Travel and Travellers from Bede to Dampier Geraldine Barnes with Gabrielle Singleton, 2008-12-11. The essays in this collection, a selection of papers presented at the University of Sydney Centre for Medieval Studies workshop 'Travel and Cartography from Bede to the Enlightenment' (August 22-23, 2001), track a variety of travel narratives from the eighth century to the eighteenth. Their voyages, which extend from the literal to the spiritual, the political and the artistic, show how the concept of narrative mapping has changed over time and how it encompasses cosmogony, geography, chorography, topography and inventory. Each essay is concerned in some way with the application of the medieval geographical imagination or with the enduring influence of that imagination upon post-medieval travel and discovery writing. This book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate university students and to a broad range of academics across the disciplines of literature and history. It will be of particular interest to medievalists and scholars of the early modern period and to readers of the new 1997 scholarly journal Studies in Travel Writing. The volume will also appeal to a more general informed readership interested in the history of travel and the history of ideas, early contact with indigenous people and encounters between East and West.
