Nabankur A Seedlings Tale:

Nabankur Sulekha Sanyal, 2001 Translated For The First Time From The Bengali This Astonishingly Radical Novel Is About Chhobi A Gutsy Misfit Girl From A Rural Landowning Family Who Refuses To See Her Future As Just Another Submissive Household Drudge Mid-century women's writing Melissa Dinsman, Megan Faragher, Ravenel Richardson, 2024-07-09 The traditional narrative of the mid century 1930s 60s is that of a wave of expansion and constriction with the swelling of economic and political freedoms for women in the 1930s the cresting of women in the public sphere during the Second World War and the resulting break as employment and political opportunities for women dwindled in the 1950s when men returned home from the front But as the burgeoning field of interwar and mid century women s writing has demonstrated this narrative is in desperate need of re examination Mid century women s writing Disrupting the public private divide aims to revivify studies of female writers journalists broadcasters and public intellectuals living or working in Britain or under British rule during the mid century while also complicating extant narratives about the divisions between domesticity and politics Rethinking Place through Literary Form Rupsa Banerjee, Nathaniel Cadle, 2022-05-30 Rethinking Place Through Literary Form regards the relationship between place and linguistic form as challenging real and perceived configurations of place and renegotiating geopolitically determined categories of the centre and periphery The volume argues that the rise of scattered communities displaced physically and psychologically by urban and alienated geographies necessitates linguistic negotiations of one s locatedness in place as the chief means of uncovering and re building identity By looking at narrative re imaginings of forgotten and interrupted intimacies between habitation and place from diverse parts of the world the twelve chapters address the growing need to expand and alter approaches to literary representations of modernity and modes of self location Insurgent Imaginations Auritro Majumder, 2020-10-22 This book argues that contemporary world literature is defined by peripheral internationalism Over the twentieth and twenty first centuries a range of aesthetic forms beyond the metropolitan West fiction memoir cinema theater came to resist cultural nationalism and promote the struggles of subaltern groups Peripheral internationalism pitted intellectuals and writers not only against the ex imperial West but also against their burgeoning national elites In a sense these writers marginalized the West and placed the non Western peripheries in a new center Through a grounded yet sweeping survey of Bengali English and other texts the book connects India to the Soviet Union China Vietnam Latin America and the United States Chapters focus on Rabindranath Tagore M N Roy Mrinal Sen Mahasweta Devi Arundhati Roy and Aravind Adiga Unlike the Anglo American emphasis on a post national globalization Insurgent Imaginations argues for humanism and revolutionary internationalism as the determinate bases of world literature Literature and Gender Supriya Chaudhuri, Sajni Mukherji, 2002 This book brings together a rich collection of new work on the cultural interface of literature and gender ranging from essays on medieval and Renaissance Europe to nineteenth century political movements and representations in modern Indian film The contributors are some of the most distinguished scholars of our time working in Europe and in India What Kind of Future Can We Make? : Education, Youth and HIV/AIDS. Agenda (Organization),2002 Inventing Subjects Himani Bannerji,2002 A collection of essays written from a Marxist Feminist perspective Inventing Subjects is a significant contribution to the field of historical sociology The essays speak of the different ways in which social subjects and their agencies have been constructed and represented in the context of the development of colonial hegemony and socio cultural formations in India Four of the essays focus on constructive proposals for social subjectivities and agencies of Bengali middle class women by both the indigenous and the colonial elite The other two essays consider the invention or construction of India as an ideological category for ruling which seeks to impose on it a colonially ascribed identity The essays capture the fluidity and complexity of subject construction and read moral regulations and culture in terms of a hegemonic process They range from middle class Bengali women's attempts at self fashioning to the colonial ideological reflexes within which their projects are articulated They disclose and query the tensions inherent in the processes of indigenous socio cultural constructions and identity formations as well as the reductionism involved in the creation of colonial others Newsline ,2007 The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Food J. Michelle Coghlan,2020-03-19 This Companion rethinks food in literature from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales to contemporary food blogs and recovers cookbooks as literary texts The Book Review ,2003 Whom Can I Tell? how Can I Explain? Saroja Ramaṇalāla Pāṭhaka,2002 These English translations from the Gujarati bring Saroj Pathak's work to a wider audience giving it the greater attention it deserves Delving deep into the human mind the stories depict the pitfalls of communication the infinite possibilities of misunderstanding of doubt and despair At the same time they celebrate the human psyche's ability to bridge these chasms and make connections of love understanding and friendship Pathak considers the predicaments of both women and men as they grapple with the modernity that has been thrust upon them Indeed Pathak's interest in men as well as women characters distinguishes her from many other women novelists Indian Books in Print ,2003 The Indian National Bibliography ,2002-07 Indian National Bibliography B. S. Kesavan,2002 Book Review Index ,2002 The World My Mother Gave Me University of British Columbia. Institute of Asian Research,1998 Indian Women Writers P. Christina,2007 Brief biographical sketches and major literary achievements of eminent Indian women writers Encyclopaedia of Great Indian Novels and Novelists Ravi Narayan Pandey,2008 The novels in India is conventionally thought to have emerged in the middle of the nineteenth century The year of the Rebellion 1857 also saw the publication of Alaler Gharer Dulal upon which Bankimchandra Chatterji who himself holds a lofty place in the development of the novel In India lavished praise as a beautifully written work A Quest for Roots Rekha Mody,1999 Revolutionary Desires Ania Loomba,2018-07-24 Revolutionary Desires examines the lives and subjectivities of militant nationalist and communist women in India from the late 1920s shortly after the communist movement took root to the 1960s when it fractured This close study demonstrates how India's revolutionary women shaped a new female and in some cases feminist political subject in the twentieth century in collaboration and contestation with Indian nationalist liberal feminist and European left wing models of womanhood Through a wide range of writings by and about revolutionary and communist women including memoirs autobiographies novels party documents and interviews Ania Loomba traces the experiences of these women showing how they were constrained by but also how they questioned the gendered norms of Indian political culture A collection of carefully restored photographs is dispersed throughout the book helping to evoke the texture of these women s political experiences both public and private Revolutionary Desires is an original and important intervention into a neglected area of leftist and feminist politics in India by a major voice in feminist studies
