Myths Dreams Mysteries:

Myths, Dreams and Mysteries Mircea Eliade,1960 Myths, Dreams, and Mysteries Mircea Eliade,1968 Myths, dreams and mysteries, by mircea eliade Mircea Eliade,1968 Myth and Religion in Mircea Eliade Douglas Allen,2002

This is an interesting study with a great deal of information on Eliade's main themes and a detailed account of his understanding of myth Myth and Modernity Milton Scarborough,1994-01-01 This book surveys selected modern theories of myth from philosophy religion anthropology sociology and psychoanalysis to demonstrate a common commitment to a dualistic ontology and or epistemology With help from the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty and Michael Polanyi the author proposes a new theory of myth which goes beyond these dualisms It argues that although the Enlightenment sought to banish myth it was itself animated by myths which it could neither recognize nor accredit Moreover it argues that myth is a primordial articulate grasp of the life world and is essential for providing a fundamental orientation to all human activities including theorizing The myths of Timaeus and Genesis are shown tacitly to shape modernity's most sophisticated theories in science and philosophy including the criteria for truth A Short History of Myth (Myths series) Karen Armstrong,2010-10-29 What are myths How have they evolved And why do we still so desperately need them A history of myth is a history of humanity Karen Armstrong argues in this insightful and eloquent book our stories and beliefs our curiosity and attempts to understand the world link us to our ancestors and each other This is a brilliant and thought provoking introduction to myth in the broadest sense from Palaeolithic times to the Great Western Transformation of the last 500 years and why we dismiss it only at our peril Divine Madness Harry Eiss,2011-08-08 Lila is Sanskrit for play the play of the gods It is the self generating genesis of Bliss created by Bliss for the purpose of Bliss It is the uninhibited impulsive sport of Brahman the free spirit of creation that results in the spontaneous unfolding of the cosmos to be found in the eternity of each moment It is beyond the confining locks and chains of reason beyond the steel barred windows looking out from the cages of explanation beyond the droning tick tick tick of the huge mechanical clocks of time Come let us enter the realm of the madman and the finely wrought threads of Clotho as they are measured out by Lachesis and cut by Atropos to create the great tapestry of life including the intricate intertwining designs of dementia with the trickster the shaman the scapegoat the shadow the artist and the savior Come let us join in the divine madness of the gods Anarcho-primitivism , Structure and Creativity in Religion Douglas Allen,1978 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline In the Mirror of Memory Janet Gyatso,1992-10-01 This book studies the diverse array of species of memory in Buddhism Contributors focus on a particular school group of texts terms or practices and identify a considerable range of types of mnemonic faculties in Buddhism Included are discussions of Buddhist teaching meditation visualization prayer commemoration of the Buddha dh rani practice the use of mnemonic lists to condense lengthy scriptures and the purported recollection of infinite previous lives that immediately preceded Sakyamuni s attainment of Buddhahood Even enlightened awareness itself is said by some Buddhist schools to consist in a mnemonic engagement with reality as such The authors explore Buddhist views on mundane acts of memory such as recognizing reminding memorizing and storing data as well as special types of memory that are cultivated in religious practice One of the most striking discoveries is that perception is intimately related to certain types of memory Several essays investigate if and if so how meditative mindfulness and recollection of the past both of which can be designated by the term smṛti are connected within the Buddhist tradition The question of whether recollection of the past can be explained without violating the foundational Buddhist notions of radical impermanence and no self is addressed by several of the contributing scholars Among the primary sources for the studies in this volume are the northern and southern Abhidharma literature the M tk s P li and Mah y na s tras works of the Buddhist logicians Yog c ra materials the Tibetan Great Perfection Rdzogschen tradition and Indian and Tibetan commentarial works Affinities of Buddhist views on memory with those found in Western phenomenology semiology psychology and history of religions are considered as well
