Myths Of Analysis Three Essays In Archetypal Psychology:

The Myth of Analysis James Hillman, 1997 In this work acclaimed Jungian James Hillman examines the concepts of myth insights eros body and the mytheme of female inferiority as well as the need for the freedom to imagine and to feel psychic reality By examining these ideas and the role they have played both in and outside of the therapeutic setting Hillman mounts a compelling argument that rather than locking them away in some inner asylum or subjecting them to daily self treatment man s peculiarities can become an integral part of a rich and fulfilling daily life Originally published by Northwestern University Press in 1972 this work had a profound impact on a nation emerging self aware from the 1960s as well as on the era s burgeoning feminist movement It remains a profound critique of therapy and the psychological viewpoint and it is one of Hillman s most important and enduring works

Critical Communication Theory Sue Curry Jansen, 2002 In this text Sue Curry Jansen brings a different perspective to contemporary communication inquiry She engages two questions at the heart of critical politics of communication what do we know And how do we know it

An Image Darkly Forming Bani Shorter, 2015-08-11 Originally published in 1987 a well known Jungian analyst the late Bani Shorter writes here about how women are initiated into becoming themselves Her book was an important contribution to the field of analytical psychology at the time as well as to the increasingly popular study of women s spirituality In former times transitions from one stage of life to another were prepared for and marked by ritual initiation in modern times this necessity is overlooked and women s natural development is made more difficult as a consequence Through working in close therapeutic relationships with women Bani Shorter found that when challenged by crises and transitions in their lives today s women instinctively create rituals nevertheless to mark their journey towards maturation wholeness and meaning In this process they discover something of who they are and recognise dimensions of themselves which have been previously repressed and undreamed of The stories unfolded here can be a guide for all women through their own rites of passage

Islamic Masculinities Lahoucine Ouzgane, 2013-07-04 This innovative book outlines the great complexity variety and difference of male identities in Islamic societies From the Taliban orphanages of Afghanistan to the caf s of Morocco from the experience of couples at infertility clinics in Egypt to that of Iraqi conscripts it shows how the masculine gender is constructed and negotiated in the Islamic Ummah It goes far beyond the traditional notion that Islamic masculinities are inseparable from the control of women and shows how the relationship between spirituality and masculinity is experienced quite differently from the prevailing Western norms Drawing on sources ranging from modern Arabic literature to discussions of Muhammad s virility and Abraham s paternity it portrays ways of being in the world that intertwine with non Western conceptions of duty to the family the state and the divine

The Multicultural Imagination Michael Vannoy Adams, 2019-07-16 The Multicultural Imagination is a challenging inquiry into the complex interrelationship between our ideas about race and color and the unconscious Michael Vannoy Adams takes a fresh look at the contributions of psychoanalysis to a question which affects every individual who tries to establish an effective personal identity in the context of their received racial identity Adams argues that race is just as important as sex or any other content of the unconscious drawing on clinical case material from contemporary patients for whom race or color is a vitally significant social and political concern that impacts on them personally He does not assume that racism or colorism will simply vanish if we psychoanalyse them but shows how a non defensive ego and a self image that is receptive to other images can move us towards a more productive discourse of cultural differences Wide ranging in its references and scope this is a book that provokes the reader analyst or not to confront personally those unconscious attitudes which stand in the way of authentic multicultural relationships

Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood Maryann Barone-Chapman, 2019-11-28 Personal and Cultural Shadows of Late Motherhood explores the topic of delayed motherhood from a Jungian psychoanalytic perspective using both quantitative and qualitative research methods including interview transcripts diaries dreams and Jung's world renowned Word Association Experiment It provides a unique contribution to our understanding of the pressures faced by women today on the topic of delayed motherhood We may consider an affect to be in place when a woman allows her relationship to her body and its procreative capacity to slip away from consciousness only to awaken at a point when redeeming her past choices becomes a hunger This book delves into personal cultural and collective spheres of influence that have been split off waiting for the right moment to reintegrate Working with Interpretive Phenomenological Analysis and Jung's Word Association Experiment the author identifies aspects of the psyche arousing late procreative desire and considers the differing accounts of maternal and paternal parents within affective experience of growing up female beside a male sibling The book examines women's procreative identity in midlife identifies complexes of a personal cultural and collective nature and considers how the role of mother is psychosocially performed taking in feminist psychoanalytical thinking as well as Queer theory to explore new meanings for late motherhood This book will be of great interest to clinicians researchers academics postgraduate students of Jungian psychoanalysis gender theory psychosocial studies and those travelling alongside a woman's journey into later motherhood

Mythos and Logos in the Thought of Carl Jung Walter A. Shelburne, 1988-01-01 The author explores and defends the bold thesis that the idea of the collective unconscious can be reconciled with a scientific world outlook as he sketches a big picture from Jung's psychological viewpoint In his examination of Jung's archetypes Shelburne considers the chief critical views of the scientific import of Jung's thesis as he discusses the issue of rationality posed by the theory There is also a discussion of how the ideas of James Hillman contrast with those of Jung on the issue of the scientific nature of archetypes Shelburne presents scientific evidence for the existence of archetypes and shows how the theory fits in with modern evolutionary biology

The Trickster and the System Helena Bassil-Morozow, 2014-09-25 For centuries the trickster has been used in various narratives including mythological literary and cinematic to convey the idea of agency rebellion and often turbulent progress In The Trickster and the System Identity and Agency in Contemporary Society Helena Bassil Morozow shows how the

trickster can be seen as a metaphor to describe the psycho anthropological concept of change an impulse that challenges the existing order of things a progressive force that is a structural and anti structural in its nature The book is about being able to see things from an unusual even odd perspective which does not coincide with the homogenous normality of the mass or the social system or a political ideology or some other kind of authority The Trickster and the System offers an analytical paradigm which can be used to examine relationships between tricksters and systems change and stability in a wide range of social political and cultural contexts It covers a range of systems describes different types of tricksters and discusses possible conflicts tensions and dialogues between the two opposing sides One of the central ideas of the book is that social systems use shame as a tool to control and manage all kinds of tricksters individuality agency creativity spontaneity innovation and initiative to name but a few The author argues that any society that neglects its tricksters agents of change ends up suffering from decay stagnation or even mass hysterical outbursts The Trickster and the System Identity and Agency in Contemporary Society provides a fresh perspective on the trickster figure in a variety of cultural contexts It covers a range of psychological cultural social and political phenomena from personal issues to the highest level of society s functioning self esteem and shame lifestyle and relationships creativity and self expression media advertising economy political ideology and most importantly human identity and authenticity The book is essential reading for scholars in the areas of psychoanalysis analytical psychology myth cultural and media studies narrative analysis cultural anthropology as well as anyone interested in critical issues in contemporary culture Helena Bassil Morozow is a cultural philosopher film scholar and academic writer whose many publications include Tim Burton The Monster and the Crowd Routledge 2010 and The Trickster in Contemporary Film Routledge 2011 Helena is currently working on another Routledge project Jungian Film Studies the Essential Guide co authored with Luke Hockley Her principal academic affiliation is the University of Bedfordshire Faculty of Creative Arts Technologies Science

Transformation Eolene M. Boyd-MacMillan, 2006 The Feminine Case Tessa Adams, Andrea Duncan, 2018-12-07 The Feminine Case is a collection of papers that debate the issue of gender from a Jungian perspective Particular attention is paid to the discussion of Jung s transcendent function and what this offers women in the process of individualisation Attention is also given to the revisionist work of James Hillman and to relevant issues found within post Lacanian critique principally in the works of Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray and Helene Cixous The chapters deal with a range of issues and aim to promote further discussion One theme discussed in the book is the way in which feminine language is formed within a masculine domain and how it can and is changing Works of literature notably those of Charlotte Bronte and The Tempest are explored and examined in conjunction with Jungian themes The feminine in relation to the maternal and in its lack of relation to the divine are two other engaging topics discussed in this volume This collection involves the reader in a welcome debate on the role of the feminine in the Jungian world
