Marcel Proust On Art And Literature 1896 1919:

Marcel Proust on Art and Literature, 1896-1919 Marcel Proust, 1997 Marcel Proust on Art and Literature, 1958

The Impact of Art on French Literature Helen Osterman Borowitz, 1985 This book traces a direct line of tradition that unites the French précieux novel Romantic and Symbolist literature and Proust's novel cycle Proust and the Arts Christie McDonald, François Proulx, 2015-11-05 Proust and the Arts brings together expert Proustians and renowned interdisciplinary scholars in a major reconsideration of the novelist's relation to the arts Going beyond the classic question of the models used by Proust for his fictional artists the essays collected here explore how he learned from and integrated in highly personal ways the work of such creators as Wagner or Carpaccio This volume reveals the breadth of Proust's engagement with varied art forms from different eras from primitive arts to sound recordings from medieval sculpture to Art Nouveau glassmaking and from portrait photography to the private art of doodling Chapters bring into focus issues of perception and detail in examining how Proust encountered and responded to works of art and attend to the ways art shaped his complex relationship to identity sexuality humor and the craft of writing Ekphrasis, Memory and Narrative after Proust Leonid Bilmes, 2022-12-15 This book explores the relationship between ekphrasis and memory in the novel Drawing on la recherche du temps perdu Leonid Bilmes considers how Vladimir Nabokov W G Sebald Ben Lerner Ali Smith and Lydia Davis have employed and reshaped Proust's way of depicting the recollected past In Ada Austerlitz 10 04 How to Be Both and The End of the Story memory images are variously transposed into intermedial descriptions that inform the narrator's story just as they serve to shape the reader's own remembrance of each of these narratives Ekphrasis in the novel after Proust Bilmes argues acts as a distinct site within the text where past and present self and other image and text seeing and hearing are ever on the brink of reconciliation The book surveys a wide field of critical inquiry encompassing classical theorizations of ekphrasis philosophical explorations of memory and visuality as well as seminal studies of image text relations by among others W J T Mitchell Jean Luc Nancy and Liliane Louvel Bilmes's compelling dialogue with theory and literature evinces the underexplored bond between ekphrasis and memory in the contemporary novel In Looking Back One Learns to See: Marcel Proust and Photography Mary Bergstein, 2014-03-01 Marcel Proust offered the twentieth century a new psychology of memory and seeing His novel In Search of Lost Time was written in the modern age of photography and art history In Looking Back One Learns to See Marcel Proust and Photography is an intellectual adventure that brings to light Proust's visual imagination his visual metaphors and his photographic resources and imaginings The book features over 90 illustrations Mary Bergstein highlights various kinds of photography daguerreotypes stereoscopic cards cartes de visite postcards book illustrations and other photographic mediums Portraiture medical photography spirit photography architectural photography Orientalism ethnographic photography and fin de siècle studies of Botticelli Leonardo and Vermeer are considered in terms of Proust's life and work The net is cast wide and each image under discussion has been researched with subtle attention to art literature and cultural history This scholarly study in literature and visual culture will be a delight too for general readers who love photography or Proust Mary Bergstein is professor of History of Art and Visual Culture at the Rhode Island School of Design She won the 2012 Courage to Dream book prize from the American Psychoanalytic Association for Mirrors of Memory Freud Photography and the History of Art Cornell 2010 She has published numerous books and articles on art and visual culture from Italian Renaissance sculpture to contemporary photography Mad Enchantment Ross King, 2016-09-06 From bestselling author Ross King a brilliant portrait of the legendary artist and the story of his most memorable achievement Claude Monet is perhaps the world's most beloved artist and among all his creations the paintings of the water lilies in his garden at Giverny are most famous Monet intended the water lilies to provide an asylum of peaceful meditation Yet as Ross King reveals in his magisterial chronicle of both artist and masterpiece these beautiful canvases featured in black and white images throughout as well as a 16 pg color insert belie the intense frustration Monet experienced in trying to capture the fugitive effects of light water and color They also reflect the terrible personal torments Monet suffered in the last dozen years of his life Mad Enchantment tells the full story behind the creation of the Water Lilies as the horrors of World War I came ever closer to Paris and Giverny and a new generation of younger artists led by Henri Matisse and Pablo Picasso were challenging the achievements of Impressionism By early 1914 French newspapers were reporting that Monet by then seventy three had retired his brushes He had lost his beloved wife Alice and his eldest son Jean His famously acute vision what Paul Cezanne called the most prodigious eye in the history of painting was threatened by cataracts And yet despite ill health self doubt and advancing age Monet began painting again on a more ambitious scale than ever before Linking great artistic achievement to the personal and historical dramas unfolding around it Ross King presents the most intimate and revealing portrait of an iconic figure in world culture Narrative Discourse Revisited Gérard Genette, 1988 In Narrative Discourse Revisited Genette both answers critics of the earlier work and provides a better defined richer and more systematic view of narrative form and functioning This book not only clarifies some of the more complex issues in the study of narrative but also provides a vivid tableau of the development of narratology over the decade between the two works Understanding Our Selves Susan Tridgell, 2004 Modern Western biography has become one of the most popular and most controversial forms of literature Critics have attacked its tendency to rely on a strong narrative drive its focus on a single person's life and its tendency to delve ever more deeply into that person's inner private experience though these tendencies seem to have only increased biography's popularity To date however biography has been a rarely studied literary form Little serious attention has been given to the light biographies can shed on philosophical problems such as the intertwining of knowledge and power or the ways in which we can understand lives or terms like the self Should selves be seen as relational or as autonomous What of the lies and silences of biographies the ways in which embodiment can be ignored A study of these problems allows engagement with a range of philosophers and literary theorists including Roland

Barthes Lorraine Code Michel Foucault Emmanuel Levinas Alasdair MacIntyre Ray Monk Friedrich Nietzsche Paul Ricoeur Richard Rorty and Charles Taylor Biography can be a dangerous art claiming to know just how you feel This book explores the double edged nature of biography looking at what it reveals about both narratives and selves Suffering Scholars Anne C. Vila, 2018-03-15 Identity The Necessity of a Modern Idea is the first comprehensive history of the concept that answers the question Who or what am I Gerald Izenberg contends that our most important identities while historically conditioned are rooted in permanent categories of human existence such as sexuality sociality and labor Book jacket Travellers' Tales of Wonder Simon Cooke, 2013-02-22 Exploring travellers tales of wonder in contemporary literature this study challenges a sensibility of disenchantment with travel It reassesses travel writing as an aesthetically and ethically innovative form in contemporary international literature and demonstrates the crucial role of wonder in the travel narratives of writers such as Bruce Chatwin V S Naipaul and W G Sebald Their travellers tales of wonder are read as a challenge to the hubris of thinking the world too well known and an invitation to encounter the world including its most troubling histories with a sense of wonder Touchstones Frank Shovlin, 2016 Touchstones examines the literary influences that led to John McGahern becoming Ireland's greatest fiction writer of the post war generation Divination Dr Patrick Curry, 2013-06-28 Divination is any ritual and its associated tradition performed in order to ask a more than human intelligence for guidance A universal human practice it has received surprisingly little academic attention This interdisciplinary collection by leading scholars in the field is dedicated to fascinating new insights into divination and oracles arising from recent work in anthropology religious studies history and classical studies Central importance is given to the practical and theoretical perspectives of diviners as well as scholars of divination several contributors are both This book explores philosophical issues such as the nature of divinatory intelligence the relationship between divinatory and metaphorical truth the primacy of ontology over epistemology the importance of reflexivity in scholarly studies of divination and astrology as the principal Western form of divination The ethnographic and historical examples range from contemporary Nigeria urban Cuba Mayan Guatemala and the shamanic cultures of the circumpolar Arctic to classical Greece and ancient Judea Divination Patrick Curry, 2016-05-13 Divination is any ritual and its associated tradition performed in order to ask a more than human intelligence for guidance A universal human practice it has received surprisingly little academic attention This interdisciplinary collection by leading scholars in the field is dedicated to fascinating new insights into divination and oracles arising from recent work in anthropology religious studies history and classical studies Central importance is given to the practical and theoretical perspectives of diviners as well as scholars of divination several contributors are both This book explores philosophical issues such as the nature of divinatory intelligence the relationship between divinatory and metaphorical truth the primacy of ontology over epistemology the importance of reflexivity in scholarly studies of divination and astrology as the principal Western form of divination The ethnographic and historical examples range from contemporary

Dostoevsky as Suicidologist Amy D. Ronner, 2021-01-12 In Dostoevsky as Suicidologist Amy D Ronner illustrates how self homicide in Fyodor Dostoevsky's fiction prefigures Emile Durkheim's etiology in Suicide as well as theories of other prominent suicidologists This book not only fills a lacuna in Dostoevsky scholarship but provides fresh readings of Dostoevsky's major works including Notes from The House of the Dead Crime and Punishment The Idiot Demons and The Brothers Karamazov Ronner provides an exegesis of how Dostoevsky's implicit awareness of fatalistic altruistic egoistic and anomic modes of self destruction helped shape not only his philosophy but also his craft as a writer In this study Ronner contributes to the field of suicidology by anatomizing both self destructive behavior and suicidal ideation while offering ways to think about prevention But most expansively Ronner tackles the formidable task of forging a ligature between artistic creation and the pluripresent social fact of self annihilation

Why Do Things Break? R.A. Goodrich, Ann M McCulloch, 2019-05-16 This study interrogates the breakages that occur in people's lives such as psychological breakdowns political ruptures and the effects of history evolving ideologically such that the axioms of the past are overturned and people subsequently lose their sense of identity or purpose The book combines creative writing pieces in which writers draw from personal experiences to demonstrate the impact of breakages with more discursive essays that question artificial breakdowns between disciplines and the imperative that underpins all knowledge its provisional nature in conflict with the human need to categorize and define It focuses on the psychologies that haunt creative autobiographical pieces as well as the plight of broken minds and bodies in the face of trauma historical change and political events It also looks directly at the ideas of thinkers and artists from the past and the impact their work may still have despite shifting paradigms ruptures and re formations Furthermore it queries new formations by directly asking why did former ideas break and why the need for salvaging the past or authenticating the present by identifying precursors

Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Literature Ian Buchanan, Tim Matts, Aidan Tynan, 2015-02-26 In 1972 the French theorists Deleuze and Guattari unleashed their collaborative project which they termed schizoanalysis upon the world Today few disciplines in the humanities and social sciences have been left untouched by its influence Through a series of groundbreaking applications of Deleuze and Guattari's work to a diverse range of literary contexts from Shakespeare to science fiction this collection demonstrates how schizoanalysis has transformed and is transforming literary scholarship Intended for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars with an interest in continental philosophy literary theory and critical and cultural theory Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Literature is a cutting edge volume featuring some of the most original voices in the field setting the agenda for future research

Peiresc's Mediterranean World Peter N. Miller, 2015-05-11 Antiquarian lawyer and cat lover Nicolas Fabri de Peiresc 1580 1637 was a prince of the Republic of Letters and the most gifted French intellectual in the generation between Montaigne and Descartes From Peiresc's study in Aix en Provence his insatiable curiosity poured forth in thousands of letters that traveled the Mediterranean seeking knowledge of matters mundane and exotic Mining the remarkable 70 000 page archive of this Provençal humanist and polymath Peter N Miller recovers a lost Mediterranean world of the early seventeenth century that was dominated by the sea the ceaseless activity of merchants customs officials and ships captains at the center of Europe's sprawling maritime networks Peiresc's Mediterranean World reconstructs the web of connections that linked the bustling port city of Marseille to destinations throughout the Western Mediterranean North Africa the Levant and beyond Peter Miller's reanimation of Peiresc the master of the Mediterranean is the best kind of case study It not only makes us appreciate the range and richness of one man's experience and the originality of his thought but also suggests that he had many colleagues in his deepest and most imaginative inquiries Most important it gives us hope that their archives too will be opened up by scholars skillful and imaginative enough to make them speak to us Anthony Grafton New York Review of Books

Poetic Force Kevin McLaughlin, 2014-09-17 This book argues that the theory of force elaborated in Immanuel Kant's aesthetics and in particular his theorization of the dynamic sublime is of decisive importance to poetry in the nineteenth century and to the connection between poetry and philosophy over the last two centuries Inspired by his deep engagement with the critical theory of Walter Benjamin who especially developed this Kantian strain of thinking Kevin McLaughlin uses this theory of force to illuminate the work of three of the most influential nineteenth century writers in their respective national traditions Friedrich Hölderlin Charles Baudelaire and Matthew Arnold The result is a fine elucidation of Kantian theory and a fresh account of poetic language and its aesthetic ethical and political possibilities Human-Environment Relations Emily Brady, Pauline Phemister, 2012-02-01 This fresh and innovative approach to human environmental relations will revolutionise our understanding of the boundaries between ourselves and the environment we inhabit The anthology is predicated on the notion that values shift back and forth between humans and the world around them in an ethical communicative zone called value space The contributors examine the transformative interplay between external environments and human values and identify concrete ways in which these norms residing in and derived from self and society are projected onto the environment
