Marcel Proust Harold Bloom, 2009 A guide to three novels by Marcel Proust containing selections of critical essays plot summaries for each work and a biography of Proust

Homer, Updated Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of eight critical essays on the works of Homer

Fullness of Dissonance Daniel C. Melnick, 1994 During the modern period the bond between music and literature constituted a crucial and influential idea for Conrad and Eliot Mann and Rilke and many other writers For modern novelists in particular this idea has provided the model and rationale for the experimental liberation of narrative form and its desired effect on the reader Critics later in the twentieth century have undertaken analyses of various contrapuntal sonata and other musical structures in fiction and some critics have studied the influence of various composers on novelists Fullness of Dissonance is concerned with the related matter of how the aesthetics of music influenced the writers and texts of modern fiction

Paul de Man Notebooks de Man Paul de Man, 2016-02-22 This anthology collects texts and papers from the Paul de Man archive including essays on art translations critical fragments research plans interviews and reports on the state of comparative literature These texts offer a fascinating insight into the work of one of the twentieth century s most important literary theorists The volume engages with Paul de Man s institutional life gathering together pedagogical and critical material to investigate his profound influence on the American academy and theory today It also contains a number of substantial previously unpublished and untranslated texts by de Man from the span of his writing career As a new collection of primary sources this volume further stimulates the growing reappraisal of de Man's work

Modernism, Nationalism, and the Novel Pericles Lewis, 2000-04-24 In Modernism Nationalism and the Novel first published in 2000 Pericles Lewis shows how political debates over the sources and nature of national character prompted radical experiments in narrative form amongst modernist writers Though critics have accused the modern novel of shunning the external world Lewis suggests that far from abandoning nineteenth century realists concern with politics the modernists used this emphasis on individual consciousness to address the distinctively political ways in which the modern nation state shapes the psyche of its subjects Tracing this theme through Joyce Proust and Conrad amongst others Lewis claims that modern novelists gave life to a whole generation of narrators who forged new social realities in their own images Their literary techniques multiple narrators transcriptions of consciousness involuntary memory and arcane symbolism focused attention on the shaping of the individual by the nation and on the potential of the individual in time of crisis to redeem the nation Modern Criticism Walter E. Sutton, 1963 The Incarnation of Language Michael O'Sullivan, 2014-02-13 The Incarnation of Language investigates how the notion of incarnation has been employed in phenomenology and how this has influenced literary criticism It then examines the interest that Joyce and Proust share in the concept of incarnation By examining the themes of synthesis and embodiment that incarnation connotes for these writers it offers a new reading of their work departing from critical readings that have privileged notions of radical alterity and difference Eavesdropping in the Novel from Austen to Proust Ann Gaylin, 2003-01-16 Eavesdropping in the Novel from Austen to Proust investigates human curiosity and its representation in eavesdropping scenes in nineteenth century English and French novels Ann Gaylin argues that eavesdropping dramatizes a primal human urge to know and offers a paradigm of narrative transmission and reception of information among characters narrators and readers Gaylin sheds light on the social and psychological effects of the nineteenth century rise of information technology and accelerated flow of information as manifested in the anxieties about and delight in displays of private life and its secrets Analysing eavesdropping in Austen Balzac Collins Dickens and Proust Gaylin demonstrates the flexibility of the scene to produce narrative complication or resolution to foreground questions of gender and narrative agency to place the debates of privacy and publicity within the literal and metaphoric spaces of the nineteenth century novel This 2003 study will be of interest to scholars of nineteenth century English and European literature Stephen King Harold Bloom, 2006 Though often disparaged by literary critics Stephen King's work has influenced a generation of horror and science fiction writers Acting as a study guide this book features the important critical interpretations of the horror master's work William Wordsworth, Updated Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on English poet laureate William Wordsworth and his works Contemporary Criticism , The Culture of Yellow Sabine Doran, 2013-09-26 This is the first book to explore the cultural significance of the color yellow showing how its psychological and aesthetic value marked and shaped many of the intellectual political and artistic currents of late modernity It contends that yellow functions during this period primarily as a color of stigma and scandal Yellow stigmatization has had a long history it goes back to the Middle Ages when Jews and prostitutes were forced to wear yellow signs to emphasize their marginal status Although scholars have commented on these associations in particular contexts Sabine Doran offers the first overarching account of how yellow connects disparate cultural phenomena such as turn of the century decadence the yellow nineties the rise of mass media yellow journalism mass immigration from Asia the yellow peril and mass stigmatization the yellow star that Jews were forced to wear in Nazi Germany The Culture of Yellow combines cultural history with innovative readings of literary texts and visual artworks providing a multilayered account of the unique role played by the color yellow in late nineteenth and twentieth century American and European culture John Keats, Updated Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on the works of John Keats The European Roman d'Analyse Adele Kudish, 2020-01-23 Through close readings of a selection of European novels and novellas written between 1340 and 1827 this study of analytical fiction examines how unconsummated love stories probe the frailty of self knowledge Tracing elements of what the French call the roman d analyse in the works of Boccaccio Marguerite de Navarre Cervantes Marie de Lafayette Samuel Richardson Jane Austen and Stendhal Adele Kudish discusses how the metaphor of unconsummated love is deployed to represent a fundamental lack of insight into the self Rather than depicting the mind as transparent analytical fiction deals in the opacity of the mind Narrators and characters are faced with deception misprision doubt and confusion leading to self deception jealousy and crises of self The European Roman d Analyse reads such epistemological failures as symptoms of a more fundamental preoccupation with the human psyche as unchartable and bizarre In this way the authors of romans d analyse enact a larger philosophical project an anatomy of the psyche wherein we are unable or unwilling to know ourselves Nathaniel Hawthorne, Updated Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 A collection of critical essays on Nathaniel Hawthorne's work Comparative Criticism: Volume 7, Boundaries of Literature E. S. Shaffer, 1986-04-17 Comparative Criticism is an annual journal of comparative literature and cultural studies that has gained an international reputation since its inception in 1979 It contains major articles on literary theory and criticism on a wide range of comparative topics and on interdisciplinary debates It includes translations of literary scholarly and critical works substantial reviews of important books in the field and bibliographies on specialist themes for the year on individual writers and on comparative literary studies in Britain and Ireland Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone, Paolo Puppa, 2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone,2007 Publisher description
