Marcel Marois Marcel Marois,1994 Marcel Marois , Tapestry Weaving Joanne Soroka,2015-05-31 Tapestries were among the most prestigious of art forms created for the mightiest in the land and valued for centuries Despite its illustrious history tapestry weaving is actually a simple technique that requires little equipment or expenditure and can be done anywhere Written by a prominent tapestry weaver this lavishly illustrated book gently leads you through the whole process with detailed diagrams and exciting work by contemporary weavers It will be useful to the absolute beginner but experienced weavers will also find new ideas and techniques to tempt and inspire them The book includes a step by step guide to setting up a small frame loom and starting to weave basic and more advanced techniques and how to create shapes and textures advice on taking your work into the third dimension whether bas relief or fully sculptural information on the qualities of different materials and how they can be used to create the effects you want and design ideas for tapestry and how to follow supplied designs This will be an essential source book for experienced and novice weavers and is beautifully illustrated with 190 colour illustrations and diagrams Marcel Marois ,1999 Tapestry Weaving Nancy Harvey,2022-04-06 It s easy to learn tapestry weaving from start to finish with Nancy Harvey one of America s best known teachers of this exciting craft Using the same clear step by step approach that makes her workshops so successful Nancy leads you through building a simple frame loom to mastering the basic techniques to completing handsome pieces based on her designs She even provides tips on how to prepare designs of your own In this book you will find Beginning and intermediate samplers to help you learn the basics Hundreds of highlighted tips for weavers of all levels of experience Six practice designs for building skills Ideas inspiring your own designs even if you can t draw Over 380 illustrations and photographs With hundreds of diagrams tips and tapestry designs Tapestry Weaving A Comprehensive Study Guide is essential reading for tapestry artists and handweavers alike Common ground ,1998-01-01 Integration of designing and making are presented here as the common ground between contemporary craft architecture and the decorative arts This perspective offers a nuanced understanding of craft A photo essay documenting the integration of craft and architecture at the Fuji Pavilion in the Montreal Botanical Garden is also included Published in English In Good Hands Ellen Easton McLeod,1999-12-20 The Canadian Handicrafts Guild broadened the definition of art and the artist in Canada Linking decorative arts with home arts and handicrafts the Guild consistently showed them together at annual exhibitions at the art gallery in Montreal and formed a permanent collection documenting old and contemporary crafts The Guild women combined creativity and philanthropy voluntarism and an entrepreneurial spirit education and concern with quality in a movement that provided income and recognition to craftspeople and a craft legacy to Canada In Good Hands is alive with the interplay between art and social history and the issues this dialogue raised at the time and those we bring to it now constantly overlap It deals with noblesse oblige and the era s patronizing attitude to cultural difference but shows how the Guild consciously fostered an inclusive national feeling by exhibiting and selling crafts of all Canadians on an equal footing It also draws a much broader perspective of women's roles in shaping our culture than has been the norm in Canadian art history

Nuvisavik Maria Von Finkenstein, 2002-02-07 In 1970 a small group of young Inuit women in Pangnirtung on Baffin Island began to tell a story a story about their past their culture their lives a story told through woven pictures The first book dedicated to the art form of tapestry weaving Nuvisavik shows how weaving became a bridge between nomadic camp life and life in a permanent settlement The tapestries meticulously woven by women trained by their mothers as seamstresses portray images wistfully remembered by elders in the community and captured by local artists Both the drawings and the tapestries convey the pride of the Inuit in their culture The tapestries are presented against a rich cultural and historical context Two of the essays in the book are based on interviews with elders and reflect the colourful history of the Cumberland Sound where sustained contact between Inuit and Americans and Scots began as early as the mid nineteenth century The cultural content of the tapestries is discussed by members of the Inuit community decoding otherwise enigmatic and puzzling images A wonderful blend of art history and cultural history Nuvisavik will entertain the scholar and art collector as well as readers with a special interest in the history of the Canadian North Contributors include July Papatsie a well established artist from Pangnirtung who brings his personal background and knowledge of his culture to his writing Deborah Hickman a tapestry weaver herself who was general manager and artistic advisor to the Pangnirtung Tapestry Studio from 1980 to 1983 Cathleen Knotsch a researcher who specializes in issues pertaining to the Canadian Eastern Arctic and Maria von
