Asian Trade and European Influence M. A. P. Meilink-Roelofs, 2013-11-11 Now that this study is completed and I wish to make due acknowledgment to all those who have in any degree contributed towards its realization my thoughts turn in the first place to the one to whom this book is dedicated It is a great grief to me that he who took such an intense interest in my work has not lived to see its conclusion It was he who in the beginning urged me to venture upon this course of study and whose encouragement helped me in moments of despondency The high standard which with his keen and critical judgment he set for his own work was an example to me and I shall strive to maintain it in my future studies Not only did he help me to lay the foundation of my knowledge of archive science but he was also my guide in a field new to me in many respects that of Asian maritime trade His wide knowledge of medieval European trade in the Baltic area led me to compare and contrast the two worlds of East and West and thus helped me to obtain a deeper insight into the differences and similarities between the various problems involved I am greatly indebted to Prof Dr J M Romein who has followed the progress of my studies with great interest all these years and on whose help and support sometimes in very difficult circumstances I have always been able to rely
