authors and the readers This book proposes thus to consider both the intradiegetic aspects of description and the extradiegetic ones that condition its verbal texture Following the rhetorics of ekphrasis throughout the Western tradition from its origins in Philostratus its reappraisal by Johann Joachim Winckelmann to the twentieth century avant garde this book shows how ekphrastic techniques are historically determined by the relationship between pictures gazes and dispositives      The Life and Death of Images

THE AMERICAN CENTURY Walter LaFeber, Richard Polenberg, and Nancy Woloch, 2013-07-22

Inventing Marcel Duchamp Janine A. Mileaf, Francis M. Naumann, Michael R. Taylor, 2009-04-10 An old genre is given a new look as portraits and self portraits of Marcel Duchamp invent and cover up as much as they reveal and portray One of the most influential artists of the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp 1887 1968 was a master of self invention who carefully regulated the image he projected through self portraiture and through his collaboration with those who portrayed him During his long career Duchamp recast accepted modes for assembling and describing identity indelibly altering the terrain of portraiture This groundbreaking book which accompanies a major exhibition at the Smithsonian Institution s National Portrait Gallery demonstrates the ways in which Duchamp willfully manipulated the techniques of portraiture both to secure his reputation as an iconoclast and to establish himself as a major figure in the art world Although scholars have explored Duchamp s use of aliases little attention has been paid to how this work played into and against existing portrait conventions Nor has any study yet compared these explicitly self constructed projects with the large body of portraits of Duchamp by others Inventing Marcel Duchamp showcases approximately one hundred never before assembled portraits and self portraits of Duchamp The broadly defined self portraits and self representations include the famous autobiographical suitcase Boîte en Valise and Self Portrait in Profile a torn silhouette that became very influential for future generations of artists The portraits by other artists include works by Duchamp's contemporaries Man Ray Alfred Stieglitz Francis Picabia Beatrice Wood and Florine Stettheimer as well as portraits by more recent generations of artists including Andy Warhol Jasper Johns Sturtevant Yasumasa Morimura David Hammons and Douglas Gordon Since the mid twentieth century as abstraction assumed a position of dominance in fine art portraiture has been often derided as an art form the images and essays in Inventing Marcel Duchamp counter this and invite us to rethink the role of portraiture in modern and contemporary art

The Window in Photographs Karen

Hellman, 2013-10-01 Photographers have been irresistibly drawn to the window as a powerful source of inspiration throughout the history of the medium As one of the first camera subjects the window is literally and figuratively linked to the photographic process itself By bringing together key works arranged thematically rather than chronologically and presenting pairings within broader stylistic movements this volume examines the motif of the window as a symbol of photographic vision The Window in Photographs includes more than eighty color plates spanning the history of photography all drawn from the J Paul Getty Museum's permanent collection The theme is presented in a wide range of contexts from one of the earliest images by William Henry Fox Talbot or Julia Margaret Cameron's 1864 allegorical use of the motif to works by members of the Photo Secession including Gertrude Kasebier and Fred Holland Day The documentary thread of the street photographer can be followed in Eugène Atget's record of the old quarters of Paris and later twentieth century photographs by William Eggleston Walker Evans and Lee Friedlander Alfred Stieglitz and Paul Strand chose to utilize the theme of the window for its more graphic possibilities More recently photographers Shizuka Yokomizo and Gregory Crewdson explored conceptual aspects of the window to investigate themes of voyeurism and invented narrative while Uta Barth and Yuki Onodera created more abstract visions
