Marcel Proust A Biography 2 Vols:

Proust's Duchess Caroline Weber, 2019-11-26 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST A brilliant look at turn of the century Paris through the first in depth study of the three women Proust used to create his supreme fictional character the Duchesse de Guermantes Weber has done a remarkable job of bringing to life a world of culture glamour and privilege The Wall Street Journal Geneviève Halvy Bizet Straus Laure de Sade Comtesse de Adhème de Cheygné and Lisabeth de Riquet de Caraman Chimay the Comtesse Greffulhe these were the three superstars of fin de siècle Parisian high society who as Caroline Weber says transformed themselves and were transformed by those around them into living legends paragons of elegance nobility and style All well but unhappily married these women sought freedom and fulfillment by reinventing themselves between the 1870s and 1890s as icons At their fabled salons they inspired the creativity of several generations of writers visual artists composers designers and journalists Against a rich historical backdrop Weber takes the reader into these women's daily lives of masked balls hunts dinners court visits nights at the opera or theater But we see as well the loneliness rigid social rules and loveless arranged marriages that constricted these women's lives Proust as a twenty year old law student in 1892 would worship them from afar and later meet them and create his celebrated composite character for The Remembrance of Things Past

Marcel Proust George D. Painter, 1961 Biography: A Very Short Introduction Hermione Lee, 2009-07-09 Biographies are one of the most popular and best selling of the literary genres Why do people like them What does a biography do and how does it work This Very Short Introduction examines different types of biographies why certain people and historical events arouse so much interest and how they are compared with history and fiction A Reader's Guide to Proust's 'In Search of Lost Time' David Ellison, 2010-02-18 Proust's A la recherche du temps perdu In Search of Lost Time is many things at once a novel of education a portrait of French society during the Third Republic a masterful psychological analysis of love a reflection on homosexuality an essay in moral and aesthetic theory and above all one of the great literary achievements of the twentieth century This Reader's Guide analyses each volume of the Recherche in order and in detail Without jargon or technical language David Ellison leads the reader through the work clarifying but not oversimplifying the intricate beauty of Proust's imaginary universe Focused both on large themes and on narrative and stylistic particularities Ellison's readings expand our understanding and appreciation of the work and provide tools for the further study of Proust All French quotations are translated making this an ideal guide for students of comparative literature as well as of French other Baudelaire Proust Gide Conrad Woolf Kafka Sedaris Kevin Kopelson, 2007 When you're laughing aloud at David Sedaris's every sentence it's easy to miss the more serious side of what he's up to Fortunately Kevin Kopelson has come along to guide readers through the work of the best and most subversive social satirist in America Stephen McCauley author of The Object of My Affection Charting a course from Marcel Proust to Tony Danza Kevin artfully captures the exquisite pleasure and pain of reading David Sedaris A witty thoughtful intimate encounter David Hyde Pierce If I were to read a book on David Sedaris it might be this one Paul Reubens David Sedaris is nothing less than a literary phenomenon His readings and live performances sell out within hours while his books Barrel Fever Holidays on Ice Naked Me Talk Pretty One Day and Dress Your Family in Corduroy and Denim have each been best sellers Sedaris became an almost overnight sensation in 1992 when he recounted his surreal experiences working as a Macy's department store elf named Crumpet on NPR's Morning Edition The sardonic wit displayed in his SantaLand Diaries has since made him America's preeminent satirist brutally honest often painfully sad and above all truly hilarious In Sedaris Kevin Kopelson engages with the most difficult uncomfortable and often most humorous aspects of Sedaris's writing shame and public humiliation dysfunctional families and destructive relationships misanthropy and self loathing to reveal what makes Sedaris such an effective and affecting satirist and to show why so many readers and listeners identify with him For Kopelson the key to understanding Sedaris lies in recognizing the importance of relationships to his comedy Drawing extensively on both his nonfiction essays and short stories Kopelson maps out Sedaris's relationships in more or less chronological order grandparents parents siblings teachers friends coworkers strangers children and lovers and identifies the misunderstandings betrayals and cruelties that we all experience but which in Sedaris's voice are brilliantly and grotesquely magnified Written for everyone who loves David Sedaris and has wondered why they find him so relevant to their own lives Sedaris succeeds in taking seriously this sublimely caustic riotously funny and ultimately important writer And for anyone unfamiliar with Sedaris this book is the perfect introduction Kevin Kopelson is professor of English at the University of Iowa His previous books include Neatness Counts Essays on the Writer's Desk Minnesota 2004 Voices and Visions Kathleen McNerney, 1999-05 The volume gives an excellent overall view of Rodoreda's poetry in the original and in translation her short stories and novels A completely annotated cross indexed bibliography of the critical work on Rodoreda accompanied by an analysis of the current state of criticism on her work is included The Image in the Modern French Novel Stephen Ullmann, 1963 Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2002 This volume provides lively and clearly written expositions of those figures who have done most to shape our views in the period since 1914 Music cinema drama art fiction poetry and philosophy are just some of the fields covered Strange Gourmets Joseph Litvak, 1997 Though commonly thought of as a kind of worldliness at its best and an elitist snobbery at its worst sophistication Joseph Litvak reminds us remains tied to its earlier if forgotten meaning of perversion which encompassed homosexuality and intellectualism Litvak's strategy is to reveal culture as a contest of sophistications in which the winners are often those who best disguise their sophistication Science and Structure in Proust's A la Recherche Du Temps Perdu Nicola Luckhurst, 2000 Proust is read as a writer of maxims and metaphors of short and long sentences as at once an aesthete and a scientific thinker His A la recherche du temps perdu is a hybrid a novel essay an epistemological debate that crosses the boundaries between two cultures art and science Science and Structure explores the epistemological alertness and anxiety of Proust's masterpiece and in so doing illuminates the interrelations between modernist art and science The Dandy at Dusk Philip Mann, 2017-10-05 Philip Mann chronicles the relationship of dandyism and the emerging cultural landscape of modernity via portraits of Regency England's Beau Brummel the first dandy and six twentieth century figures Austrian architect Adolf Loos the Duke of Windsor neo Edwardian courtier Bunny Roger writer and raconteur Quentin Crisp French film producer Jean Pierre Melville and New German Cinema enfant terrible and inverted dandy Rainer Werner Fassbinder He blends memorable anecdotes with acute analysis to explore their style identity and influence and interweaves their stories with an entertaining history of tailoring and men's fashion The Dandy at Dusk contextualizes the relationship between dandyism decadence and modernism against the background of a century punctuated by global conflict and social upheaval Biography and the Question of Literature in France Ann Jefferson, 2007-01-04 This book takes a fresh look at the relations between literature and biography by tracing the history of their connections through three hundred years of French literature The starting point for this history is the eighteenth century when the term biography first entered the French language and when the word literature began to acquire its modern sense of writing marked by an aesthetic character Arguing that the idea of literature is inherently open to revision and contestation Ann Jefferson examines the way in which biographically orientated texts have been engaged in questioning and revising definitions of literature At the same time she tracks the evolving forms of biographical writing in French culture and proposes a reappraisal of biography in terms not only of its forms but also of its functions Although Ann Jefferson's book has powerful theoretical implications for both biography and the literary it is first and foremost a history offering a comprehensive new account of the development of French literature through this dual focus on the question of literature and on the relations between literature and biography It offers original readings of major authors and texts in the light of these concerns beginning with Rousseau and ending with life writing contemporary authors such as Pierre Michon and Jacques Roubaud Other authors discussed include Mme de St el Victor Hugo Sainte Beuve Barbey d Aureville Baudelaire Nerval Mallarm Schwob Proust Gide Leiris Sartre Genet Barthes and Roger Laporte Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books Alison Baverstock, Richard Bradford, Madelena Gonzalez, 2020-01-16 Contemporary Publishing and the Culture of Books is a comprehensive resource that builds bridges between the traditional focus and methodologies of literary studies and the actualities of modern and contemporary literature including the realities of professional writing the conventions and practicalities of the publishing world and its connections between literary publishing and other media Focusing on the relationship between modern literature and the publishing industry the volume enables students and academics to extend the text based framework of modules on contemporary writing into detailed expositions of the culture and industry which bring these texts into existence it brings economic considerations into line alongside creative issues and examines how employing marketing strategies are utilized to promote and sell books Sections cover The standard university course specifications of contemporary writing offering an extensive picture of the social economic and cultural contexts of these literary genres The impact and status of non literary writing and how this compares with certain literary genres as an index to contemporary culture and a reflection of the state of the publishing industry The practicalities and conventions of the publishing industry Contextual aspects of literary culture and the book industry visiting the broader spheres of publishing promotion bookselling and literary culture Carefully linked chapters allow readers to tie key elements of the publishing industry to the particular demands and features of contemporary literary genres and writing offering a detailed guide to the ways in which the three core areas of culture economics and pragmatics intersect in the world of publishing Further to being a valuable resource for those studying English or Creative Writing the volume is a key text for degrees in which Publishing is a component and is relevant to those aspects of Media Studies that look at interactions between the media and literature publishing
