Globally, K8 Barbara A. Lehman, Evelyn B. Freeman, Patricia L. Scharer, 2010-09-20 In Reading Globally K 8 the authors make the case for why it is necessary to be globally literate and multiculturally aware in today s shrinking world and they provide the tools teachers need to incorporate appropriate reading selections into primary and secondary school classrooms By using books from or about other countries teachers empower students to view the world in a more positive manner enriching and broadening their students lives and ultimately preparing them for life in a global economy and culture This reader friendly resource guides teachers and reading programme coordinators in selecting quality books for their classrooms incorporating global literature into different content areas and facilitating the discussions that follow Practical guidance is provided on how to Integrate the reading of global texts across the curriculum with specific application to language arts social studies science maths and the arts Locate and evaluate the authenticity and literary merit of potential books avoiding those that depict stereotypes Get started with an annotated list of children s books samples of student work and classroom vignettes from teachers Multiethnic Books for the Middle-School Curriculum Cherri Jones, J. B. Petty, 2013-08-20 This resource makes it easy for teachers and librarians working with middle school children to infuse their curriculum with multicultural literature Carefully vetted and annotated it encompasses fiction and non fiction published in the last decade making it an ideal reference and collection development tool for schools and public libraries alike The English Maasai & Other Truths Samantha Kimambo,2008-05-01 The English Maasai is based on the true story of an average working young Mother who trades life in London for East Africa Starting off in Kenya she becomes involved in some community project work Through the work she meets a group of Maasai warriors from Tanzania and an amazing culture crossing friendship blooms When it is time for the warriors to return home for a celebration they invite her and her son along It turns out to be the most amazing and life changing adventure The story brings forward many questions and issues that we all have to deal with from social expectation to moral obligations and family betrayal this is a book which carries much of life in a brutally honest sometimes funny tragic and very emotional presentation The Rebels of New Sun Michael Kinch,2013-01-08 Jaym Reya and D shay infiltrate the capital city in their first offensive strike aimed at returning power to the people But under the threat of torture in the Snakepit a prison where no one leaves alive the New SUN rebels must evade robohounds dragonfly drones and GlobeTran cops to secure freedom for the people once and for all Bridges to Understanding Linda M. Pavonetti,2011-08-18 This is the fourth volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People following Children s Books from Other Countries 1998 The World Through Children s Books 2002 and Crossing Boundaries 2006 This latest volume edited by Linda M Pavonetti includes books published between 2005 and 2009 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country with descriptions of nearly 700 books representing more than 70 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children s literature Like its predecessors it will be an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity Going Down River Road Meja Mwangi,2023-11-01 After an exhausting day of hard labour Ben finds oblivion in the seedy bars and clubs of River Road anything to leave his cockroach infested rooms and ignore the reality of living paycheck to paycheck At times it s difficult to remember that it wasn t always this way Somehow he went from a promising career as a soldier to a disgraceful dismissal and a steady decline into poverty Now the only thing Ben has left to lose is hope Writing with colourful realism Meja Mwangi paints an unforgettable depiction of life in Nairobi s slums drawing attention to the hardships of the working poor and their disillusion with uncaring politicians Mwangi is among the leading Kenyan writers New York Times Riveting Guardian The finest African novel ever Professor Ibrahim Bello Kano A Family of Readers Martha V. Parravano,Roger Sutton,2012-10-09 Two of the most trusted reviewers in the field join with top authors illustrators and critics in a definitive guide to choosing books for children and nurturing their love of reading A FAMILY OF READERS is the definitive resource for parents interested in enriching the reading lives of their children It s divided into four sections 1 Reading to Them

Choosing and sharing board books and picture books with babies and very young children 2 Reading with Them Launching the new reader with easy readers and chapter books 3 Reading on Their Own Exploring what children read and how they read by genre and gender 4 Leaving Them Alone Respecting the reading privacy of the young adult Roger Sutton knows how and why children read He must as the editor in chief of THE HORN BOOK which since 1924 has been America's best source for reviews of books for young readers But for many parents selecting books for their children can make them feel lost Now in this essential resource Roger Sutton and Martha V Parravano executive editor at the magazine offer thoughtful essays that consider how books are read to and then by young people They invite such leading authors and artists as Maurice Sendak Katherine Paterson Margaret Mahy and Jon Scieszka as well as a selection of top critics to add their voices about the genres they know best The result is an indispensable readers companion to everything from wordless board books to the most complex and daring young adult novels

Flower Plantation Nora Anne Brown, 2014-03-26 Arthur Baptiste knows little of Rwanda's past and is unaware of its emerging troubles He lives with his parents on a flower plantation where he talks to no one not even the butterflies he collects until one day Beni appears Beni the cook's granddaughter is a child much like Arthur but one who lives in a world far different from his own Their friendship will take them from innocent adventures to sexual encounters and on towards dark revelations When news comes that the President has been killed Arthur is forced to leave his home the country he knows and the people he loves Arthur must say goodbye to Beni and leave her to a fate far worse than either could have imagined

Burn My Heart Beverley Naidoo, 2007-07-05 The Mau Mau the name of a secret society that once struck terror into the hearts of British settlers in Kenya An episode in history that ended in a State of Emergency with violent and brutal acts dividing a nation This is an intensely personal and vivid story of two boys one black one white Once they were friends even though their circumstances are very different But in a country driven by fear and prejudice even the best of friends can betray one another Internationally acclaimed and award winning author Beverley Naidoo explores new territory in this beautifully realized and moving story set in Britain's colonial past

Shelter Rock MP Miles, 2019-02-28 South Africa is under attack from all sides when Elanza a politically connected heiress blinded by disease and looking for love before it is too late meets a naive English boy Ralph eighteen and innocent has accidentally stumbled upon Elanza and South Africa's biggest secret The Lower River Paul Theroux, 2012 A taut tense darkly suspenseful novel about a man who flees to Africa after his marriage falls apart only to be caught up in a precarious situation in a seemingly benign village The Carpenter and The Goat Herder Merlin Goldman, 2022-10-01 A supernatural tale of a widowed carpenter and a beguiling woman carved from an ancient tree felled by lightning How is it possible that Kip's hands and simple tools have created such beauty How can a statue come alive And what are Ekundu's intentions All the villagers succumb to her charms but worst of all so does Mzungu the local warlord who raids the village for children to sustain his army Ekundu gives herself in exchange for their safety leaving Kip alone again Unable to persuade the village Elders to mount a rescue he treks to Mzungu's fort followed by his donkey But will it be Ekundu who ultimately rescues him And what of the mysterious goat herder who appears unexpectedly Does she know what magic is at play Pestilence Randall Wood, 2013-06-07 The bombing of an American Embassy in Africa pulls Special Agent Jack Randall out of his current doghouse status with the FBI and sends him on the trail of one of the world's most wanted terrorists While sifting through the debris his team discovers a mysterious shipment of medications Medications they soon discover that are valuable enough to kill for Jack is forced to embark on two missions catching the terrorist responsible for the bombing and discovering the source of the medications The trail leads him from the deserts of Africa to the Centers for Disease Control and on to the higher offices of the United States Government As the team uncovers the true nature and purpose of the medications Jack is faced with a decades old plot involving secret treaties biological warfare and deadly plagues He'll have to move fast the entire world is at stake The Boy Is Gone Laura Lee P. Huttenbach, 2015-06-08 A story with the power to change how people view the last years of colonialism in East Africa The Boy Is Gone portrays the struggle for Kenyan independence in the words of a freedom fighter whose life spanned the twentieth century's most dramatic transformations Born into an impoverished farm family in the Meru Highlands Japhlet Thambu grew up wearing goatskins and lived to stand before his community dressed for business in a pressed suit crisp tie and freshly polished shoes For most of the last four decades however he dressed for work in the primary school classroom and on his lush tea farm The General as he came to be called from his leadership of the Mau Mau uprising sixty years ago narrates his life story in conversation with Laura Lee Huttenbach a young American who met him while backpacking in Kenya in 2006 A gifted storyteller with a keen appreciation for language and a sense of responsibility as a repository of his people's history the General talks of his childhood in the voice of a young boy his fight against the British in the voice of a soldier and his long life in the voice of shrewd elder While his life experiences are his alone his story adds immeasurably to the long history of decolonization as it played out across Africa Asia and the Americas The Trial of Dedan Kimathi Ngugi wa Thiong'o, Micere Githae Mugo, 2013-10-11 Kenyan born novelist and playwright Ngugi wa Thiong'o and his collaborator Micere Githae Mugo have built a powerful and challenging play out of the circumstances surrounding the 1956 trial of Dedan Kimathi the celebrated Kenyan hero who led the Mau Mau rebellion against the British colonial regime in Kenya and was eventually hanged. A highly controversial character, Kimathi's life has been subject to intense propaganda by both the British government, who saw him as a vicious terrorist, and Kenyan nationalists who viewed him as a man of great courage and commitment. Writing in the 1970s, the playwrights' response to colonialist writings about the Mau Mau movement in The Trial of Dedan Kimathi is to sing the praises of the deeds of this hero of the resistance who refused to surrender to British imperialism. It is not a reproduction of the farcical trial at Nyeri. Rather, according to the preface, it is an imaginative recreation and interpretation of the collective will of the Kenyan peasants and workers in their refusal to break under sixty years of colonial torture and ruthless oppression by the British ruling classes and their continued determination to resist exploitation, oppression, and new forms of enslavement. The Boy's Own Annual, 1886
