China Zhuoyun Xu, 2012 An internationally recognized authority on Chinese history and a leading innovator in its telling Cho yun Hsu constructs an original portrait of Chinese culture Unlike most historians Hsu resists centering his narrative on China's political evolution focusing instead on the country's cultural sphere and its encounters with successive waves of globalization Beginning long before China's written history and extending through the twentieth century Hsu follows the content and expansion of Chinese culture describing the daily lives of commoners their spiritual beliefs and practices the changing character of their social and popular thought and their advances in material culture and technology In addition to listing the achievements of emperors generals ministers and sages Hsu builds detailed accounts of these events and their everyday implications Dynastic change the rise and fall of national ambitions and the growth and decline of institutional systems take on new significance through Hsu's careful research which captures the multiple strands that gave rise to China's pluralistic society Paying particular attention to influential relationships occurring outside of Chinese cultural boundaries he demonstrates the impact of foreign influences on Chinese culture and identity and identifies similarities between China's cultural developments and those of other nations

A Cultural History of the Sea in the Medieval Age Elizabeth Lambourn, 2023-02-09 The cultural history of the sea during the Middle Ages is a young and dynamic field Born only recently in the literary criticism of European sources this innovative volume pushes out beyond this European heartland to explore the shape and potential of a cultural history of the sea constructed also from global literatures and oral traditions and from material things The chapters in this volume bring together the perspectives and expertise of archaeologists historians and literary historians with a core focus on Afro Eurasia and its encircling seas Topics explored include the evolving visual representation of the seas in Europe the Islamic world and the Far East the development of navigation technologies in the seas around Afro Eurasia imaginative projections of the sea in cultures ranging from Maori Aotearoa to Europe a history of maritime and riverine trade networks across medieval Afro Eurasia and two novel comparative studies of islands and shores in Mediterranean and Indian Ocean history and of the archaeology of fishing and fish eating in the North Atlantic and Swahili worlds This volume does not pretend to offer a definitive answer to how a more global cultural history of the sea should be written it offers not The but A Cultural History of the Sea for the period between 800 and 1450 CE shaped as much by the parameters of the series itself as by the vision curiosity and expertise of its editor and individual contributors In so doing this volume hopes to open fresh dialogues amongst cultural historians of the sea and bring new ideas and questions to the greater numbers of non specialists just now venturing into this field
